1.1 A bill for an act
 1.2 relating to public safety; modifying order for protection and harassment
 1.3 restraining order provisions; amending Minnesota Statutes 2014, section
 609.748; Minnesota Statutes 2015 Supplement, section 518B.01, subdivision 4.

1.5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

1.6 Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 2015 Supplement, section 518B.01, subdivision 4, is 1.7 amended to read:

1.8 Subd. 4. Order for protection. There shall exist an action known as a petition for 1.9 an order for protection in cases of domestic abuse.

1.10 (a) A petition for relief under this section may be made by any family or household
 1.11 member personally or by a family or household member, a guardian as defined in section
 1.12 524.1-201, clause (26), or, if the court finds that it is in the best interests of the minor, by a
 1.13 ~~reputable~~ an adult age 25 or older on behalf of minor family or household members. A
 1.14 minor age 16 or older may make a petition on the minor's own behalf against a spouse
 1.15 or former spouse, or a person with whom the minor has a child in common, if the court
 1.16 determines that the minor has sufficient maturity and judgment and that it is in the best
 1.17 interests of the minor.

1.18 (b) A petition for relief shall allege the existence of domestic abuse, and shall be
 1.19 accompanied by an affidavit made under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances
 1.20 from which relief is sought.

1.21 (c) A petition for relief must state whether the petitioner has ever had an order for 1.22 protection in effect against the respondent.

1.23 (d) A petition for relief must state whether there is an existing order for protection
 1.24 in effect under this chapter governing both the parties and whether there is a pending

2.1 lawsuit, complaint, petition or other action between the parties under chapter 257, 518,
 2.2 518A, 518B, or 518C. The court administrator shall verify the terms of any existing order
 2.3 governing the parties. The court may not delay granting relief because of the existence 2.4 of a pending action between the parties or the necessity of verifying the terms of an
 2.5 existing order. A subsequent order in a separate action under this chapter may modify
 2.6 only the provision of an existing order that grants relief authorized under subdivision 6,
 2.7 paragraph (a), clause (1). A petition for relief may be granted, regardless of whether there
 2.8 is a pending action between the parties.

2.9 (e) The court shall provide simplified forms and clerical assistance to help with the 2.10 writing and filing of a petition under this section.

2.11 (f) The court shall advise a petitioner under paragraph (e) of the right to file a motion
 2.12 and affidavit and to sue in forma pauperis pursuant to section 563.01 and shall assist with 2.13 the writing and filing of the motion and affidavit.

2.14 (g) The court shall advise a petitioner under paragraph (e) of the right to serve the 2.15 respondent by published notice under subdivision 5, paragraph (b), if the respondent is 2.16 avoiding personal service by concealment or otherwise, and shall assist with the writing
 2.17 and filing of the affidavit.

2.18 (h) The court shall advise the petitioner of the right to seek restitution under the 2.19 petition for relief.

2.20 (i) The court shall advise the petitioner of the right to request a hearing under 2.21 subdivision 7, paragraph (c). If the petitioner does not request a hearing, the court shall 2.22 advise the petitioner that the respondent may request a hearing and that notice of the hearing
 2.23 date and time will be provided to the petitioner by mail at least five days before the hearing.

2.24 (j) The court shall advise the petitioner of the right to request supervised parenting
 2.25 time, as provided in section 518.175, subdivision 1a.

2.26 Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 2014, section 609.748, is amended to read:

2.27 609.748 HARASSMENT; RESTRAINING ORDER.

2.28 Subdivision 1. Definition. For the purposes of this section, the following terms have 2.29 the meanings given them in this subdivision.

2.30 (a) "Harassment" includes:

2.31 (1) a single incident of physical or sexual assault or repeated incidents of intrusive or 2.32 unwanted acts, words, or gestures that have a substantial adverse effect or are intended to 2.33 have a substantial adverse effect on the safety, security, or privacy of another, regardless
 2.34 of the relationship between the actor and the intended target;

2.35 (2) targeted residential picketing; and

3.1 (3) a pattern of attending public events after being notified that the actor's presence
3.2 at the event is harassing to another.

