CHAPTER 267—H. F. No. 339

An act authorizing the temporary assignment of a probate judge or retired probate judge to serve and perform the duties of another judge; providing for the payment of judges on temporary assignment; and amending Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 525.051, as amended by Extra Session Laws 1959, Chapter 60.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 525.051, as amended by Extra Session Laws 1959, Chapter 60, is amended to read:

525.051 Temporary assignment of judges. Except for the reasons prescribed by Minnesota Statutes 1957, Section 525.05 relating to disqualification of a probate judge, if for any other reason it is necessary to assign a judge to perform the duties of the probate judge of any county, the chief judge of the district court of the judicial district in which the county is situated, upon the petition of any person, may assign any probate judge to serve and discharge the duties of the probate judge in any such county at such times as the chief judge shall determine. Such Whenever by reason of disqualification, absence, illness, incapacity or other cause, the probate judge of any county is unable to act, or whenever the interest of the public or of any person interested in any matter requires that such probate judge should not act, any other probate judge, or probate judge who has retired as a probate judge, and who consents so to act, may be assigned to serve and discharge the duties of such probate judge in his stead at such times or for such purposes as may be directed, by order of such probate judge or in the event of his death or his refusal, failure, or inability so to order as determined by the chief judge of the district court of the judicial district in which the county is situated, by order of such chief judge. Any probate judge or retired probate judge temporarily as-
