SEC. 4. All the provisions of said chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) of the general laws for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875), shall apply to and be in force in said village, except as herein otherwise provided, and in addition to the powers so conferred, said village council shall have power:

First. To prescribe such additional duties for the officers of such village as they may by ordinance direct.

Second. To appoint such additional special officers for said village as they may deem necessary therefor.

Third. To provide for the publication in a newspaper of ordinances, by-laws and resolutions of said village council.

Fourth. To provide compensation for the officers of said village.

Fifth. To direct the street commissioner or road master of said village to expend highway labor, and taxes raised for road purposes, at any points within or beyond the limits of said village.

SEC. 5. Andrew F. Schultz, Albert Kohler and Benedict Meiser, are hereby designated as the persons to carry out the provisions of said chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) in relation to the organization of said village, and the first election of officers thereof, and the secretary of State is hereby directed to issue his official notification of the passage of said act to said persons.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved November 2nd, 1881.

CHAPTER 5.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE VILLAGE OF SAUK RAPIDS, IN THE COUNTY OF BENTON, MINNESOTA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That the following described territory in the county of Benton, State of Minnesota, to-wit: Lot three (3) in section fifteen (15), township thirty-six (36), north of range thirty-one (31) west; all of sections twenty-two (22), twenty-three (23), twenty four (24), twenty-five (25), twenty-six (26), thirty-five (35) and thirty-six (36), township thirty-six (36) north of range thirty-one (31) west, in the State of Minnesota, county of Benton aforesaid be, and the same is hereby set apart, constituted and incorporated as the village of Sauk Rapids, under and subject to the provisions of chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) of the general laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875), and the inhabitants of said territory shall form and constitute a municipal corporation at common law, together with the power granted and conferred by said chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) of the general laws of the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875.)

SEC. 2. A. J. Demules, B. K. Knowlton and Erasmus Cross, are hereby appointed commissioners to act under section nine (9) of said chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) of the general laws of the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875), to call and give notice of the first election; to organize and elect officers as in said section nine (9) provided; and the secretary of State is hereby directed to issue his official notification of this act to said persons.

SEC. 3. That in lieu of electing three (3) trustees as provided in said chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) of the general laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875), the electors of the village of Sauk Rapids shall elect one trustee only, and that the president, trustee and recorder shall constitute the village council, and that in lieu of electing one village constable as provided in said chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) of the general laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875), the village council of said village of Sauk Rapids shall be and are hereby empowered, authorized and directed to appoint a village marshal, who shall hold his office at the pleasure of the village council and shall receive in addition to the fees now allowed to the village constable, such fees or per diem as the village council may ordain. And said village council is hereby empowered and authorized to appoint from time to time deputy village marshals as said council may deem necessary to preserve the good order and peace of said village, and who shall hold said office during the time prescribed by said village council, and receive such per diem as said village council may direct. And such marshal and deputy marshal shall have all the powers, rights and authority of a village constable, shall qualify in the same manner as a village constable and shall be subject and liable to the general laws pertaining to the powers and duties of village constables in this State.

SEC. 4. In addition to the general powers conferred by the said chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) of the general laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875), the village council shall also have power:

First. To provide additional duties for the officers of said village as they may by ordinance direct.

Second. To appoint such additional special officers for said village as may be necessary therefor.

Third. In case of a vacancy in the office of the justice of the peace, to fill the same by appointment, by a majority of said village council.

Fourth. To provide for the compensation of the officers of said village. Provided, that no member of the said village council shall receive per diem or fees to exceed twenty-five ($25) dollars in any one year, except the recorder of said village.

SEC. 5. That the recorder shall be the recording officer of said village and said village council. He shall have the custody of the seal of said corporation, if any, and of all records of said village not necessarily appertaining to the other officers of said village. He shall receive all moneys payable to said corporation, receive all fines collected by the justice of the peace or marshal of said village, and pay the same over to the treasurer of said village, charging him therewith and taking his receipt therefor. He shall keep all the accounts of the corporation, shall draw all orders upon the treasurer, but he shall draw no order for any purpose unless in payment of such claims against the said village as have been previously audited by the council of said village.

SEC. 6. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall in anywise change, alter or affect the township organization of the township of Sauk Rapids, except as provided in said chapter one hundred and thirty-nine (139) of the general laws of one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five (1875), and that said village shall continue to be a part of said township of Sauk Rapids, and the said township shall be as heretofore, one election district for all purposes not in conflict with the provisions of this act. And the township and general elections may be held in said village, and the qualified voters of said village shall be qualified voters of said township.

SEC. 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved November 4th, 1881.