3.3 (b) "Respondent" includes any adults or juveniles alleged to have engaged in 3.4 harassment or organizations alleged to have sponsored or promoted harassment.

3.5 (c) "Targeted residential picketing" includes the following acts when committed on 3.6 more than one occasion:

3.7 (1) marching, standing, or patrolling by one or more persons directed solely at a 3.8 particular residential building in a manner that adversely affects the safety, security, or 3.9 privacy of an occupant of the building; or

3.10 (2) marching, standing, or patrolling by one or more persons which prevents an 3.11 occupant of a residential building from gaining access to or exiting from the property on 3.12 which the residential building is located.

3.13 (d) "Guardian" has the meaning given in section 524.1-201, clause (26).

3.14 Subd. 2. Restraining order; court jurisdiction. (a) A person who is a victim of 3.15 harassment may ~~seek a restraining order from~~ petition the district court for a restraining 3.16 order in the manner provided in this section. In addition:

3.17 (1) the parent, guardian, or stepparent of a minor who is a victim of harassment may 3.18 seek a restraining order from the district court on behalf of the minor; or

3.19 (2) an adult age 25 or older may petition on behalf of the minor, if the court finds it
3.20 is in the best interests of the minor.

3.21 (b) An application for relief under this section may be filed in the county of residence
3.22 of either party or in the county in which the alleged harassment occurred. There are no
3.23 residency requirements that apply to a petition for a harassment restraining order.

3.24 Subd. 3. Contents of petition; hearing; notice. (a) A petition for relief must 3.25 allege facts sufficient to show the following:

3.26 (1) the name of the alleged harassment victim;

3.27 (2) the name of the respondent; and

3.28 (3) that the respondent has engaged in harassment.

3.29 A petition for relief must state whether the petitioner has had a previous restraining order
3.30 in effect against the respondent. The petition shall be accompanied by an affidavit made
3.31 under oath stating the specific facts and circumstances from which relief is sought. The 3.32 court shall provide simplified forms and clerical assistance to help with the writing and 3.33 filing of a petition under this section and shall advise the petitioner of the right to sue in 3.34 forma pauperis under section 563.01. The court shall advise the petitioner of the right to 3.35 request a hearing. If the petitioner does not request a hearing, the court shall advise the 3.36 petitioner that the respondent may request a hearing and that notice of the hearing date

4.1 and time will be provided to the petitioner by mail at least five days before the hearing.
4.2 Upon receipt of the petition and a request for a hearing by the petitioner, the court shall 4.3 order a hearing. Personal service must be made upon the respondent not less than five 4.4 days before the hearing. If personal service cannot be completed in time to give the 4.5 respondent the minimum notice required under this paragraph, the court may set a new 4.6 hearing date. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a hearing on a 4.7 matter that has no merit.

4.8 (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), the order for a hearing and a temporary order
4.9 issued under subdivision 4 may be served on the respondent by means of a one-week 4.10 published notice under section 645.11, if:

4.11 (1) the petitioner files an affidavit with the court stating that an attempt at personal 4.12 service made by a sheriff was unsuccessful because the respondent is avoiding service by 4.13 concealment or otherwise; and

4.14 (2) a copy of the petition and order for hearing and any temporary restraining order 4.15 has been mailed to the respondent at the respondent's residence or place of business, if 4.16 the respondent is an organization, or the respondent's last known residence or place of 4.17 business ~~is not known to the petitioner~~.

4.18 (c) Regardless of the method of service, if the respondent is a juvenile, whenever 4.19 possible, the court also shall have notice of the pendency of the case and of the time and 4.20 place of the hearing served by mail at the last known address upon any parent or guardian
4.21 of the juvenile respondent who is not the petitioner.

4.22 (d) A request for a hearing under this subdivision must be made within 20 days
4.23 of service of the petition.

