

damages arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of such motor vehicle or motor vehicles within the United States of America or the Dominion of Canada, subject to limits exclusive of interest and costs, with respect to each such motor vehicle, as follows: $10,000 because of bodily injury to or death of one person in any one accident and, subject to said limit for one person, $20,000 because of bodily injury to or death of two or more persons in any one accident, and $5,000 because of injury to or destruction of property of others in any one accident.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 170.44, Subdivision 1 is amended to read:

170.44 Deposit of cash with state treasurer. Subdivision 1. Proof of financial responsibility may be evidenced by the certificate of the state treasurer that the person named therein has deposited with him $25,000 in cash, or securities such as may legally be purchased by savings banks or for trust funds of a market value of $25,000. The state treasurer shall not accept any such deposit and issue a certificate therefor and the commissioner shall not accept such certificate unless accompanied by evidence that there are no unsatisfied judgments of any character against the depositor in the county where the depositor resides.

CHAPTER 308—H. F. No. 328

An act relating to special instruction of nonresident handicapped children and inter district participation in providing special instruction for handicapped children; amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 131.089.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 131.089, is amended to read:

131.089 Special instruction outside district; inter district participation. Subdivision 1. The parent or guardian of a handicapped child who resides in a school district which does not provide special instruction and services within its district may make application to the commissioner of education for special instruction and services for his child under one of the methods provided in section 131.083.

If the state commissioner of education finds that the local district is not providing such instruction and services he shall arrange for the special instruction and services provided for in section 131.083. If the instruction and services are provided outside the district of residence, transportation or board and lodging, and any tuition to be paid, shall be paid by the district of residence. The tuition rate to be charged for any handicapped child shall be the actual cost of providing special instruction and services to the child including a proportionate amount for capital outlay and debt service minus the amount of special aid for handicapped children received on behalf of that child. If the school boards involved do not agree upon the tuition rate, either school board may apply to the commissioner of education to fix such rate. The commissioner of education shall then set a date for a hearing, giving each board at least ten days' notice, and after the hearing the commissioner shall make his order fixing the tuition rate which rate shall then be binding on both school districts.

Subd. 2. For the purposes of sections 131.081 through 131.088, any school district or unorganized territory or combinations thereof may enter into an agreement, upon such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon, to provide special instruction and services for handicapped children. In that event, one of the participating units may employ and contract with necessary qualified personnel to offer services in the several districts or territories, and each participating unit shall reimburse the employing unit a proportionate amount of the actual cost of providing the special instruction and services, less the amount of state reimbursement, which shall be claimed in full by the employing district.

Approved April 17, 1959.

CHAPTER 309—H. F. No. 332

An act providing special instruction for handicapped children in Minnesota and other states; amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 131.083.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 131.083, is amended to read:

131.083 Methods of special instruction. Special instruction and services for handicapped children may be provided by one or more of the following methods:
