4.22 in another state or jurisdiction;

4.23            (4) is of good moral character and has no pending complaints or active disciplinary 4.24 or corrective actions in any jurisdiction; and

4.25            (5) passes the Professional Responsibility Examination administered by the board 4.26 and pays the fee associated with sitting for the examination.

4.27            (b) If by the laws of any state or the rulings or decisions of the appropriate officers or 4.28 boards thereof, any burden, obligation, requirement, disqualification, or disability is put 4.29 upon licensed psychologists licensed and in good standing in this state, affecting the right 4.30 of these licensed psychologists to be registered or licensed in that state, then the same or 4.31 like burden, obligation, requirement, disqualification, or disability may be put upon the 4.32 licensure in this state of licensed psychologists licensed in that state.

4.33            Sec. 5. Minnesota Statutes 2008, section 148.916, subdivision 1, is amended to read:

5.1           Subdivision 1. Generally. If a nonresident of the state of Minnesota, who is not
5.2 seeking licensure in this state, and who has been issued a license, certificate, or registration 5.3 by another jurisdiction to practice psychology at the doctoral level, wishes to practice in 5.4 Minnesota for more than seven calendar days, the person shall apply to the board for guest 5.5 licensure, provided that the psychologist's practice in Minnesota is limited to no more than 5.6 ~~30 days~~ nine consecutive months per calendar year. Application under this section shall be 5.7 made no less than 30 days prior to the expected date of practice in Minnesota and shall be 5.8 subject to approval by the board or its designee. The board shall charge a nonrefundable
5.9 fee for guest licensure. The board shall adopt rules to implement this section.

5.10           Sec. 6. Minnesota Statutes 2008, section 148.916, is amended by adding a subdivision 5.11 to read:

5.12           Subd. 1a. Applicants for licensure. (a) An applicant who is seeking licensure in 5.13 this state, and who, at the time of application, is licensed, certified, or registered to practice
5.14 psychology in another jurisdiction at the doctoral level may apply to the board for guest
5.15 licensure in order to begin practicing psychology in this state while their application
5.16 is being processed if the applicant is of good moral character and has no complaints,
5.17 corrective, or disciplinary action pending in any jurisdiction. Application under this 5.18 section shall be made no less than 30 days prior to the expected date of practice in this 5.19 state, and must be made concurrently or after submission of an application for licensure
5.20 as a licensed psychologist. Applications under this section are subject to approval by 5.21 the board or its designee.

5.22           (b) The board shall charge a nonrefundable fee for guest licensure under this 5.23 subdivision.

5.24           (c) A guest license issued under this subdivision shall be valid for one year from the 5.25 date of issuance, or until the board has either issued a license or has denied the applicant's
5.26 application for licensure, whichever is earlier. Guest licenses issued under this section may 5.27 be renewed annually until the board has denied the applicant's application for licensure.
