CHAPTER 381.

AN ACT relating to the selling and disposing of intoxicating liquors in the city of Northfield, in the county of Rice.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That chapter fifty-five (55) of Special Laws of Minnesota, for the year eighteen hundred and seventy-eight (1878), being an act entitled an act to amend an act to authorize the incorporation of the city of Northfield so as to prohibit the sale or disposal of intoxicating liquors as a beverage be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 2. The common council of the said city is hereby invested with full power to restrain, control and regulate the selling or disposing of spirituous, vinous, malt, fermented or any intoxicating liquors within the said city, and may enforce this section by appropriate ordinances.

SEC. 3. This act shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of said village at their first annual meeting after its passage. The city recorder of said city shall give at least ten days' notice before said meeting that this act will be submitted to the voters. The ballots used at said meeting in voting upon this act shall have written or printed upon them the words "for prohibition." or the words "for restraining and regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors." The ballots upon said question shall be deposited in a box by themselves and shall be taken, canvassed and returned in the same manner and by the same persons as the votes for the election of officers of said city, and if such returns shall show that a majority of the ballots cast upon said question have upon them the words "for restraining and regulating the sale of intoxicating liquors." then this act shall thereafter immediately take effect and be in force.

Approved February 9, 1881.
