

CHAPTER 4.

SECTION 1. The village council shall have power to appoint, and at their pleasure remove the following officers, to-wit: One (1) chief engineer of the fire department, two (2) fire wardens, one (1) pound master and one (1) jailor, and they may prescribe their duties and fix their compensation under the provisions of this act, and impose and enforce in law such penalties as to said village council may seem proper, for any malfeasance or improper conduct of any of said officers, and may require a bond satisfactory to themselves for the faithful performance of the duties of any of them or any such of them as may be deemed expedient and necessary by said village council.

SEC. 2. The village council shall have power to establish a prison for the use of the village of Jordan, which shall be used as a place of imprisonment, and in all cases in which imprisonment is authorized it shall be optional with the justice before whom any person is convicted to commit him to said village prison or to the county jail used by the county of Scott; in either such case the commitment shall be in the same form as nearly as may be, as is pursued under the general law in cases of convictions before justices of the peace, and the prisoner shall be received and placed in the village prison or county jail, the same as though the conviction had taken place under the general law of the State. The jailor shall receive and detain the prisoner in like manner as though he had been convicted by a justice of the peace in and for Scott county under the general law of the State.

SEC. 3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SEC. 4. This act is hereby declared to be a public act and need not be pleaded or proven in any court in this State.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 7, 1881.

CHAPTER 66.

AN ACT TO REDUCE THE LAW INCORPORATING THE VILLAGE OF KASSON, IN THE COUNTY OF DODGE, AND STATE OF MINNESOTA, AND THE SEVERAL ACTS AMENDATORY THEREOF, INTO ONE ACT, AND TO AMEND THE SAME AND TO ATTACH CERTAIN TERRITORY FOR SCHOOL PURPOSES, AND FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT AND REGULATION OF THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS THEREIN.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That chapter eight (8) of the special laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight (1878) and chapter forty-six (46) of the special laws of eighteen hundred and seventy-nine (1879) being "an act to reduce the the law incorporating the village of Kasson." and an act amendatory thereof, be and the same are hereby amended, consolidated and incorporated into one act as follows:

CHAPTER 1.

SECTION 1. All that territory embraced in the following boundaries, to-wit: The east half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of section number thirty-two (32) and all of section number thirty-three (33) in township number one hundred and seven (107) north, of range sixteen (16) west, shall be known as the village of Kasson, and shall have the powers generally possessed by municipal corporations at common law, and in addition thereto shall possess the powers hereinafter specially granted, and be capable of contracting and being contracted with, sueing and being sued, pleading and being impleaded in all courts of law and equity, and may have a common seal, and may change and alter the same at pleasure, and also take, hold, purchase, lease and convey such real and personal estate, within or without the limits thereof, as the purposes of the village may require.

SEC. 2. The elective officers of said corporation shall be one (1) president, one (1) recorder, three (3) trustees, one (1) treasurer, one
(1) justice of the peace, and one (1) constable, and shall each, except the justice of the peace, hold their respective offices for the term of one (1) year, and until their successors are elected and qualified. The justice of the peace shall hold his office for the term of two (2) years, and until his successor is elected and qualified. In addition to the above mentioned officers, the common council shall have power to appoint and define the duties of such other officers as to said common council may seem necessary.

Provided, that when a member of the common council holds any appointed office, he shall not vote upon any question involving his action as such appointed officer.

SEC. 3. Each officer, before entering upon the duties of his office, and within ten (10) days after receiving notice of his elections shall give notice, in writing, of his acceptance of the same, to the recorder of said village, and shall take and subscribe, before some officer by law authorized to administer oaths, an oath of office to support the constitution of the United States and the constitution of the State of Minnesota, and that he will faithfully perform the duties of his office in accordance with the law and the ordinances of said village. And in addition thereto, the treasurer, recorder, justice of the peace and constable shall each give a bond in a sum not less than two hundred dollars ($200) to be determined by the common council, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, which bond shall be filed with the recorder of said village.

SEC. 4. That the president, recorder, and trustese shall constitute the common council, to which body shall belong all the legislative powers granted by this act to said corporation. All actions of the council intended to have the force of rules of law, or authority for contract, shall be by ordinance, under the style of "be it ordained by the common council of the village of Kasson."

The common council shall meet for the transaction of business, at least once in three (3) months, and a majority thereof shall be a quorum for the transaction of any business. The president, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the common council, but in case of his absence, the members present shall choose one (1) of their number to preside during his absence, but no ordinance shall be passed except by the vote of a majority of all the members of the common council. A record, in book form, shall be kept by the recorder, in which he shall record all the proceedings of the common council, and ayes and noes on every ordinance voted upon, shall be entered therein.

