An act to amend section 1883 of the General Statutes of 1894, as amended by chapter 47 of the General Laws of 1895, and chapter 213 of the General Laws of 1901, relating to laying out, altering or discontinuing judicial highways in certain cases.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. That section 1883 of the General Statutes of 1894, as amended by chapter 47 of the General Laws of 1895 and chapter 213 of the General Laws of 1901, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

Locating,
altering, or
discontinuing judicial highways.

"Section 1883. Whenever a petition praying for the location, alteration or vacation of any highway running into or through two or more counties, or on or partly on the line dividing two or more counties, in any judicial district in this state, signed by twenty legal voters and taxpayers resident in said counties, shall be presented to a judge of the district court in said district, or whenever a petition praying for the location, alteration or vacation of any highway running into or through two or more counties, or partly on the line dividing two or more counties in two or more judicial districts in this state, signed by twenty legal voters and taxpayers, resident in said counties, shall be presented to a judge of the district court of one of said districts, the said judge is hereby authorized to appoint three commissioners whose duty it shall be to meet at such times and places as may be necessary, and to immediately proceed to lay out, alter or vacate such road as directed by the judge in accordance with the prayer of the petition; provided, that no road shall be ordered by the judge to extend more than six miles outside of the judicial district in which the application is made, and such road shall be extended beyond the district only for the purpose of commencing or ending at some village or public road.

Two or more
counties.

Provided, however, that in cases where said road, if a new road, or if an old road, the part thereof to be altered or vacated runs through or into two or more counties situated in two or more judicial districts, the judge to whom the petition was presented shall appoint commissioners from each of the counties affected by said road, not exceeding five in all, and to direct them to lay out,

Commissioners from each county.

alter, or vacate said road accordingly; and it shall be the duty of said commissioners to meet at such times and places as may be necessary and to proceed to lay out, alter or vacate said road in like manner as provided herein in other cases."

SEC. 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 18, 1905.
