CHAPTER 427—S. F. No. 687.

An Act entitled "An Act providing for the transcribing of records in the office of the state auditor relating to state lands and for the recording of such transcripts in the offices of the registers of deeds."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. County board may direct register to transcribe records from lists of state auditor.—The county commissioners of any county in this state are hereby authorized to direct the register of deeds of any county containing any lands heretofore granted to the state from the United States government (except Sections 16 and 36), and including all lands so granted in lieu of lands in Sections 16 or 36, to transcribe from the records of the state auditor lists of all such lands including reference to the laws granting the same and by all patents issued thereunder to the state, which transcripts after due examination thereof shall be certified to without charge by the state auditor as being true and correct transcripts, and thereupon such transcripts, shall be recorded by the register of deeds in whose county such land is situate, which recording shall be done in books to be provided therefor by the county. Such register of deeds shall receive the same fees allowed by law for recording original instruments in his office, which fees shall be paid by the county auditor upon the approval of the county commissioners of said county.

Sec. 2. Transcribed records to be prima facie evidence.—The record of such transcript shall be prima facie evidence of the facts therein set forth, and of the contents of the original instruments so transcribed and recorded, and a certified copy of such record shall be admissible in evidence in all the courts of this state.

Approved April 22, 1913.