SEC. 5. That to the president shall belong the executive powers granted by this act to said corporation, except such of said powers as are specially vested in, or must, from their nature, necessarily pertain to the other executive officers of said corporation, and whether said officers are created by this act, or by the common council. He shall have power, and shall be his duty to call out and use in such manner as may seem most proper, all the constabulary or police force of said corporation when he may deem it necessary to quiet or prevent riot. He shall have power to call a meeting of the council by giving such notice thereof as may have been provided by ordinance, or in default of such provision, in such as he may deem meet and proper.

SEC. 6. That the recorder shall be the recording officer of the village and the common council. He shall have the custody of the seal of said corporation and all the records thereof, not necessarily and specifically appertaining to the other officers thereof. He shall receive all moneys payable to said corporation, except as hereinafter provided, and shall immediately pay the same over to the treasurer, charging him therewith, and taking his receipt therefor. He shall keep all the accounts of the corporation, receive all the claims against the same, and draw orders upon the treasurer for moneys payable by said corporation, but no such order shall ever be drawn by said recorder unless the same shall be in full or part payment of a claim against said corporation, previously audited and allowed by the common council. He shall also make to the common council at the close of each official year, a condensed report of all his doings as such officer during such year, which report shall be published in such a manner and to such extent as may be provided by ordinance, and he shall, with all reasonable dispatch, make such other reports and at such times as the common council shall require.

SEC. 7. That the treasurer shall be the depository of all moneys belonging to said corporation. He shall, from such moneys, pay upon presentation, all orders therefor, drawn by the recorder and countersigned by the president.

SEC. 8. The justice of the peace provided for and elected under the provisions of this act, shall have and possess all the power and jurisdiction of justices of the peace provided and elected under the general laws of the State, and, in addition thereto, shall have cognizance and exclusive jurisdiction of all suits, prosecutions or proceedings for the recovery of any fine, forfeiture or penalty, under any by-law, ordinance or regulation of said corporation, or under this act, or for the breach or violation of any such by-law, ordinance or regulation, and in all cases of assaults, batteries and affrays, not indictable, and for a breach or violation of any by-law, ordinance or regulation, shall be commenced in the name of the village of Kasson, and the same proceeding shall be had in all civil or criminal suits or prosecutions before said justices, when not otherwise herein directed, as are established and required to be had in civil and criminal actions by the general laws of the State, before justices of the peace, except that no change of venue shall be taken. All fines, forfeitures and penalties, imposed by or recovered before said justice of the peace, in any suit, prosecution or proceeding, had or commenced in the name of said village, shall be promptly paid by said justice to the recorder of said corporation, for the use thereof. The justice of the peace shall take judicial notice of the by-laws, ordinances and regulations of said corporation, and it shall not be necessary in any action, civil or criminal before said justice, to plead or refer to the same in any manner whatever in any pleading or complaint, but said by-laws, ordinances and regulations shall in said justice court be held and deemed to be public law. The justice of the peace shall, at least once in three (3) months, make to the common council a full report of all moneys received by him for fines, forfeitures and penalties, and shall pay them into the hands of the recorder, taking his receipt therefor. Any justice of the peace elected or appointed in the village of Kasson, under the general laws of the State, and residing within the limits of the corporation, upon filing the bond and oath of office hereinbefore prescribed for the justice of the peace, shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the justice of the peace elected under the provisions of this act, and be subject to the same liabilities and restrictions. In case of any prosecutions for a breach or violation of an ordinance, by-law or regulation of said corporation, or this act, or for an assault, battery or affray not indictable, committed within the limits of said corporation, no appeal shall be allowed when the judgment or fine imposed exclusive of costs is less than ten ($10) dollars. The fees of the justice of the peace shall be the same as allowed and fixed by the general laws of the State for justices of the peace. All warrants, writs and processes of every nature issued by such justice shall be directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county of Dodge, and may be executed or served by the constable elected under the provisions of this act or by the sheriff or any constable of said county, and for such purpose.

said sheriff and constables shall have and possess the power and authority which by the general laws of the State, they have and possess in the execution or service of warrants, writs and other processes issued by justices of the peace elected under such general laws.

SEC. 9. The constable elected under the provisions of this act, shall be the ministerial officer of the council, and shall have and possess all the powers belonging to the constables elected under the general laws of the State, and his compensation, except for services arising particularly under this act, for which fees may be fixed by the common council, shall be the same as received by constables under the general laws of the State. He shall be chief of the police force of said village, but as such shall be subordinate to the president.

SEC. 10. There shall be an annual election for the elective officers herein provided for, on the first Monday in April in each and every year, and the polls shall be kept open from ten (10) o'clock in the forenoon, until four (4) in the afternoon; and ten (10) days previous notice shall be given by the common council, of the time and place of holding such election and the officers to be elected, by posting notices thereof in three (3) of the most public places in the village. At the said election, the trustees, or any two (2) of them, shall act as judges of election, and the recorder as clerk of election, and in case of inability or non-attendance of any of said officers, the vacancies shall be filled by an appointment made by those officers present. At the close of the polls the votes shall be counted and a true statement thereof proclaimed to the voters present, by one of the judges, and the recorder shall make and file in his office a true record thereof, and within five (5) days thereafter he shall give notice in writing to the persons so elected of their election.