4.24 Subd. 3a. Filing fee; cost of service. The filing fees for a restraining order under 4.25 this section are waived for the petitioner and the respondent if the petition alleges acts
4.26 that would constitute a violation of section 609.749, subdivision 2, 3, 4, or 5, or sections
4.27 609.342 to 609.3451. The court administrator and the sheriff of any county in this state
4.28 shall perform their duties relating to service of process without charge to the petitioner.
4.29 The court shall direct payment of the reasonable costs of service of process if served by a 4.30 private process server when the sheriff is unavailable or if service is made by publication.
4.31 ~~The court may direct a respondent to pay to the court administrator the petitioner's filing~~
4.32 ~~fees and reasonable costs of service of process if the court determines that the respondent~~
4.33 ~~has the ability to pay the petitioner's fees and costs.~~

4.34 Subd. 3b. Information on petitioner's location or residence. Upon petitioner's 4.35 request, information maintained by the court regarding the petitioner's location or

5.1 residence shall be sealed and may be disclosed only to court personnel or law enforcement 5.2 for purposes of service of process, conducting an investigation, or enforcing an order.

5.3 Subd. 4. Temporary restraining order; relief by court. (a) The court may issue a 5.4 temporary restraining order that provides any or all of the following:

5.5 (1) orders the respondent to cease or avoid the harassment of ~~another person~~ the
5.6 petitioner; or

5.7 (2) orders the respondent to have no contact with ~~another person~~ the petitioner,
5.8 whether in person, by telephone, social media, or electronic mail or message, through
5.9 electronic devices; through a third party; or by any other means.

5.10 (b) The court may issue an order under paragraph (a) if the petitioner files a petition
5.11 in compliance with subdivision 3 and if the court finds reasonable grounds to believe that 5.12 the respondent has engaged in harassment. When a petition alleges harassment as defined 5.13 by subdivision 1, paragraph (a), clause (1), the petition must further allege an immediate 5.14 and present danger of harassment before the court may issue a temporary restraining order
5.15 under this section. When signed by a referee, the temporary order becomes effective 5.16 upon the referee's signature.

5.17 (c) Notice need not be given to the respondent before the court issues a temporary 5.18 restraining order under this subdivision. A copy of the restraining order must be served on 5.19 the respondent along with the order for hearing and petition, as provided in subdivision 3.

5.20 (d) If the respondent is a juvenile, whenever possible, a copy of the restraining order,
5.21 along with notice of the pendency of the case and the time and place of the hearing, 5.22 shall also be served by mail at the last known address upon any parent or guardian of the 5.23 juvenile respondent who is not the petitioner. A temporary restraining order may be 5.24 entered only against the respondent named in the petition.

5.25 ~~(d)~~ (e) The temporary restraining order is in effect until a hearing is held on the 5.26 issuance of a restraining order under subdivision 5. The court shall hold the hearing on 5.27 the issuance of a restraining order if the petitioner requests a hearing. The hearing may 5.28 be continued by the court upon a showing that the respondent has not been served with a 5.29 copy of the temporary restraining order despite the exercise of due diligence or if service
5.30 is made by published notice under subdivision 3 and the petitioner files the affidavit
5.31 required under that subdivision.

5.32 ~~(e)~~ (f) If the temporary restraining order has been issued and the respondent requests
5.33 a hearing, the hearing shall be scheduled by the court upon receipt of the respondent's
5.34 request. Service of the notice of hearing must be made upon the petitioner not less than 5.35 five days prior to the hearing. The court shall serve the notice of the hearing upon the 5.36 petitioner by mail in the manner provided in the Rules of Civil Procedure for pleadings

6.1 subsequent to a complaint and motions and shall also mail notice of the date and time of 6.2 the hearing to the respondent. In the event that service cannot be completed in time to 6.3 give the respondent or petitioner the minimum notice required under this subdivision, the 6.4 court may set a new hearing date.

6.5 ~~(f)~~ (g) A request for a hearing under this subdivision must be made within ~~45~~ 20
6.6 days after the temporary restraining order is ~~issued~~ served.

6.7 (h) If neither party requests a hearing, then the temporary order becomes a valid
6.8 order for two years from the date of issue.

6.9 Subd. 5. Restraining order. (a) The court may issue a restraining order that 6.10 provides any or all of the following:

6.11 (1) orders the respondent to cease or avoid the harassment of ~~another person~~ the 6.12 petitioner; or

6.13 (2) orders the respondent to have no contact with ~~another person~~ the petitioner,
6.14 whether in person; by telephone, social media, or electronic mail or message; through
6.15 electronic devices; through a third party; or by any other means.

