

Wabasha, and the State of Minnesota, as interest on the "Plainview railroad bonds," (so called) which by process of law may come into the hands of the town treasurers of said towns of Plainview and Elgin, are hereby declared to belong to the general funds of said towns, and the said funds may be disposed of as a majority of the voters of the said towns of Plainview and Elgin may direct at any general or special election held in said towns, to be drawn from the treasury and disbursed in the same manner, as provided for in the general statutes of Minnesota, in relation to other town funds.

SEC. 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 23, 1881.

CHAPTER 193.

AN ACT to authorize the clerk of the district court of Goodhue county, in the first judicial district, to record certain papers now in his office.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. The clerk of the district court in and for said county of Goodhue, first judicial district, is hereby authorized and required to procure such books and indexes at the expense of the county of Goodhue, as may be necessary, and record therein all declarations of intentions of persons to become citizens of the United States which have heretofore been made in said county, and not recorded and which are now on file in the office of said clerk, and to prepare and make an alphabetical index of the same.

SEC. 2. The said declarations of intentions, so recorded, shall be of the same validity and entitled to the same force and effect as the originals themselves.

SEC. 3. The clerk of the district court of said county shall be allowed as fees and payment for such services in the matter, [ten (10) cents] ten per cents for such recording and indexing each declaration.

SEC. 4. All services authorized to be paid by this act shall be paid out of the county treasury of Goodhue county.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved January 29, 1881.
