

game. In the case of bingo, gross receipts must be compared to the checkers' records for the occasion by a person who did not sell cards for the occasion. Separate records must be kept for bingo and all other forms of lawful gambling.

Sec. 6. STUDY.

The senate committee on general legislation and public gaming and the house committee on general legislation, veterans affairs, and gaming shall conduct a joint study to examine whether charitable gambling laws are being properly enforced, whether the amount being devoted to charitable purposes from charitable gambling is appropriate, and whether taxes due on the conduct of charitable gambling are actually being collected. The charitable gambling control board, the commissioner of revenue, and the director of the bureau of criminal apprehension shall cooperate in the conduct of this study. The study must be completed by January 15, 1989.

Sec. 7. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Section 1 is effective the day following final enactment.

52.19 EXPULSION OR WITHDRAWAL OF MEMBERS.

Subdivision 1. A member may be expelled by a two-thirds vote of the members present at a special meeting called to consider the matter, but only after a hearing. A member may also be expelled by the board of directors in accordance with a procedure and policy under subdivision 2. Any member may withdraw from the credit union at any time, but notice of withdrawal may be required. All amounts paid on shares or as deposits of an expelled or withdrawing member, with any dividends or interest accredited thereto, to the date thereof, shall, as funds become available and after deducting all amounts due from the member to the credit union and an amount as necessary to honor outstanding share drafts drawn against the accounts of the member, be paid to the member. The credit union may require 60 days' notice of intention to withdraw shares and 30 days' notice of intention to withdraw deposits, except that a credit union shall not at any time require notice of withdrawal of funds subject to withdrawal by share drafts. Withdrawing or expelled members shall have no further right in the credit union, but are not, by the expulsion or withdrawal, released from any remaining liability to the credit union.

Subd. 2. The board of directors may adopt a procedure and policy for expulsion of members for nonparticipation in the affairs of the credit union. The policy must be based on:

(1) failure to purchase and maintain at least one credit union share or to pay entrance or membership fees, if any; or

(2) causing monetary loss to the credit union.

If adopted, written notice of the procedure and policy and their effective date shall be mailed not less than 30 days before their effective date to each member of the credit union at the member's address on the credit union records. Each new member shall be provided written notice of the procedure and policy before or upon applying for membership.
