CHAPTER 220.

S. F. No. 214.

An act relating to the addition of territory to all incorporated cities containing ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants or less.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That whenever the majority of the owners of any property which has been platted into lots and blocks or outlots, or the owner of any tract, piece or parcel of land abutting upon any incorporated city having ten thousand (10,000) inhabitants or less, whether such city is incorporated under general or special laws, shall petition the city council to have such property annexed to the city, the city council may by ordinance declare the same to be an addition to such city and thereupon such territory shall become a part of such city as effectually as if it had been originally a part thereof. Addition of territory, cities of 10,000 or less.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the council of any city adding territory under this act to cause a certified copy of the ordinance aforesaid to be recorded and filed in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which such city is located in the same manner as city charters are filed and recorded under the General Laws of this state.

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 17, 1905.
