3.9 Sec. 3. [364.19] CERTIFICATE OF GOOD CONDUCT.

3.10 Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For purposes of this section, the following terms 3.11 have the meanings given in this subdivision.

3.12 (b) "Petitioner" means the person who files a petition for a certificate of good conduct.

3.13 (c) "Prosecuting attorney" means the attorney representing the jurisdiction where the 3.14 petitioner was convicted or adjudicated delinquent for the crime for which the petitioner 3.15 seeks a certificate of good conduct.

3.16 Subd. 2. Petition; filing fee. (a) A person who has been convicted or adjudicated 3.17 delinquent by a Minnesota state district court for a crime committed in this state may 3.18 petition a court for a certificate of good conduct as provided in this section. A petitioner 3.19 may seek a certificate for a single crime or multiple crimes. When filing the petition, the 3.20 petitioner shall pay a filing fee in the amount required under section 357.021, subdivision 3.21 2, clause (1).

3.22 (b) A person is not eligible for a certificate of good conduct and may not file a 3.23 petition under this section if the person has filed a petition for a certificate of good conduct 3.24 or expungement in the past two years.

3.25 Subd. 3. Contents of petition. (a) A petition for a certificate of good conduct must 3.26 be signed under oath by the petitioner and state the following:

3.27 (1) the name under which the petitioner was convicted or adjudicated and all other 3.28 aliases or names by which the petitioner has been known at any time;

3.29 (2) the petitioner's date of birth;

3.30 (3) all of the addresses at which the petitioner has resided at any time from the date 3.31 of the offense in connection with which a certificate is sought, to the date of the petition;

3.32 (4) a statement of the reasons why the petitioner is seeking a certificate and why it 3.33 should be granted;

3.34 (5) the date and terms of sentence or disposition and the name of the offense for which 3.35 it was imposed; a detailed description of the crime for which the certificate is sought; the 4.1 names of the judge and prosecuting attorney; the names of any individuals or businesses 4.2 who were victims; whether there is a current order for protection, restraining order, or other 4.3 no contact order prohibiting the petitioner from contacting the victims or whether there has 4.4 ever been a prior order for protection or restraining order prohibiting the petitioner from 4.5 contacting the victims; the court file number; and the date of conviction or adjudication;

4.6 (6) what steps the petitioner has taken since the time of the offense toward personal 4.7 rehabilitation, including treatment, work, or other personal history that demonstrates 4.8 rehabilitation;

4.9 (7) the petitioner's criminal conviction record indicating all convictions or 4.13 conviction or adjudication for which the certificate is sought;

4.14 (8) the petitioner's criminal charges record indicating all prior and pending criminal 4.15 charges against the petitioner in this state or another jurisdiction, including all criminal 4.16 charges that have been continued for dismissal or stayed for adjudication, or have been 4.17 the subject of pretrial diversion;

4.18 (9) all prior requests by the petitioner, whether for the present offense or for any 4.19 other offenses, in this state or any other state or federal court, for pardon, return of arrest 4.20 records, expungement or sealing of a criminal record, or certificate of good conduct or 4.21 similar certificate, whether granted or not, and all stays of adjudication or imposition 4.22 of sentence involving the petitioner; and 4.23 (10) any other information included on the form created by the district court for 4.24 certificate of good conduct petitions.

4.25 (b) If there is a current order for protection, restraining order, or other no contact
4.26 order prohibiting the petitioner from contacting the victims or there has ever been a prior 4.27 order for protection or restraining order prohibiting the petitioner from contacting the 4.28 victims, the petitioner shall attach a copy of the order to the petition.

4.29 (c) The petitioner shall include with the petition an executed criminal history consent 4.30 form, including fingerprints, and a money order or check payable to either the Bureau of 4.31 Criminal Apprehension or the court, at the discretion of the court, in an amount equal to 4.32 the actual cost to the bureau and the court of conducting the criminal history background 4.33 check. A court deciding to receive payment may, at its discretion, accept payment in 4.34 the form of a negotiable instrument other than a money order or check and shall pay 4.35 the superintendent of the Bureau of Criminal Apprehension directly to conduct the 4.36 background check. The superintendent shall conduct the background check by retrieving

5.1 criminal history data maintained in the criminal justice information system computers 5.2 and shall also conduct a search of the national criminal records repository, including 5.3 the criminal justice data communications network. The superintendent is authorized 5.4 to exchange fingerprints with the Federal Bureau of Investigation for purposes of the 5.5 criminal history check. After concluding the background check, the superintendent shall 5.6 provide the court with a copy of the petitioner's criminal record or a statement that the 5.7 petitioner is not the subject of a criminal history record at the bureau.

