

(3) to pay costs to acquire, design, equip, construct, improve, maintain, operate, administer, or promote the convention center or related facilities, including financing costs related to them;

(4) to pay reasonable and appropriate costs determined by the city to replace housing and the ice arena removed from the site; and

(5) to maintain reserves for the foregoing purposes deemed reasonable and appropriate by the city.

In the event of any amendment to chapter 297A enacted subsequent to the effective date of this act which exempts sales or uses which were taxable under chapter 297A on the effective date of this act, the city may by ordinance extend the tax authorized hereby to any such sales or uses provided that the city council shall have determined that such extension is necessary to provide revenues for the uses to which taxes may be applied under this section and further provided that, in the estimation of the city council, the aggregate annual collections following such extension will not exceed the aggregate annual collections which would have been generated if chapter 297A, as in effect on the effective date of this act, were then in effect. Any revenue bonds issued in accordance with this act may, with the consent of the city council, contain a covenant that the tax will be so extended to the extent necessary to pay principal and interest on the bonds when due.

Money for replacement housing shall be made available by the city only for new construction, conversion of nonresidential buildings, and for rehabilitation of vacant residential structures, only if all of the units in the newly constructed building, converted nonresidential building, or rehabilitated residential structure are to be used for replacement housing.

Sec. 7. EFFECTIVE DATE.

This act is effective the day after compliance by the governing body of the city of Minneapolis with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021, subdivision 3.

CHAPTER 56—H.F.No. 839

An act relating to public safety; local emergency telephone service; requiring automatic location identification for public safety answering points under certain circumstances; amending Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 403.02, subdivision 6, and by adding a subdivision.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 403.02, subdivision 6, is amended to read:

Changes or additions are indicated by underline, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

Subd. 6. "Minimum 911 service" means a telephone service meeting the design standards established pursuant to section 403.07, which automatically connects a person dialing the digits 911 to an established public safety answering point. Minimum 911 service includes (1) equipment for connecting and out-switching 911 calls within a telephone central office, trunking facilities from the central office to a public safety answering point; and; (2) equipment, as appropriate, for automatically selectively routing 911 calls in situations where one telephone central office serves more than one public safety answering point; and (3) provision of automatic location identification if the public safety answering point has the capability of providing that service.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1986, section 403.02, is amended by adding a subdivision to read:

Subd. 7. AUTOMATIC LOCATION IDENTIFICATION. "Automatic location identification" means the process of electronically identifying and displaying on a special viewing screen the name of the subscriber and the address of the calling telephone number to a person answering a 911 emergency call.
