CHAPTER 23—S. F. No. 156

An act relating to the livestock sanitary board: providing for the organization thereof: amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 35.02.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 35.02, is amended to read:

35.02 Livestock sanitary board. The state livestock sanitary board shall consist of five members appointed by the Governor each for the term of five years and until his successor qualifies. Three shall be persons engaged in the production of livestock in the state; and the other two practicing veterinarians and graduates of a regularly organized and recognized veterinary college. The dean of the college of veterinary medicine of the University of Minnesota may serve as consultant to the board without vote. Appointments to fill unexpired terms shall be made from the classes to which the retiring members belong. The board shall elect a president and a vice-president from among this number; also a veterinarian and graduate of a regularly organized and recognized veterinary college, not a member, to be its secretary and executive officer for a term of one year and until his successor qualifies. It may also employ, and dismiss at pleasure, an attorney and such other assistants as may be necessary in the performance of its duties. The duties of the secretary shall be described by the board. The compensation of the employees other than the secretary shall be fixed, and their duties prescribed by the board. No member of the board shall receive any compensation for services as such, or as an employee thereof, but the expenses of each, necessarily incurred in the discharge of his duties, shall be paid by the state.

Approved February 19, 1959.
