CHAPTER 590—H.F.No. 2512

An act relating to retirement; providing for level benefits for the Minneapolis police relief association; changing the definition of surviving spouses eligible for benefits; amending Minnesota Statutes 1992, sections 353B.11, subdivision 1; 423B.09, subdivision 1; Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, sections 353B.07, subdivision 3; and 423B.10, subdivision 1.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

ARTICLE 1

MINNEAPOLIS POLICE RELIEF ASSOCIATION

BENEFIT MODIFICATIONS

Section 1. Minnesota Statutes 1992, section 423B.09, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. MINNEAPOLIS POLICE; PERSONS ENTITLED TO

New language is indicated by underline, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

RECEIVE PENSIONS. The association shall grant pensions payable from the police pension fund in monthly installments to persons entitled to pensions in the manner and for the following purposes.

(a) An active member or a deferred pensioner who has performed duty as a member of the police department of the city for five years or more, upon written application after retiring from duty and reaching at least age 50, is entitled to be paid monthly for life a service pension equal to eight units. For full years of service beyond five years, the service pension increases by 1.6 units for each full year, to a maximum of 40 units; ~~as follows:~~

Sixth through 20th years	1.6 units per year of service
21st through 24th years	1.0 units per year of service
25th year	4.0 units

Fractional years of service may not be used in computing pensions.

(b) An active member who after five years' service but less than 20 years' service with the police department of the city, becomes superannuated so as to be permanently unable to perform the person's assigned duties, is entitled to be paid monthly for life a superannuation pension equal to two units for five years of service and an additional two units for each full year of service over five years and less than 20 years.

(c) An active member who is not eligible for a service pension and who, while a member of the police department of the city, becomes diseased or sustains an injury while in the service that permanently unfits the member for the performance of police duties is entitled to be paid monthly for life a pension equal to 32 units while so disabled.

Sec. 2. Minnesota Statutes 1993 Supplement, section 423B.10, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

Subdivision 1. ENTITLEMENT; BENEFIT AMOUNT. (a) The surviving spouse of a deceased service pensioner, disability pensioner, deferred pensioner, superannuation pensioner, or active member, who was the legally married spouse of the decedent, residing with the decedent, and who was married while or before the time the decedent was on the payroll of the police department in the case of a deceased active member, and who, if the deceased member was a service or deferred pensioner, was legally married to the member for a period of at least one year five years before ~~retirement from the police department the member's death~~, is entitled to a surviving spouse benefit. The surviving spouse benefit is equal to 21 units per month if the person is the surviving spouse of a deceased active member or disabilitant. The surviving spouse benefit is equal to six units per month, plus an additional one unit for each year of service to the credit of the decedent in excess of five years, to a maximum of 21 units per month, if the person is the surviving spouse of a deceased service pensioner, deferred pensioner, or superannuation pensioner. The surviving spouse benefit is payable for the life of the surviving spouse.

New language is indicated by underline, deletions by ~~strikeout~~.

(b) A surviving child of a deceased service pensioner, disability pensioner, deferred pensioner, superannuation pensioner, or active member, who was living while the decedent was an active member of the police department or was born within nine months after the decedent terminated active service in the police department, is entitled to a surviving child benefit. The surviving child benefit is equal to eight units per month if the person is the surviving child of a deceased active member or disabilitant. The surviving child benefit is equal to two units per month, plus an additional four-tenths of one unit per month for each year of service to the credit of the decedent in excess of five years, to a maximum of eight units, if the person is the surviving child of a deceased service pensioner, deferred pensioner, or superannuation pensioner. The surviving child benefit is payable until the person attains age 18, or, if in full-time attendance during the normal school year, in a school approved by the board of directors, until the person receives a bachelor's degree or attains the age of 22 years, whichever occurs first. In the event of the death of both parents leaving a surviving child or children entitled to a surviving child benefit as determined in this paragraph, the surviving child is, or the surviving children are, entitled to a surviving child benefit in such sums as determined by the board of directors to be necessary for the care and education of such surviving child or children, but not to exceed the family maximum benefit per month, to the children of any one family.

(c) The surviving spouse and surviving child benefits are subject to a family maximum benefit. The family maximum benefit is 40 units per month.

Sec. 3. LOCAL APPROVAL.

Sections 1 and 2 are effective on approval by the Minneapolis city council and compliance with Minnesota Statutes, section 645.021.
