S.F. No. 1508, as introduced - 87th Legislative Session (2011-2012) [11-2759]

4.1 (b) "Placeholder" means a qualified person who has been appointed by the governor
4.2 to a judicial office. A placeholder who has been appointed to judicial office is not a prior 4.3 office holder or the successor of a prior office holder, unless later elected to that position.

4.4 (c) "Prior office holder" means a person who had been elected to judicial office and 4.5 held the position until death, resignation, or removal from office created a vacancy in 4.6 the judicial office.

4.7 (d) "Qualified person" is a person who is learned in the law, is a resident of the 4.8 district in which the person will serve, and meets all other requirements for holding 4.9 judicial office as provided in law.

4.10 (e) "Successor" means a person who is elected to a judicial office to fill a vacancy
4.11 which was created by a prior office holder through death, resignation, or removal from 4.12 office.

4.13 (f) "Vacancy" means an unfilled judicial office created when the prior office holder
4.14 dies, resigns, or is removed from office. The mere announcement of an intention to resign
4.15 does not create a vacancy.

4.16 Subd. 2. Filling a judicial vacancy. (a) Whenever there is a vacancy in the office
4.17 of judge, the governor shall appoint a placeholder to fill the vacancy until a successor is
4.18 elected and qualified. A successor shall be elected at the next general election occurring
4.19 more than one year after the date of appointment of the placeholder.

4.20 (b) The death, resignation, or removal of a placeholder from office prior to an
4.21 election shall not alter the date of the election of a successor. Should the placeholder fail
4.22 to serve, for any reason, in the judicial office until the successor is elected, then:

4.23 (1) if the election is less than 12 months away, the position shall be filled when a
4.24 successor is elected; or

4.25 (2) if the election is more than 12 months away, the governor shall appoint a
4.26 qualified person who shall serve only until a successor is elected and qualified.

4.27 Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 490.121, is amended by adding a subdivision
4.28 to read:

4.29 Subd. 7d. Compelling physical or personal reason. "Compelling physical or 4.30 personal reason" means a physical condition that renders the judge unable to perform the 4.31 duties of judicial office or the need to care for a member of the judge's immediate family.

4.32 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2011, and applies to vacancies
4.33 occurring on or after that date.

5.1 Subd. 21d. Mandatory retirement date. "Mandatory retirement date" means
5.2 ~~the last day of the month in which~~ December 31 of the year of a general election after a
5.3 judge has attained 70 years of age.

5.4 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2011.

5.5 Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 490.121, is amended by adding a subdivision
5.6 to read:

5.7 Subd. 21g. Optional retirement date. "Optional retirement date" means December
5.8 31 of a general election year.

5.9 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2011.

5.12 and after the mandatory retirement date, the normal retirement date, the early retirement
5.13 date, the optional retirement date, or one year from the disability retirement date or date
5.14 approved by the Court of Appeals under subdivision 4a, as the case may be, a retiring
5.15 judge is eligible to receive a retirement annuity from the judges' retirement fund.

5.16 (b) The retirement annuity is an amount equal to: (1) the percent specified in section
5.17 356.315, subdivision 7, multiplied by the judge's final average compensation with that
5.18 result then multiplied by the number of years and fractions of years of allowable service
5.19 rendered before July 1, 1980; plus (2) the percent specified in section 356.315, subdivision
5.20 8, multiplied by the judge's final average compensation with that result then multiplied
5.21 by the number of years and fractions of years of allowable service rendered after June
5.22 30, 1980.

5.23 (c) Service that exceeds the service credit limit in section 490.121, subdivision 22,
5.24 must be excluded in calculating the retirement annuity, but the compensation earned by 5.25 the judge during this period of judicial service must be used in determining a judge's final
5.26 average compensation and calculating the retirement annuity.

5.27 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2011.

5.28 Sec. 9. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 490.124, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

5.29 Subd. 3. Early reduced retirement. Except as provided in subdivision 3a, the 5.30 retirement annuity under subdivision 1 of any judge who elects to retire at an early
5.31 retirement date that does not qualify as an optional retirement date must be reduced by 5.32 one-half of one percent per month from the retirement date to the normal retirement date.

6.1 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2011.

6.2 Sec. 10. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 490.124, is amended by adding a subdivision
6.3 to read:

6.4 Subd. 3a. Partial forfeiture of retirement annuity. The retirement annuity under 6.5 subdivision 1 of any judge who elects to retire at any date that results in the appointment
6.6 of a successor by the governor must be reduced by 25 percent. This subdivision shall 6.7 not apply if the judge is appointed to serve on another court, the judge retires due to a
6.8 disability, or the judge retires for compelling physical or personal reasons.

6.9 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2011, and applies to judges
6.10 elected or appointed to a new term of office on or after that date.

6.11 Sec. 11. Minnesota Statutes 2010, section 490.124, is amended by adding a subdivision
6.12 to read:

6.13 Subd. 4a. Compelling physical or personal reason retirement. (a) An incumbent
6.14 judge may retire at any time if unable to continue to serve as a judge for a compelling
6.15 physical or personal reason, as approved by the Court of Appeals. When the Court of 6.16 Appeals determines that a judge is unable to serve under this subdivision, notice of 6.17 the court's determination must be sent to the judge, to the chief justice of the Supreme
6.18 Court, to the state court administrator, and to the executive director of the Minnesota
6.19 State Retirement System.

6.20 (b) From and after this retirement date, the judge is entitled to continuation of the 6.21 judge's full salary payable by the judge's employer, as if the judge's office were not vacated
6.22 by retirement, for a period of up to one full year, but in no event beyond the judge's
6.23 mandatory retirement date. During this year, the judge is entitled to earn additional service
6.24 credit in the judges' retirement plan. The salary payable to a judge is subject to retirement
6.25 deductions and must be included in computing final average compensation of the judge.

6.26 (c) At the conclusion of the year of continued salary following retirement under this
6.27 subdivision or upon the judge's mandatory retirement date, whichever is earlier, the judge
6.28 is entitled to a retirement annuity computed as provided in subdivision 1.

6.29 EFFECTIVE DATE. This section is effective July 1, 2011.
