CHAPTER 115—S.F.No. 1269

An act relating to veterans; providing for placement in the Capitol of a plaque commemorating the soldiers who participated in the Bataan Death March.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

Section 1. PLAQUE; BATAAN DEATH MARCH.

Subject to approval by the Capitol Area Architectural and Planning Board, a plaque may be placed in the Capitol rotunda or some other appropriate place in the Capitol area to honor the soldiers of the 194th Light Tank Battalion and other persons whose units, under General King's surrender orders of April 9, 1942, were submitted to Japanese control and forced to march up to ten days with no food or water in what has become known as the Bataan Death March. The commissioner of veterans affairs shall ensure placement of the plaque and may accept contributions from nonstate sources to pay for the plaque and its placement.

Presented to the governor May 14, 2001

Signed by the governor May 17, 2001, 10:41 a.m.