SEC. 11. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in any elective office, such vacancy shall be filled by the common council. Any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall hold his office and discharge the duties thereof for the unexpired term.

SEC. 12. The village of Kasson shall constitute one road district, and the highway labor and taxes for highway purposes shall belong to the general fund of said village, and the common council of said village shall appoint an overseer of said road district who shall be styled "street commissioner," and who shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, give bond to said village of Kasson, with two (2) or more sureties, conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, to be approved by the common council, the amount and conditions of such bond to be first determined, fixed and specified by said common council, by resolution; and they shall issue a warrant to him containing the whole amount of highway labor and taxes assessed and levied in his district, which said warrant shall be returned to the village recorder. The laws of the State shall apply to warning, working, suing for and collecting highway taxes, and to returning delinquent taxes, and in all other respects except as herein expressly provided.

The common council shall have full power to direct the street commissioner when, where and how to expend such labor and tax, and to remove him at any time if they deem it for the interest of the district to do so, and may direct him to expend part of the labor and taxes in the manner to be directed by them at any point beyond the limits of the village, and the common council shall perform the duties imposed by law on the supervisors of towns in levying highway taxes, and shall be governed and restricted in the amount so levied by the same laws that are applicable to supervisors of towns in levying labor and taxes. Every male inhabitant being above twenty-one (21) years and under the age of fifty (50), except such as are exempt by law, shall be assessed not less than one (1) day nor more than four (4) days in each year.

CHAPTER 2.

SECTION 1. The common council shall have the management and control of the finances of the corporation, and shall also, in addition to the power herein vested in them, have full power and authority to make, enact, ordain, establish, publish, enforce, alter, modify, amend and repeal all such ordinances, rules, by-laws and regulations for the government and good order of the village, for the suppression of vice and intemperance, and for the prevention of crime, as they shall deem expedient. The common council shall have full power and authority to declare and impose fines, penalties and punishments, and to enforce the same against any person or persons who may violate any of the provisions of any ordinance, rule, by-law or regulation passed and ordained by them, and all such ordinances, rules and by-laws and regulations are hereby declared to be and have the force of law; Provided, that they be not repugnant to the constitution of the United States, or of this State, and for the purposes aforesaid, the said common council shall have authority by ordinances, rules, by-laws or regulations:

First. To license and regulate the exhibition of common showmen and shows of all kinds, or the exhibition of caravans, circuses, concerts or theatrical performances, billiard tables, nine or ten pin alleys, bowling saloons, to grant licenses and regulate auctions and auctioneers, groceries, taverns, victualing houses, and all persons vending or dealing in spirituous, vinous or fermented liquors, and all places of amusement whatever.

Second. To restrain, regulate and prohibit all descriptions of gambling and fraudulent devices and practices, and all playing of cards, dice, or other games of chance, and for the purpose of gaming in said village, and to regulate and restrain any persons from vending, giving or dealing in spirituous, fermented or vinous liquors, unless duly licensed by the common council.

Third. To prevent any riots, noise, disturbance, drunkenness or disorderly assemblage in said village.

Fourth. To compel the owner or occupant of any grocery, cellar, tallow chandler's shop, soap factory, tannery, stable, barn, privy, sewer, or other unwholesome, nauseous house or place, to cleanse, remove or abate the same, from time to time, as often as may be deemed necessary for the health, comfort or convenience of the inhabitants of said village.

Fifth. To direct the location and management of slaughter-houses and markets, breweries, distilleries and pawn-brokers.

Sixth. To prevent the incumbering of streets, sidewalks, lanes, alleys or public grounds with carriages, carts, wagons, sleighs, boxes, lumber, firewood, posts, awnings, or any other materials or substances whatever.

Seventh. To prevent and punish horse-racing, immoderate driving or riding in the streets, to compel persons to fasten their horses or other animals attached to vehicles or otherwise while standing in the streets, to regulate the speed of locomotive engines within the village, to prevent the encumbering of streets by trains of cars, and to regulate place of bathing and swimming in the waters within the limits of said village.

Eighth. To restrain the running at large and prevent picketing in the streets, with long rope, cord or chains, of cattle, horses, swine, sheep and fowls, and to authorize the distraining and sale of the same, and to impose penalties on the owners of such animals for violation of the ordinances.

Ninth. To prevent the running at large of dogs, and to impose a tax on the same, and to authorize the destruction of the same in a summary manner when at large contrary to the ordinance.