5.8 Subd. 4. Service of petition and proposed order. (a) The petitioner shall serve 5.9 the petition for a certificate of good conduct and a proposed certificate order on the 5.10 prosecutorial office with jurisdiction over the conviction or adjudication for which the 5.11 certificate is sought. Service must comply with rule 4.03 or 4.05 of the Minnesota Rules
5.12 of Civil Procedure.

5.13 (b) The prosecutorial office shall make a reasonable and good-faith effort to notify 5.14 any victims of the offense for which the certificate is sought who have requested notice
5.15 pursuant to section 611A.06. Service under this paragraph does not constitute a violation 5.16 of an existing order for protection, restraining order, or other no contact order.

5.17 (c) The prosecutorial office's notice to victims of the offense under this subdivision 5.18 must specifically inform the victims of the victims' right to be present and to submit an 5.19 oral or written statement at the hearing described in subdivision 5.

5.20 Subd. 5. Hearing. A hearing on the petition shall be held no sooner than 60 days
5.21 after service of the petition. If the petition is filed in the judicial district where the offender 5.22 was sentenced, the sentencing judge should preside over the hearing when possible. The 5.23 prosecuting attorney may be a party to the hearing and represent the interests of the state 5.24 at the petition proceedings. A victim of the offense for which a certificate is sought has 5.25 a right to submit an oral or written statement to the court at the time of the hearing 5.26 describing any conduct of the petitioner that has occurred after the petitioner's sentencing 5.27 that is relevant to the issue of whether the petitioner has been rehabilitated, including the 5.28 effect of this conduct upon the victim. The court shall receive testimony or evidence from 5.29 either party to the petition. When making a decision, the court shall consider the entire 5.30 record, including the victim's statement.

5.31 Subd. 6. Eligibility. (a) A petitioner is eligible for a certificate of good conduct 5.32 under this section if the following conditions are met:

5.33 (1) the petitioner has been successfully discharged from the sentence or disposition 5.34 imposed for the offense for which the certificate is sought and is not under correctional or 5.35 probationary supervision for any other offense;

6.1 (2) if applicable, a period of at least five years has elapsed since the petitioner was 6.2 required to register as a predatory offender under section 243.166;

6.3 (3) the petitioner has never been convicted of a violation of section 609.342, 6.4 609.343, 609.344, or 609.3453, or a similar offense from another state or the United States;

6.5 (4) the petitioner has not been convicted of a crime, other than a violation of chapter 6.6 169, for the following period immediately preceding the filing of the petition: (i) for a 6.7 person convicted of a violent crime, as defined in section 609.1095, or who was required 6.8 to register as a predatory offender, five years; or (ii) for all other persons, three years;

6.9 (5) the petitioner is not currently charged with a criminal offense;

6.10 (6) the petitioner demonstrates rehabilitation, which may be shown, among other 6.11 ways, by evidence of the petitioner's good character, employment, volunteer activities, or 6.12 participation in vocational, educational, treatment, or rehabilitation programs;

6.13 (7) the petitioner has paid or the court determines the petitioner is making a 6.14 good-faith and consistent effort to pay court-ordered fines, restitution, and other costs 6.15 related to the crime for which the certificate is sought;

6.16 (8) for petitions for certificates for crimes where an element of the offense involved 6.17 alcohol or a controlled substance, the petitioner is not abusing alcohol or using a controlled 6.18 substance;

6.19 (9) the issuance of the certificate is consistent with the public interest; and

6.20 (10) any other factor deemed relevant by the court, including, but not limited to, the 6.21 severity of the conduct that constituted the offense for which the certificate is sought.

6.22 (b) The waiting period described in paragraph (a), clause (4), does not include 6.23 any period of time that the petitioner is under correctional or probationary supervision 6.24 for an offense.

