

Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 256.27, is amended to read:

256.27 Reimbursements of participating governmental units; recipient's application of excess assets. When any amount shall be recovered from any source for assistance furnished under the provisions of sections 256.11 to 256.43, there shall be paid to the United States the amount which shall be due under the terms of the social security act and the balance thereof shall be paid into the treasuries of the state and county, substantially in the proportion in which they respectively contributed toward the total assistance paid. The amounts due the respective participating units of government shall be determined by rule and regulation adopted by the commissioner of public welfare pursuant to a formula of reimbursement prescribed or authorized by the Federal Social Security Administration.

Any recipient who by inheritance or otherwise acquires assets in excess of the maximum allowed under section 256.18 may apply such assets to his lien indebtedness or to the general claim if he owns no real property, and continues to receive old age assistance if he is otherwise eligible. The county agency shall consider such payments as a recovery which reduces the lien or claim in the amount of the payment made.

Sec. 7. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 256.14, Subdivisions 2, 3, 4 and 5, are hereby repealed.

Approved April 24, 1959.

CHAPTER 624—S. F. No. 615

[Not Coded]

An act relating to education, authorizing the board of county commissioners to discontinue and reestablish the office of county superintendent of schools; amending Laws 1957, Chapter 816, Section 1.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Laws 1957, Chapter 816, Section 1, is amended to read:

Section 1. County superintendent, discontinuance and reestablishment of office. The county board in any county having 12 or less common school districts in operation may by resolution duly adopted at least six months before the end of the term of office of the county superintendent of schools, declare the office terminated as of the end of the term of the incumbent. If such resolution is adopted, no person shall be elected or appointed to the office of county superintendent of schools so long as such resolution remains in effect. The county board by resolution adopted at least six months before the date of any general election may rescind its action terminating the office. If such action is taken a county superintendent of schools shall be elected at the next general election according to law; provided, however, that if the county superintendent in any such county resigns, the county board may by resolution duly adopted thereupon terminate the office of county superintendent of schools. Such office shall remain terminated unless the county board by resolution duly adopted shall reinstate said position as hereinabove provided.

Approved April 24, 1959.