Tenth. To prevent any person from bringing, depositing or having within said village any putrid carcass, or other unwholesome substance, and to require the removal of the same by any person who shall have upon his premises any substance or putrid or unwholesome or unsound beef, pork, fish, hides or skins of any kind, and on default, to authorize the removal thereof by some competent officer, at the expense of such person or persons.

Eleventh. To make and establish public pounds, pumps, wells, cisterns, hydrants and reservoirs, and to establish, construct and maintain sewers.

Twelfth. To establish and regulate boards of health, and provide hospitals and hospital grounds.

Thirteenth. To prevent all persons from riding or driving any ox, mule, horse, cattle or other animals on the sidewalks in said village, or in any way doing any damage to such sidewalks, obstructing or encumbering the same.

Fourteenth. To prevent the shooting of firearms or crackers, and to prevent the exhibition of any fireworks in any situation or place which may be considered, by the common council, dangerous to the village or any property therein, or annoying any citizen thereof.

Fifteenth. To prevent and punish drunkenness or obscenity in the streets or public places of said village.

Sixteenth. To license and regulate butchers' stalls, shops and stands, for the sale of game, poultry, butchers' meats, butter, fish, and other provisions.

Seventeenth. To regulate the place and manner of weighing hay and selling the same, and the measuring and selling of fire-wood, coal, lime and straw, and to appoint suitable persons to superintend and conduct the same.

Eighteenth. To compel the owner or occupant of buildings or grounds to remove snow, dirt or rubbish from the sidewalk, street or alley opposite thereto, and to compel such owner or occupant to remove from the lot owned or occupied by him, all such substances as the board of health may direct, and on his default to authorize the removal or destruction thereof by some officer of the village, at the expense of such owner or occupant.

Nineteenth. To provide for watchmen and to prescribe their number and duties, and regulate the same, and to create and establish the police of said village, and to prescribe the number of police officers and their duties, and to regulate the same.

Twentieth. To provide, by ordinance, for a standard of weights and measures, for appointment of a village sealer, and to require all weights and measures to be sealed by the village sealer, and to provide for the punishment of the use of false weights and measures.

Twenty-first. To direct and regulate the planting and preservation of ornamental trees in the streets and public grounds.

Twenty-second. To remove and abate any nuisance injurious to the public health, and provide for the punishment of all persons who shall cause or maintain such nuisance.

Twenty-third. To remove and abate any nuisances, obstruction and encroachment upon the streets, alleys, public grounds, and highways of the village.

Twenty-fourth. To establish public markets and fairs and public buildings for the same, and to make rules and regulations for the management of the same; to appoint suitable officers for overseeing and regulating such markets and fairs, and to restrain all persons from interfering with the due observance of such rules and regulations.

Twenty-fifth. To do all acts and make all regulations which may be necessary or expedient for the preservation of health and the suppression of diseases, and make regulations to prevent the introduction of contagious or infectious diseases into the village; and to make quarantine laws and to enforce the same within the village.

Twenty-sixth. To restrain and punish mendicants, street beggars and prostitutes, and to punish all inmates and visitors of houses of ill-fame.

Twenty-seventh. To organize fire companies, hook and ladder companies; to regulate their government and the time and manner of their exercises; to provide all necessary apparatus for the extinguishment of fires; to require owners of buildings to provide and keep suitable ladders and fire-buckets, which are hereby declared to be appurtenances to the real estate and exempt from seizure, distress or sale in any manner, and if the owner shall neglect or refuse to procure suitable ladders or fire-buckets after reasonable notice the common council may procure and deliver the same to him and in default of payment therefor, may recover of such owner the value of such ladders or firebuckets, or both, with cost of suit, to regulate and direct the safe construction of places for the deposit of ashes ; to direct the fire wardens to enter into at reasonable times, and examine all dwelling houses, lots, yards, enclosures and buildings of every description in order to discover whether any of them are in a dangerous condition, and to cause such as they may deem dangerous to be put in a safe condition ; to regulate the manner of putting up stove pipes ; to prevent fires and the use of fire-works and fire-arms within the limits of said village, or such part thereof as they may think proper ; to compel the inhabitants of said village to aid in the extinguishment of fires, and to pull, break down and raze such buildings in the vicinity of fires as shall be directed by the common council or any three of them who may be at the fire, for the purpose of preventing its communication to other buildings, and any building so destroyed shall be paid for by the corporation; to construct and generally to establish other measures of prudence for the prevention or extinguishment of fires as they may deem proper.

Twenty-eighth. Fines, penalties and punishments imposed by the common council for the breach of any ordinance, by-law or regulation of said village, may extend to a fine not exceeding one hundred ($100) dollars or imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days or both, and to be fed on bread and water at the discretion of the justice; and offenders against the same may be required to give security for their good behavior, and to keep the peace for a period not exceeding six (6) months, in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500).