6.16 (b) The court may issue an order under paragraph (a) if all of the following occur:

6.17 (1) the petitioner has filed a petition under subdivision 3;

6.18 (2) the sheriff has served respondent with a copy of the temporary restraining order
6.19 obtained under subdivision 4, and with notice of the right to request a hearing, or service 6.20 has been made by publication under subdivision 3, paragraph (b); and

6.21 (3) the court finds at the hearing that there are reasonable grounds to believe that 6.22 the respondent has engaged in harassment.

6.23 (c) A restraining order may be issued only against the respondent named in the 6.24 petition; except that if the respondent is an organization, the order may be issued against 6.25 and apply to all of the members of the organization. ~~If the court finds that the petitioner has~~ 6.26 ~~had two or more previous restraining orders in effect against the same respondent or the~~ 6.27 ~~respondent has violated a prior or existing restraining order on two or more occasions, relief~~
6.28 ~~granted by the restraining order may be for a period of up to 50 years. In all other cases,~~

6.29 (d) Relief granted by the restraining order must be for a fixed period of not more 6.30 than two years except as provided in subdivision 5a.

6.31 (e) When a referee presides at the hearing on the petition, the restraining order
6.32 becomes effective upon the referee's signature.

6.33 ~~(e)~~ (f) An order issued under this subdivision must be personally served upon the 6.34 respondent.

6.35 ~~(d) If the court orders relief for a period of up to 50 years under paragraph (a),~~
6.36 ~~the respondent named in the restraining order may request to have the restraining order~~

7.1 ~~vacated or modified if the order has been in effect for at least five years and the respondent~~
7.2 ~~has not violated the order. Application for relief under this paragraph must be made in the~~
7.3 ~~county in which the restraining order was issued. Upon receipt of the request, the court~~
7.4 ~~shall set a hearing date. Personal service must be made upon the petitioner named in the~~
7.5 ~~restraining order not less than 30 days before the date of the hearing. At the hearing, the~~
7.6 ~~respondent named in the restraining order has the burden of proving by a preponderance~~
7.7 ~~of the evidence that there has been a material change in circumstances and that the reasons~~
7.8 ~~upon which the court relied in granting the restraining order no longer apply and are~~
7.9 ~~unlikely to occur. If the court finds that the respondent named in the restraining order has~~
7.10 ~~met the burden of proof, the court may vacate or modify the order. If the court finds that the~~
7.11 ~~respondent named in the restraining order has not met the burden of proof, the court shall~~
7.12 ~~deny the request and no request may be made to vacate or modify the restraining order~~
7.13 ~~until five years have elapsed from the date of denial. An order vacated or modified under~~
7.14 ~~this paragraph must be personally served on the petitioner named in the restraining order.~~

7.15 Subd. 5a. Orders for a period of up to 50 years. (a) Relief granted by the 7.16 harassment restraining order may be for a period of up to 50 years, if the court finds that:

7.17 (1) the respondent has violated a prior or existing harassment restraining order on 7.18 two or more occasions; or

7.19 (2) the petitioner has had two or more harassment restraining orders in effect against 7.20 the same respondent.

7.21 (b) If the court orders relief for a period of up to 50 years under this subdivision
7.22 the respondent named in the restraining order may request to have the restraining order
7.23 vacated or modified as provided in subdivision 5c.

7.24 Subd. 5b. Subsequent orders and extensions. (a) Upon application, notice to 7.25 parties, and hearing, the court may extend an existing harassment restraining order or,
7.26 if a petitioner's harassment restraining order is no longer in effect when a subsequent 7.27 application is made, grant a new order. A hearing is not required for an extension of an 7.28 existing order if a temporary restraining order is issued under subdivision 4, paragraph 7.29 (a), and the respondent does not request a hearing on the temporary restraining order as 7.30 allowed under subdivision 4, paragraph (f). The court may extend the terms of an existing 7.31 order, or, if an order is no longer in effect, grant a new order upon a showing that:

7.32 (1) the respondent has violated a prior or existing harassment restraining order;

7.33 (2) the petitioner is reasonably in fear of harassment from the respondent;

7.34 (3) the respondent has engaged in acts that would constitute a violation of section

7.35 609.749, subdivision 2, 3, 4, or 5 or sections 609.342 to 609.3451; or

8.1 (4) the respondent is incarcerated and about to be released, or has recently been 8.2 released, from incarceration.

