CHAPTER 128.

An act to extend the time for closing the affairs of a dissolved corporation other than a corporation having the power of eminent domain and legalizing conveyances made and acts done by such corporation after the expiration of the three-year limit prescribed by General Statutes 1894, section 3431.

Extension of time dissolving corporations.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1.   When any corporation other than a corporation having the power of eminent domain which has been dissolved more than three years, by expiration or forfeiture of its charter, decree of court or otherwise, did not fully close its affairs and convey all its property within the three years' limit prescribed by General Statutes 1894, section 3431, the time so limited is hereby extended for one year from and after the passage of this act; and any and all conveyances heretofore made by any such corporation or its proper officers and any and all acts done in disposing of the property of such corporation and closing its affairs, after the expiration of three years from the date of its dissolution, are hereby legalized and made of the same force and effect as though the same had been done within such three years.   Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as affecting any vested rights or any action or proceeding now pending.

Not to affect vested rights.

SEC. 2.   This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 11, 1905.