SEC. 2. All ordinances, regulations, resolutions and by-laws shall be passed by an affirmative vote of a majority of the common council by ayes and noes, and published at least once in the official paper before the same shall be in force, and shall be admitted as evidence in any court in the State without further proof ; they shall be recorded by the recorder in books to be provided for that purpose.

SEC 3. The power conferred upon the village council to provide for the abatement or removal of nuisances shall not bar or hinder suits, prosecutions or proceedings in the courts according to law. Gambling houses, houses of ill-fame, disorderly taverns and houses or places where spirituous, vinous or fermented liquors are sold without the license required therefor, within the limits of said village, are hereby declared and shall be deemed public or common nuisances.

SEC. 4. The common council shall examine, audit and adjust the accounts of the recorder, treasurer, justice, street commissioner and all other officers and agents of the town, at such times as they may deem proper, and also at the end of each year, and before the term for which the officers of said village were elected or appointed shall have expired. And the common council shall require each and every such officer and agent to exhibit his books, accounts and vouchers for such examination and settlement; and if any such officer or agent shall refuse to comply with the orders of said council in discharge of their said duties, in pursuance of this section, or shall neglect or refuse to render his accounts or present his books and vouchers to said council, or a committee thereof, it shall be the duty of the common council to declare the office of such person vacant. And the common council shall order suits and proceedings at law against any officer or agent of said village who may be found delinquent or defaulting in his accounts, or in the discharge of his official duties; and shall make a full record of all such settlements and adjustments.

CHAPTER 3.

SECTION 1. All actions brought to recover any penalty or forfeiture under this act or the ordinances, police or health regulations made in pursuance thereof, shall be brought in the corporate name of the village.

SEC. 2. In all prosecutions for any violation of this act, or any ordinance of the village, the first process shall be by warrant.

Provided, that no warrant shall be necessary in any case of the arrest or apprehension of any person or persons while in the act of violating any law of the State of Minnesota, or ordinance of the village, but the person or persons so arrested may be proceeded against, tried, convicted and punished or discharged in the same manner as if the arrest had been by warrant.

SEC. 3. The constable and other police officers are hereby vested with all powers of a sheriff or constable, in the service of writs as granted to them by the law of the State, and may pursue into any county in this State and take and bring back for trial, any offender against this act or the ordinances of said village.

SEC. 4. All ordinances and resolutions heretofore made and established by the village council of the village of Kasson, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall be and remain in force until altered, modified or repealed by the common council, after this act shall take effect.

SEC. 5. When any suit or action shall be commenced against said village, the service therein shall be made by copy left with the recorder of said village.

SEC. 6. No law of this State contravening the provisions of this act shall be considered as repealing, amending or modifying the same, unless such purpose be expressly set forth in such law.

SEC. 7. The sale of intoxicating, vinous, spirituous, malt or fermented liquors, within the limits of said village, is hereby declared to be under the exclusive control of the common council of said village, except as provided in chapter five (5) of this act, and all fines imposed for violation of any law or ordinance regulating such traffic, shall be paid into the treasury of the village for the use thereof, in whatever court collected.

SEC. 8. The common council shall have the power and authority to open, lay out or vacate streets and alleys within the limits of said village, which is conferred by the general laws of the State upon the board of supervisors of township, to open, alter, discontinue or lay out roads, and in the matter of opening, laying out or vacating streets or alleys, and the assessment of damages; the common council shall be governed by and act under the general laws of the State, providing for altering, discontinuing and laying out roads; and appeals may be taken in the same manner to the county commissioners, as appeals are, under the general laws, taken from the decisions of township supervisors.

SEC. 9. The cost and expenses of building, grading, paving, or repairing sidewalks, shall be at the option of the common council, chargeable to the lots fronting on said improvement; whenever the common council shall deem it necessary to construct or repair any sidewalk in the village of Kasson, they may require the street commissioner to notify all owners or occupants of any lot or lots or parcels of land adjoining such sidewalk, to construct or repair the same at his or their own proper expense and charge, within a certain time designated, by delivering to the owners or occupants of said lot or lots or parcels of land; or by the publication in the official paper for not less than two (2) weeks, of a notice to said occupants or owners, setting forth what work is to be done and the character of the same, by the owners or occupants and the time within which they are required to do the same.

SEC. 10. If such work is not done, and the sidewalk not built or repaired in the manner and within the time prescribed, the common council may order the same to be done by the street commissioner, at the expense of the lots and parcels of land adjoining said sidewalks, and said expense shall be assessed upon such lots and parcels of land so chargeable, by the street commissioner, and returned by him to the common council; and said assessment, so made and returned, if approved by the common council, shall become a lien upon said lots and parcels of land, as in case of town, county and State taxes.

SEC. 11. If said assessments be not paid to the street commissioner, or the village of Kasson, on or before the twentieth (20th) day of August in any year, the common council shall cause a statement of the same, with twenty-five (25) per cent. additional thereto, to be transmitted with the village taxes levied for that year to the auditor of the county.