8.3 (b) A petitioner does not need to show that harassment is imminent to obtain an 8.4 extension or a subsequent order under this subdivision.

8.5 (c) A request for a hearing under this subdivision must be made within 20 days after 8.6 the application for subsequent order or extension is served.

8.7 (d) An order issued under this paragraph may restrain the harassing party from 8.8 committing acts of harassment and prohibit the harassing party from having any contact
8.9 from the petitioner, whether in person; by telephone, mail, social media, or electronic mail
8.10 or message; through electronic devices; through a third party; or by any other means.

8.11 Subd. 5c. Modifying order. (a) Upon application, notice to all parties, and hearing,
8.12 the court may modify the terms of an existing harassment restraining order.

8.13 (b) If the court orders relief for a period of up to 50 years under subdivision 5a,
8.14 the respondent named in the restraining order may request to have the restraining order
8.15 vacated or modified if the order has been in effect for at least five years and the respondent
8.16 has not violated the order. Application for relief under this paragraph must be made in the
8.17 county in which the restraining order was issued. Upon receipt of the request, the court
8.18 shall set a hearing date. Personal service must be made upon the petitioner named in the
8.19 restraining order not less than 30 days before the date of the hearing. At the hearing, the
8.20 respondent named in the restraining order has the burden of proving by a preponderance
8.21 of the evidence that there has been a material change in circumstances and that the reasons
8.22 upon which the court relied in granting the restraining order no longer apply and are
8.23 unlikely to occur. If the court finds that the respondent named in the restraining order has
8.24 met the burden of proof, the court may vacate or modify the order. If the court finds that the
8.25 respondent named in the restraining order has not met the burden of proof, the court shall
8.26 deny the request and no request may be made to vacate or modify the restraining order
8.27 until five years have elapsed from the date of denial. An order vacated or modified under
8.28 this paragraph must be personally served on the petitioner named in the restraining order.

8.29 (c) A request for a hearing under this subdivision must be made within 20 days after 8.30 the application for modification or vacation is served.

8.31 Subd. 6. Violation of restraining order. (a) A person who violates a restraining 8.32 order issued under this section is subject to the penalties provided in paragraphs (b) to (d).

8.33 (b) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (c) and (d), when a temporary 8.34 restraining order or a restraining order is granted under this section and the respondent
8.35 knows of the order, violation of the order is a misdemeanor.

9.1 (c) A person is guilty of a gross misdemeanor who violates the order within ten 9.2 years of a previous qualified domestic violence-related offense conviction or adjudication 9.3 of delinquency.

9.4 (d) A person is guilty of a felony and may be sentenced to imprisonment for not 9.5 more than five years or to payment of a fine of not more than $10,000, or both, if the 9.6 person violates the order:

9.7 (1) within ten years of the first of two or more previous qualified domestic 9.8 violence-related offense convictions or adjudications of delinquency;

9.9 (2) because of the victim's or another's actual or perceived race, color, religion, sex,
9.10 sexual orientation, disability as defined in section 363A.03, age, or national origin;

9.11 (3) by falsely impersonating another;

9.12 (4) while possessing a dangerous weapon;

9.13 (5) with an intent to influence or otherwise tamper with a juror or a judicial 9.14 proceeding or with intent to retaliate against a judicial officer, as defined in section 9.15 609.415, or a prosecutor, defense attorney, or officer of the court, because of that person's 9.16 performance of official duties in connection with a judicial proceeding; or

9.17 (6) against a victim under the age of 18, if the respondent is more than 36 months 9.18 older than the victim.

9.19 (e) A person who commits violations in two or more counties may be prosecuted in 9.20 any county in which one of the acts was committed for all acts in violation of this section.

