CHAPTER 12.

Legalizing
incorporation of villages.

An act to legalize the incorporation of certain villages, attempted under chapter 145 of the General Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (1885), and of the several acts amendatory thereof, and also to legalize the acts of said villages.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That in all cases where there have been an incorporation heretofore, to-wit, on and between the 14th day of December, 1904, and Feb. 6, 1905, attempted under the provisions of chapter 145 of the General Laws of one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (1885), and the several acts amendatory thereof, and the original petition, copy of notice of election and certificate of the inspectors of the election have been heretofore filed in the office of the register of deeds of the proper county, such attempted incorporation of such village, under the name assumed, shall be, and hereby is legalized in each and every case, and declared a valid and effective incorporation, under the name assumed, and this shall be true notwithstanding the omissions of any matter and thing by law required as a prerequisite to the incorporation of such village, and notwithstanding any defect in the said petition, notice of election or certificate of the inspectors of election, and that in all cases where three inspectors of election have been duly appointed by the county commissioners, as provided in said chapter, and one of them dies before the election takes place and the remaining two have presided at the election and filed their certificate, as required by law, such election shall be, and is hereby declared to be, as legal and effectual to all intents and purposes as if the three had acted and presided. Any by-law, resolution or ordinance heretofore adopted by such village, or corporate act of any character indulged in, is hereby legalized and declared as valid as if such village had been duly and legally incorporated in the original instance. But nothing herein shall affect any action or proceeding now pending.