SEC. 12. The common council may prescribe the width of sidewalks, and may establish different widths in different locations, and may determine the kind of material of which they shall be constructed, having regard to the business and amount of travel in the vicinity of each.

SEC. 13. All property real and personal in the village, except such as may be exempt by the laws of this State, or is village property, shall be subject to taxation not exceeding two and one-half (2½) mills on the dollar per year for general purposes. Such property shall also be liable for such special taxes as the common council are herein authorized to levy.

SEC. 14. The common council shall have full power to order and direct the levy and collection within the limitation prescribed by law, of taxes sufficient to give full effect of the powers herein conferred.

SEC. 15. The common council shall have power to provide by ordinance, for the manner of assessing and enforcing the collection of all taxes levied under the provisions of this act, but until express provision is made in regard to that subject, all taxes shall be collected as follows: The recorder shall deliver to the county auditor of Dodge county a certificate signed by him, setting forth the amount levied upon every dollar in value of the taxable property within the limits of the village of Kasson, as incorporated by this act, and it thereupon shall become the duty of the said auditor to add the amount thus levied to the assessment rolls of the year in which such levy was made, and it shall become the duty of the county treasurer of said county to collect the amount thus added to the assessment roll, and to enforce the collection of the same in like manner as any other tax of the said county of Dodge, placed in his hands for collection, and to pay the amount so collected to the treasurer of the village of Kasson, incorporated by this act.

SEC. 16. In any action brought to recover any penalty or damages under this act, or under any ordinance made by the common council, it shall be sufficient to complain that the defendant is indebted to the village to the amount of said penalty or damages, and to refer to the act or ordinance under which the same is claimed, and to give the special matter in evidence under it. All civil cases shall be under the control and direction of the common council; they shall have power to settle, compromise or prosecute all such actions on the part of the village when such village shall be a party or be interested in such actions, and no person shall be an incompetent juror by reason of being an inhabitant of said village or in an action to which the village shall be a party.

SEC. 17. In all respects not herein provided for, said village shall be and continue a part of the township of Mantorville.

CHAPTER 4.

SECTION 1. The common council shall have power to appoint and at their pleasure remove the following officers, to-wit: One (1) chief engineer of the fire department, two (2) fire wardens, one (1) pound master, one (1) jailor, one (1) street commissioner, one (1) village attorney and one (1) surveyor, and they may prescribe their duties and fix their compensation under the provisions of this act, and impose and enforce in law such penalties as the said common council may seem proper for any malfeasance or improper conduct of any of said officers, and may require bonds satisfactory to themselves, for the faithful performance of the duties of any of them, or any such of them as may be deemed expedient and necessary by said common council.

SEC. 2. The common council shall have power to establish a fire limit within the village of Kasson, and within the fire limit so established shall have power to regulate the erection of buildings and provide for the kind of material to be used, and to prohibit the use of such material in the erection of buildings within said limits as shall be deemed by them proper to prevent fires. The common council shall have power within said limit to remove buildings erected in violation of any ordinance or by-law passed in pursuance of this act, and to punish the violation of the same by fine or imprisonment.

SEC. 3. The common council shall have power to establish a prison for the use of the village of Kasson, which shall be used as a place of imprisonment, and in all cases in which imprisonment is authorized, as it shall be optional with the justice before whom any person is convicted, to commit him to the county jail used by the county of Dodge; in such case the commitment shall be in the same form as nearly as may be, as is pursued under the general law in cases of conviction before justices of the peace; and the prisoner shall be received and placed in the jail the same as though the conviction had taken place under the general law of the State. The jailor shall receive and detain the prisoner in like manner as though he had been convicted by a justice of the peace in and for Dodge county under the general laws of the State.

CHAPTER 5.

SECTION 1. The legal voters of the village of Kasson are hereby authorized to vote upon and determine for themselves the question whether license for the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be granted in said village or not.

SEC. 2. The Recorder of the village of Kasson is hereby required, upon receiving the petition for that purpose, of ten (10) or more legal voters of said village, at any time not less than twenty (20) days before any annual charter election of said village, to give notice that the question of granting license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in said village will be submitted to the legal voters of said village, which question shall be determined by ballots containing the words "In favor of license," or "Against license," as the case may be; the votes upon said question shall be deposited in a box by themselves, and shall be taken, canvassed and returned in the same manner as is prescribed by law for canvassing and returning the votes for the elective officers of said village; and if such returns show that a majority of the votes cast at said election on said question shall be against license, no license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in said village shall be granted by the common council of said village, or board of county commissioners of Dodge county.

