

postretirement adjustment amounts under paragraph (d), and must have additional retirement reserves appropriated under paragraph (e).

(b) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the individual described in paragraph (a) must be considered to have retired effective July 1, 1982, and to have accrued a retirement annuity from that date.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the individual described in paragraph (a) must have the future retirement annuity amount increased to account for the adjustment paid to other eligible annuitants from the Minnesota postretirement investment fund on January 1, 1984, and the compounding effect of subsequent postretirement adjustments through the date of enactment to function as the new base retirement annuity for postretirement adjustments after the date of enactment.

(d) The individual described in paragraph (a) is entitled to a lump sum payment of postretirement adjustment amounts omitted by virtue of the failure to receive the January 1, 1984, postretirement adjustment under Minnesota Statutes, section 11A.18, including the compounding effect of subsequent postretirement adjustments for the period January 1, 1984, through the date of enactment.

(e) The amount of the required reserves for the recomputed retirement annuity for transfer to the Minnesota postretirement investment fund under paragraph (c) and the amount of the lump sum back payment under paragraph (d) are appropriated from the teachers retirement fund.

Sec. 2. EFFECTIVE DATE.

Section 1 is effective on the day following final enactment.

CHAPTER 441—H.F.No. 1966

An act relating to peace officers; authorizing officers of states adjoining Minnesota to render assistance to peace officers of this state on request; granting these officers arrest authority in this state under certain circumstances; extending the state and local government tort liability laws to the conduct of these officers; proposing coding for new law in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 626.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. [626.77] PEACE OFFICERS FROM ADJOINING STATES.

New language is indicated by underline, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

Subdivision 1. ARREST AUTHORITY. A peace officer of a state adjoining Minnesota has the same authority to arrest and hold an individual in custody as has any peace officer of this state if all of the following circumstances are present:

(1) the officer enters this state while on duty and authorized by a request for assistance by a peace officer of this state;

(2) while in this state, the officer acts under the direction of the peace officer to whom the officer is rendering assistance;

(3) while in this state, the officer acts in accordance with the rules and regulations of the officer's own appointive or elective authority; and

(4) upon effecting an arrest, the officer surrenders custody of the arrested individual to a peace officer of this state without unnecessary delay.

Subd. 2. TORT LIABILITY; INDEMNIFICATION. A peace officer from an adjoining state who responds to a request for assistance and who acts in accordance with subdivision 1 is serving in the regular line of duty as fully as though the service was within the officer's jurisdiction. For the purposes of section 3.736 and chapter 466, the officer is deemed to be an employee of the elective or appointive agency of the peace officer requesting assistance.
