

veyance of all children committed by the court to the state public school for dependent children, and, when so directed by the court to the state training school, without compensation, except transportation and expenses actually incurred.

SEC. 3. That section seven (7) of said chapter 154 as amended by section six (6) of chapter 270 of the General Laws of Minnesota for 1903, be amended so as to read as follows:

In counties of over 50,000 and less than 100,000 inhabitants, salary.

In counties of 100,000 and over, salary.

Term of present officers.

Section 7. In counties having a population of more than fifty thousand and less than one hundred thousand, the probation officer shall receive as full compensation for his services six hundred dollars ($600.00) per annum, and in counties having a population of one hundred thousand or more he shall receive one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) per annum, and each deputy seven hundred and twenty dollars ($720.00), which salaries shall be paid by the county treasurer in equal monthly installments, upon certificates issued by the clerk of the district court.

SEC. 4. Nothing in this act shall be understood to abridge or shorten the term of office of any probation officer heretofore appointed under the provisions of chapter 154 of the General Laws of Minnesota for 1899, and acts amendatory thereof, but any such officer heretofore appointed shall continue in office until the expiration of the term for which he was appointed, subject, however, to removal by the district court for cause.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the first day of June, 1905.

Approved April 19, 1905.