SEC. 3. In case the legal voters of said village shall determine, as hereinbefore provided, that no license for the sale of intoxicating liquors in said village shall be granted, any person thereafter and until said vote is recinded or reversed, who shall sell, barter or dispose of any spirituous, malt, vinous, fermented or intoxicating liquors, within the corporate limits of said village, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00), nor more than one hundred dollars ($100.00), with costs of prosecution for each offense, and be imprisoned in village or county jail, in the discretion of the justice, until said fine and costs are paid, not exceeding ninety (90) days.

SEC. 4. The common council shall have power to fix the amount to be paid for license for sale of spirituous liquors, at not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor more than five hundred dollars ($500.00), and for malt liquors for not less than fifty dollars ($50.00), and not more than two hundred dollars ($200.00), and for drug store license not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

Provided, that when any person shall have a license to sell intoxicating liquors it shall embrace the right to sell malt liquors.

SEC. 5. The common council shall have power to issue a permit to two (2) regular dealers in drugs and medicines, to sell spirituous and fermented liquors for medicinal and mechanical purposes whether license is voted in said village or not.

CHAPTER 6.

SECTION 1. The village of Kasson and the territory hereby attached thereto for school purposes, to-wit: The east half (E. $\frac{1}{2}$) of the north-east quarter (N. E. $\frac{1}{4}$), and all of the south half (S. $\frac{1}{2}$) of section number twenty-two (22), and all of section number twenty-seven (27), south half (S. $\frac{1}{2}$) of section number twenty-eight (28), south-east quarter (S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section number twenty-nine (29), east half (E. $\frac{1}{2}$) of south-east quarter (S. E. $\frac{1}{4}$) of north-west quarter (N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$), and the south-west quarter (S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section number thirty-two (32), all of section thirty-four (34), and north-west quarter (N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$) of south-west quarter (S. W. $\frac{1}{4}$) of section number thirty-five (35) in township one hundred and seven (107), north or range sixteen (16) west in the county of Dodge, State of Minnesota, shall constitute in law one (1) school district; and all schools organized therein in pursuance of this act, shall, under the direction and regulation of the board of education as hereinafter established, be public and free to children residing within the limits thereof between the ages of five (5) and twenty-one (21) years inclusive, subject to such rules and limitations as the said board may establish.

SEC. 2. The board of education of the village of Kasson shall consist of six (6) school directors, to be elected as hereinafter provided. The board of education of Independent school district No. 30, of the county of Dodge, shall, on or before fifteen (15) days after the passage of this act, meet and organize under the provision of this act. Said board shall thereupon constitute and become a corporation under the name of "the board of education of the village of Kasson," and be capable of suing and being sued, and of taking by gift, grant, purchase, devise or bequest or otherwise any real estate and personal property, and of using, selling, conveying, contracting and enjoying the same, and of entering into, making, performing, and enforcing contracts. It shall be the successor in law of the board of education of Independent school district No. thirty (30) of the county of Dodge, and shall succeed to all the property, rights, and liberties of said board. It shall have the entire control and management of all common schools within the village of Kasson, and the territory attached thereto for school purposes, and the title, ownership and control of all houses, buildings, lands, and appurtenances, and other property provided for common school purposes, or heretofore owned by said Independent school district No. thirty (30) of Dodge county. It shall be entitled to demand, have and receive all moneys which have accrued or shall accrue to said district No. thirty (30) or to said district hereby created for school purposes under any law of this State, or otherwise, and may appropriate and use such moneys for the support and maintenance of schools within such district as such board may deem best. It may also hire or erect and maintain, as it may deem best, school houses and school rooms, but it shall never erect any building for which authority has not been previously given by an affirmative vote of the legal voters of said district. It may employ a superintendent and teachers, and make rules and regulation for the government of schools, and for the employment and examination of teachers, and prescribing their powers and duties: and prescribing the description, grading and classification of scholars and their management and course of instruction, and prescribe text books to be used, and all other matters pertaining to the government and welfare of schools, except that no instruction or exercise of a sectarian character, shall be introduced nor permitted in any school. It may also make by-laws, rules and regulations for its own government.

SEC. 3. The present members of the board of education of said Independent school district No. thirty (30), shall be and become the board of education of the village of Kasson as created by this act, and those members whose term of office expire in the years one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one (1881), one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two (1882) and one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (1883) respectively, shall each hold their office until the first (1st) Monday in April in the year following such expiration, and annually thereafter there shall be two school directors elected in the manner provided in section four (4) of this act, who shall hold their said office for three (3) years and until their successors are elected and qualified. In case of vacancy occurring in the board of education by death, removal, resignation or otherwise, the board of education may fill such vacancy by appointment for the unexpired term.

