

CHAPTER 5—S. F. No. 998.

An Act to amend Section 908 of the Revised Laws 1905, relating to the designation of newspapers for the publication of delinquent tax lists.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Publishing tax list.—Section 1. Section 908 of the Revised Laws, 1905, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

“908. Designation of newspaper—

At their annual meeting in January, and prior to the designation, the county board shall open, examine and consider all offers for publication filed or presented as provided in section 907, and shall thereupon award the publication of the notice and list to the publisher or proprietor of the newspaper whose offer is found to be the lowest, and does not exceed fifteen cents for each description. The board may reject any offer, if, in its judgment the public interest so require, and may thereupon designate a paper without regard to any rejected offer. In counties now or hereafter having a population of 75,000 or more, the board shall designate a daily paper of general circulation throughout such county; Provided that if no such daily paper submits a bid at the rate herein provided, the board may designate a weekly paper of general circulation throughout said county. In any county in which there is no legal newspaper the board shall designate any such newspaper printed in the judicial district in which the county is situated, and circulating in the county. Every such designation shall be by resolution, which shall be substantially in the following form:

RESOLVED, That (here state the name of the newspaper) be, and the same is hereby, designated by the county board of the county of as the newspaper in which the notice and list of the real estate remaining delinquent on the first Monday of January, 19..., shall be published.

A copy of the resolution certified by the auditor, shall be filed with the clerk of the district court. If, for any reason, the board fail to designate a newspaper, or the proprietor of the newspaper fail to give the required bond, the auditor shall thereupon designate the same in writing, and immediately file such writing in his office, and a certified copy thereof with such clerk.”

Application.—Sec. 2. This act shall apply to taxes becoming delinquent on the first Monday in January, 1911.

Other acts repealed.—Sec. 3. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Sec. 4. This act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its passage.

Approved February 7, 1911.