9.21 (f) A person may be prosecuted at the place where any call is made or received or, in 9.22 the case of wireless or electronic communication or any communication made through 9.23 any available technologies, where the actor or victim resides, or in the jurisdiction of 9.24 the victim's designated address if the victim participates in the address confidentiality
9.25 program established under chapter 5B.

9.26 (g) A peace officer shall arrest without a warrant as provided in section 629.34
9.27 and take into custody a person whom the peace officer has probable cause to believe 9.28 has violated an order issued under ~~subdivision 4 or 5~~ this section if the existence of the 9.29 order can be verified by the officer.

9.30 (h) A violation of a temporary restraining order or restraining order shall also 9.31 constitute contempt of court.

9.32 (i) Upon the filing of an affidavit by the petitioner, any peace officer, or an interested 9.33 party designated by the court, alleging that the respondent has violated an order issued 9.34 under subdivision 4 or 5, the court may issue an order to the respondent requiring the 9.35 respondent to appear within 14 days and show cause why the respondent should not be

10.1 held in contempt of court. The court also shall refer the violation of the order to the 10.2 appropriate prosecuting authority for possible prosecution under paragraph (b), (c), or (d).

10.3 Subd. 7. Copy to law enforcement agency. (a) An order granted under this section 10.4 shall be forwarded by the court administrator within 24 hours to the local law enforcement
10.5 agency with jurisdiction over the residence of the applicant petitioner. Each appropriate 10.6 law enforcement agency shall make available to other law enforcement officers through 10.7 a system for verification, information as to the existence and status of any order issued 10.8 under this section.

10.9 (b) If the petitioner notifies the court administrator of a change in the petitioner's 10.10 residence so that a different law enforcement agency has jurisdiction over the residence,
10.11 the harassment restraining order and any continuance of a harassment restraining order 10.12 must be forwarded by the court administrator to the new law enforcement agency within 10.13 24 hours of the notice. If the petitioner notifies the law enforcement agency that a 10.14 harassment restraining order has been issued under this section and the petitioner has 10.15 established a new residence within that agency's jurisdiction, within 24 hours the local 10.16 law enforcement agency shall request a copy of the harassment restraining order from the 10.17 court administrator in the county that issued the order.

10.18 (c) When a harassment restraining order is granted, the petitioner for a harassing 10.19 restraining order must be told by the court that:

10.20 (1) notification of a change in residence should be given immediately to the court 10.21 administrator and to the local law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the new 10.22 residence of the petitioner;

10.23 (2) the reason for notification of a change in residence is to forward a harassment 10.24 restraining order to the proper law enforcement agency; and

10.25 (3) the harassment restraining order must be forwarded to the law enforcement
10.26 agency having jurisdiction over the new residence within 24 hours of notification of a 10.27 change in residence, whether notification is given to the court administrator or to the local 10.28 law enforcement agency having jurisdiction over the petitioner's new residence.

10.29 (d) A harassment restraining order is enforceable even if the petitioner does not notify 10.30 the court administrator or the appropriate law enforcement agency of a change in residence.

10.31 Subd. 8. Notice. (a) An order granted under this section must contain a conspicuous
10.32 notice to the respondent:

10.33 (1) of the specific conduct that will constitute a violation of the order;

10.34 (2) that violation of an order is either (i) a misdemeanor punishable by imprisonment
10.35 for up to 90 days or a fine of up to $1,000, or both, (ii) a gross misdemeanor punishable

11.1 by imprisonment for up to one year or a fine of up to $3,000, or both, or (iii) a felony 11.2 punishable by imprisonment for up to five years or a fine of up to $10,000, or both; and

11.3 (3) that a peace officer must arrest without warrant and take into custody a person if 11.4 the peace officer has probable cause to believe the person has violated a restraining order.

11.5 (b) If the court grants relief for a period of up to 50 years under subdivision 5 5a,
11.6 the order must also contain a conspicuous notice to the respondent that the respondent
11.7 must wait five years to seek a modification of the order.

11.8 Subd. 8a. Assistance of sheriff in service or execution. When an order is issued
