1.15 party candidates for president and vice president. For each person nominated as an elector
1.16 or alternate elector, the chair shall indicate whether the person is nominated as an at-large 1.17 elector or is nominated to represent a congressional district. In the case of a nominee to 1.18 represent a congressional district, the district number must be noted by the chair. The 1.19 chair shall also certify that the party candidates for president and vice president have no

 2.4 for these offices statewide and within each congressional district, and declare the person or

2.6 (1) the statewide vote totals must be used to determine the person or persons elected 2.7 to serve as electors under the at-large designation; and

2.8 (2) the vote totals within each congressional district must be used to determine the 2.9 person elected to serve as an elector representing that district.

2.10 (b) When it appears that more than the number of persons to be elected as presidential 2.11 electors or alternates have the highest and an equal number of votes, the secretary of state, in 2.12 the presence of the board shall decide by lot which of the persons shall be declared elected.
 2.13 The governor shall transmit to each person declared elected a certificate of election, signed 2.14 by the governor, sealed with the state seal, and countersigned by the secretary of state.

 2.24 the state.

2.25 Each elector, as a condition of having been chosen under the name of the party 2.26 of a presidential and a vice presidential candidate who received the highest number of 2.27 votes in the elector's congressional district or, in the case of at-large electors, in the state,
 2.28 is obligated to vote for those candidates. The elector shall speak aloud or affirm in a 2.29 nonverbal manner the name of the candidate for president and for vice president for whom 2.30 the elector is voting and then confirm that vote by written public ballot.

2.31 If an elector fails to cast a ballot for the presidential or vice presidential candidate 2.32 of the party under whose name the elector was chosen, the elector's vote or abstention is 2.33 invalidated and an alternate presidential elector, chosen by lot from among the alternates,
 2.34 shall cast a ballot in the name of the elector for the presidential and vice presidential 2.35 candidate of the party under whose name the elector was chosen. The invalidation of an