6.25 (c) As used in paragraph (a), clauses (3) and (4), "convicted" includes a stay of 6.26 adjudication, imposition, or execution of sentence.

6.27 Subd. 7. Issuance of certificate. The court shall issue a certificate of good conduct 6.28 to a petitioner if the petitioner establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that the 6.29 petitioner meets the eligibility requirements specified in subdivisions 2, paragraph (b); 6.30 and 6, paragraph (a), clauses (1) to (9), and any other factor required by the court under 6.31 subdivision 6, paragraph (a), clause (10).

6.32 Subd. 8. Record with Bureau of Criminal Apprehension. If a court grants 6.33 a certificate of good conduct under this section, the court shall notify the Bureau of 6.34 Criminal Apprehension of the court's ruling. The bureau shall record the certificate on 6.35 the petitioner's criminal record.

7.1 Subd. 9. Effect of certificate. (a) A certificate of good conduct issued under this 7.2 section creates a presumption of rehabilitation in favor of the person to whom it was issued 7.3 and relieves the person of any state-imposed collateral sanction, as defined in section 7.4 609B.050, relating to eligibility for housing, employment, or professional or occupational 7.5 licensing arising from a crime for which the certificate was issued. For background 7.6 studies under chapter 245C, the commissioner of human services may not disqualify 7.7 any individual solely for a crime for which the individual has received a certificate of 7.8 good conduct. A disqualified holder of a certificate still must request a set aside. The 7.9 commissioner may deny the request only if other factors exist that indicate that the risk of 7.10 harm posed by the person outweighs the presumption of rehabilitation under the certificate.

7.11 (b) A certificate of good conduct has no effect on collateral sanctions that are 7.12 unrelated to housing, employment, or licensing.

7.13 (c) Consistent with paragraph (a) and other applicable law, a housing or licensing 7.14 authority or employer may, but is not required to, consider a conviction or delinquency 7.15 adjudication that is the subject of a certificate of good conduct when making a housing, 7.16 licensing, or employment decision. No cause of action exists against a housing or 7.17 licensing authority or employer based on consideration of or a failure to consider a 7.18 certificate of good conduct when making a housing, licensing, or employment decision.
7.19 This paragraph does not relieve a person from any other legal duty in making a housing, 7.20 licensing, or employment decision not related to the conduct that is the subject of the 7.21 certificate of good conduct.

7.22 (d) Evidence relating to a conviction or delinquency adjudication for which a 7.23 certificate of good conduct has been issued is inadmissible in a civil action against a 7.24 housing or licensing authority or employer for negligence or other fault in making a 7.25 housing, licensing, or employment decision if the authority or employer relied on the 7.26 certificate when making the underlying decision.

7.27 (e) The existence of a certificate of good conduct is admissible as evidence of 7.28 reasonable care by a person who relied on it when making a housing, licensing, or hiring 7.29 decision related to the subject of the certificate.

7.30 Subd. 10. Revocation. A certificate of good conduct is revoked by operation of law 7.31 if the subject of the certificate is subsequently convicted or adjudicated delinquent for a 7.32 new crime. The district court may revoke a certificate of good conduct at any time based 7.33 on evidence that the petitioner has not been law abiding or that the petitioner intentionally 7.34 provided information in the petition that was false.

7.35 Subd. 11. Limited effect. A certificate of good conduct has only the effect given 7.36 in this section. A certificate does not act as a pardon or expungement. The certificate

8.1 does not relieve the person to whom it was issued of any collateral sanctions or legal 8.2 disabilities related to predatory offender registration, eligibility to possess firearms, or 8.3 driver's license sanctions. Any crime for which a certificate has been granted may still 8.4 be used in any criminal sentencing proceeding and to enhance the charging or sentence 8.5 for any crime as provided by law.

8.6 Subd. 12. Crime for misuse. Unless a greater penalty is specified elsewhere in 8.7 statute, a person who knowingly uses or attempts to use a revoked certificate of good 8.8 conduct or who fraudulently alters or forges a certificate of good conduct is guilty of a 8.9 gross misdemeanor.