SEC. 4. All elections for school directors shall be at the annual village election and as a part of such village election, (except that legal voters inhabiting territory attached to the village for school purposes only, shall not be entitled to vote for village officers except for members of the board of education), and such school directors shall be voted for upon separate ballots, and a separate ballot box shall be provided, which shall be kept by the judges to receive the ballots of such persons as are entitled to vote for such school directors. Whenever school directors are voted for to serve for different terms, the ballots used shall designate the term for which the person named is voted for, the judges of election shall canvass the votes cast for school directors and make returns and proclaim the same as in the case of other village officers, and the village recorder shall forthwith notify the persons elected of their election, and in all matters not herein especially provided for touching such election, the rules provided for the election of village officers shall apply.

SEC. 5. Every school director, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall take, subscribe, and file in the office of the village recorder, an oath or affirmation that he will support the constitution and laws of the State of Minnesota, and discharge the duties of his office to the best of his ability.

The board of education of the village of Kasson shall on or before ten (10) days after each annual election, meet and organize by the election from their own members, one (1) president, one (1) secretary, and one (1) treasurer; Provided, that the first permanent organization under the provisions of this act shall remain in full force until the first (1st) Monday in April, eighteen hundred and eighty-two (1882).

The board shall, by resolution, establish regular meetings, prescribe times and place of meeting. The president or any two (2) directors may call special meetings by serving written or verbal notice on all the members.

The secretary and treasurer shall each, before entering upon his duties, execute and deliver to the board of education of the village of Kasson a good and sufficient bond, payable to said board, in such sum as shall be fixed upon by the board, and with sureties who shall be freeholders of said school district, and shall be approved by the board, and who shall justify in the aggregate to double the amount of the bond, conditioned that the principal in the bond shall well and faithfully perform and discharge all the duties of his office, and turn over to his successor or to whomsoever the board may direct all moneys, books and every valuable thing that shall come into his hands by virtue of his office; such bond shall be filed in the office of the recorder of the village of Kasson.

SEC. 6. The president, or in his absence a president pro tempore, shall preside at all meetings of the board, and sign all orders on the treasury for all moneys voted to be paid by the treasurer, and shall perform all duties necessary for the transaction of the business of the board, and which is usually performed by the president of a corporation.

The secretary, or in his absence the secretary pro tempore shall keep a full and fair record of the proceedings of the board at its meetings, and shall draw and countersign all orders on the treasurer, previously audited and allowed by the board, and shall keep a full record of all such orders, showing the number, date and name of payee of each order respectively, and the purposes for which it was made. The secretary shall perform such other duties as are usually performed by such officer, or as may be directed by the board; he shall draw no orders on the treasurer except such as have been ordered by a majority vote of all its members.

The treasurer shall receive and safely keep all moneys of the board and pay the same only upon orders signed by the president, and countersigned by the secretary. He shall also safely keep all other property or papers which may come or be placed in his hands belonging to said board, and perform such other duties as the board may prescribe.

SEC. 7. The board of education of the village of Kasson shall meet not more than three (3) days before each annual election, and shall make settlement, audit and adjust the accounts of the secretary and treasurer, and shall post in a conspicuous place in the room where the election is held, an itemized report of receipts and disbursements during the year.

SEC. 8. Said board of education is hereby authorized and empowered to levy upon the taxable property in said district, in each and every year, such taxes as will raise sufficient sums of money for all school purposes, and the payment of outstanding debts. Provided, that the aggregate annual amount of such taxes shall never exceed in any year ten (10) mills on the dollar upon the assessed valuation of said district. The board shall make return of its annual levy of taxes on or before the first (1st) day of September of every year, to the county auditor of the county of Dodge; and such taxes shall be collected and payment thereof enforced with and in like manner as State, county and town taxes are collected, and payment thereof enforced, and when collected, shall, together with all costs, interest and penalties collected thereon, be paid over by the county treasurer to the treasurer of said board as often as said county treasurer is required to make settlement with school districts.

SEC. 9. The said board shall never issue any bond nor promissory note, certificate of indebtedness or other obligation for the payment of money, except for necessary current expenses of the schools unless such indebtedness shall have been first authorized by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of the legal voters of the district.

SEC. 10. The board of education shall cause special school meetings of said district whenever petitioned so to do, by ten (10) or more legal voters of said district; such petition shall set forth at length the object of such meeting. Whenever so petitioned the board shall cause notices thereof to be posted at least ten (10) days before such meeting in three (3) of the most public places in the district, which said notice shall set forth the object of the meeting, and no other business shall be transacted thereat. The president shall preside at such meeting and the secretary shall be the clerk, and shall keep full record thereof in the record book of the board of education.

SEC. 11. All the indebtedness of, and orders issued by the board of education of Independent school district No. thirty (30) of the county of Dodge, shall be paid by the board of education of the village of Kasson.

CHAPTER 7.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

SECTION 1. No vote of the common council shall be reconsidered or rescinded at a subsequent meeting, unless notice of such intention be given at a meeting previous thereto.

SEC. 2. This act is hereby declared a public act and need not be pleaded or proven in any court of this State.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 23d, 1881.
