

single biennial registration and paying a $50 fee but only within one year of the date of the termination or revocation.

(a) For a domestic limited liability company, filing the biennial registration with the secretary of state:

(1) returns the limited liability company to active status as of the date of the administrative termination;

(2) validates contracts or other acts within the authority of the articles, and the limited liability company is liable for those contracts or acts; and

(3) restores to the limited liability company all assets and rights of the limited liability company and its members to the extent they were held by the limited liability company and its members before the administrative termination occurred, except to the extent that assets or rights were affected by acts occurring after the termination, sold, or otherwise distributed after that time.

(b) For a non-Minnesota limited liability company, filing the biennial registration restores the limited liability company's ability to do business in Minnesota and the rights and privileges which accompany that authority.

CHAPTER 132—S.F.No. 1199

An act relating to labor and employment; advisory councils; extending the expiration date of labor and employment related advisory councils; amending Minnesota Statutes 1992, sections 79.51, subdivision 4; 175.008; 178.02, subdivision 2; 182.656, subdivision 3; 268.363; and 326.41.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 79.51, subdivision 4, is amended to read:

Subd. 4. ADVISORY COMMITTEE. The commissioner shall appoint an advisory committee which shall offer recommendations regarding rulemaking under this section. The advisory committee shall include representatives of insurers, employers, and employees. The advisory committee expires as provided in section 15.059, subdivision 5, except that it shall not expire before June 30, 1995.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 175.008, is amended to read:

New language is indicated by underline, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

175.008 CODE ENFORCEMENT ADVISORY COUNCIL; CREATION.

The commissioner shall appoint an 11 member advisory council on code enforcement. The terms, compensation, removal of council members, and expiration of the council are governed by section 15.059, except that the advisory council shall not expire before June 30, 1995. The council shall advise the commissioner on matters within the council's expertise or under the regulation of the commissioner.

Sec. 3. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 178.02, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

Subd. 2. TERMS. The council shall expire and the terms, compensation and removal of appointed members shall be as provided in section 15.059, except that the council shall not expire before June 30, 1995.

Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 182.656, subdivision 3, is amended to read:

Subd. 3. A majority of the council members constitutes a quorum. The council shall meet at the call of its chair, or upon request of any six members. A tape recording of the meeting with the tape being retained for a one-year period will be available upon the request and payment of costs to any interested party. The council shall expire and the terms, compensation, and removal of members shall be as provided in section 15.059, except that the council shall not expire before June 30, 1995.

Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 268.363, is amended to read:

268.363 ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

A 13-member advisory committee is established as provided under section 15.059 to assist the commissioner in selecting eligible organizations to receive planning grants, evaluating the final reports of each organization, and providing recommendations to the legislature. Notwithstanding section 15.059, the advisory committee shall not expire before June 30, 1995. Members of the committee may be reimbursed for expenses but may not receive any other compensation for service on the committee. The advisory committee consists of representatives of the commissioners of education, human services, and jobs and training; a representative of the chancellor of vocational education; a representative of the commissioner of the housing finance agency; the director of the office of jobs policy; and seven public members appointed by the governor. Each of the following groups must be represented by a public member: labor organizations, local educators, community groups, consumers, local housing developers, youth between the ages of 16 and 21, and homeless persons. At least three of the public members must be from outside of the metropolitan area as defined in section 473.121, subdivision 2. The commissioner may provide staff to the advisory committee to assist it in carrying out its purpose.