8.10 Sec. 4. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 609A.03, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

8.11 Subdivision 1. Petition; filing fee. (a) An individual who is the subject of a criminal 8.12 record who is seeking the expungement of the record shall file a petition under this section 8.13 and pay a filing fee in the amount required under section 357.021, subdivision 2, clause
8.14 (1). The filing fee may be waived in cases of indigency and shall be waived in the cases 8.15 described in section 609A.02, subdivision 3.

8.16 (b) A person is not eligible for an expungement and may not file a petition under 8.17 this chapter if the person has filed a petition for an expungement or a certificate of good 8.18 conduct under section 364.19 in the past two years.

8.19 Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 609A.03, subdivision 2, is amended to read:

8.20 Subd. 2. Contents of petition. (a) A petition for expungement shall be signed under 8.21 oath by the petitioner and shall state the following:

8.22 (1) the petitioner's full name and all other legal names or aliases by which the 8.23 petitioner has been known at any time;

8.24 (2) the petitioner's date of birth;

8.25 (3) all of the petitioner's addresses from the date of the offense or alleged offense in 8.26 connection with which an expungement order is sought, to the date of the petition;

8.27 (4) why expungement is sought, if it is for employment or licensure purposes, the 8.28 statutory or other legal authority under which it is sought, and why it should be granted;

8.29 (5) the details of the offense or arrest for which expungement is sought, including 8.30 the date and jurisdiction of the occurrence, either the names of any victims or that there 8.31 were no identifiable victims, whether there is a current order for protection, restraining 8.32 order, or other no contact order prohibiting the petitioner from contacting the victims or 8.33 whether there has ever been a prior order for protection or restraining order prohibiting the 9.1 petitioner from contacting the victims, the court file number, and the date of conviction 9.2 or of dismissal;

9.3 (6) in the case of a conviction, what steps the petitioner has taken since the time of 9.4 the offense toward personal rehabilitation, including treatment, work, or other personal 9.5 history that demonstrates rehabilitation;

9.6 (7) petitioner's criminal conviction record indicating all convictions for 9.7 misdemeanors, gross misdemeanors, or felonies in this state, and for all comparable 9.8 convictions in any other state, federal court, or foreign country, whether the convictions 9.9 occurred before or after the arrest or conviction for which expungement is sought;

9.10 (8) petitioner's criminal charges record indicating all prior and pending criminal 9.11 charges against the petitioner in this state or another jurisdiction, including all criminal 9.12 charges that have been continued for dismissal or stayed for adjudication, or have been the 9.13 subject of pretrial diversion; and

9.14 (9) all prior requests by the petitioner, whether for the present offense or for any 9.15 other offenses, in this state or any other state or federal court, for pardon, return of arrest 9.16 records, a certificate of good conduct or similar certificate, or expungement or sealing of 9.17 a criminal record, whether granted or not, and all stays of adjudication or imposition of 9.18 sentence involving the petitioner.

9.19 (b) If there is a current order for protection, restraining order, or other no contact
9.20 order prohibiting the petitioner from contacting the victims or there has ever been a prior 9.21 order for protection or restraining order prohibiting the petitioner from contacting the 9.22 victims, the petitioner shall attach a copy of the order to the petition.

9.23 Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2012, section 611A.06, subdivision 1a, is amended to read:

9.24 Subd. 1a. Notice of expungement or certificate of good conduct required. The 9.25 prosecuting authority with jurisdiction over an offense for which expungement or a 9.26 certificate of good conduct under section 364.19 is being sought shall make a good faith 9.27 effort to notify a victim that the expungement or a certificate is being sought if: (1) the 9.28 victim has mailed to the prosecuting authority with jurisdiction over an offense for which 9.29 expungement or a certificate is being sought a written request for this notice, or (2) the 9.30 victim has indicated on a request for notice of ~~expungement~~ release submitted under 9.31 subdivision 1 a desire to be notified in the event the offender seeks an expungement or a 9.32 certificate for the offense.

9.33 A copy of any written request for a notice of expungement or a certificate request 9.34 received by the commissioner of corrections or other custodial authority shall be 9.35 forwarded to the prosecutorial authority with jurisdiction over the offense to which the 10.1 notice relates. The prosecutorial authority complies with this section upon mailing a copy 10.2 of an expungement or a certificate petition relating to the notice to the address which the 10.3 victim has most recently provided in writing.

10.4 Sec. 7. APPROPRIATIONS.
