Cross-examination shall be conducted in a sequence determined by the administrative law judge. The record of the hearing shall be closed at a date to be set by the administrative law judge. Such date will correspond to a specific number of calendar days beyond the close of the last hearing date, computed pursuant to part 1405.0700, subpart 1. 1405.1500 SEQUENCE OF PROCEEDINGS.

Subpart 1. Recess. All hearings shall recess at 11:00 p.m. unless the administrative law judge determines that the public interest will best be served in any given hearing by continuing the hearing beyond 11:00 p.m. The administrative law judge may, in the judge's discretion, order a time and place for a continuance of that hearing.

Subp. 2. Two-stage hearing. The hearing may be scheduled in two stages. The first stage shall be for the purpose of introducing into evidence all of the prefiled direct testimony of the parties, and the cross-examination of each witness by all other parties. The subsequent stage shall be for the purpose of allowing all other interested persons to present their direct testimony and to question witnesses that offered testimony during the first stage of the hearing process.

Nothing contained herein shall be interpreted so as to prevent the public from being present during the first stage of the proceedings or to question witnesses at an appropriate time during the first stage of the proceedings, should time allow. The administrative law judge may give priority to those members of the public desiring to ask questions which would enable them to better prepare for cross-examination during subsequent stages. It is the intended purpose of the two-stage process to establish specific hearing dates for the primary purpose of public participation in order to avoid inconveniencing the general public by requiring them to wait until late at each hearing before having opportunity to offer direct testimony and ask questions. However, at the discretion of the administrative law judge, the applicant and other parties may present a brief summary of the prefiled direct testimony at the beginning of each session.

Subp. 3. Additional hearing dates. Nothing contained herein shall be interpreted so as to prevent the administrative law judge from establishing additional hearing dates on motion or at the judge's discretion.

Subp. 3. Admissible evidence. The administrative law judge may admit all evidence which possesses probative value, including hearsay, if it is the type of evidence on which prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their serious affairs. The administrative law judge shall give effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law. Evidence which is incompetent, irrelevant, immaterial, or unduly repetitious may be excluded.

Subp. 4. Submission of evidence. Evidence must be offered to be considered. All evidence to be considered in the case, including all records and documents (except tax returns and tax reports) in the possession of the board or a true and accurate photocopy thereof, shall be offered and made a part of the record in the case. No other factual information or evidence (except tax returns and tax reports) shall be considered in the determination of the case.

Subp. 5. Documentary evidence. Documentary evidence in the form of copies or excerpts may be received or incorporated by reference in the discretion of the administrative law judge.

Subp. 6. Administrative notice of facts. The administrative law judge may take notice of judicially cognizable facts but shall do so on the record and with the opportunity for any person to rebut.

Subp. 7. Burden of proof. Any route or site proposer must prove the facts at issue by a preponderance of the evidence, unless the substantive law provides a different burden.

Subp. 2. Contents. The record in a hearing shall contain: all pleadings, motions, and orders; evidence received or considered; offers of proof, objections, and rulings thereon; the administrative law judge's findings of fact, conclusions, and recommendations; all memoranda or data submitted by any person and considered by the administrative law judge in connection with the case; and the transcript of each hearing, if any.

Subp. 3. Recorder or reporter. Unless the chief administrative law judge determines that the use of a court reporter is more appropriate, an audiomagnetic recording device shall be used to keep a record at any hearing which takes place under parts 1405.0200 to 1405.2800.

The audiomagnetic recordings shall be retained by the office for five years from the date that the record is returned to the agency. Unless an agency requests a longer retention period for a specific case, the recordings may be erased or otherwise destroyed at the end of the five-year period.

1405.1900 PREFILED TESTIMONY.

Subpart 1. Preparing and filing. All direct testimony to be offered by any party proposing a route or site shall be prepared in advance in question and answer form and shall be filed 14 days prior to the first hearing date in the following manner:

A. the original and one copy with the administrative law judge;

B. one copy with the board;

C. one copy with each party; and

D. one copy at a place in each county where a hearing is to be held pursuant to statute at a location designated by the board for public review.

1405.2000 AVAILABILITY OF WITNESSES.

All witnesses who offer prefiled direct testimony in compliance with part 1405.1900 shall be available for questioning by interested persons at each hearing date and place. In the event a witness cannot be available throughout the hearing process, the party on whose behalf the witness testified shall request an exemption from this rule of the administrative law judge prior to the publication of the notice of hearing. The request shall state the reasons why the witness cannot be present at each hearing, and the date, or dates, on which the witness can be available. For good cause shown, the administrative law judge shall grant the exemption and shall immediately notify the board. The board shall then include in the notice of hearing a statement indicating the name of the witness, the nature of the testimony, and the dates and places where the witness will be available for questioning by all parties and persons. The party requesting the exemption shall do so in writing and shall serve a copy of the request on all other parties. Any party may object to the exemption by filing a written objection with the administrative law judge and serving a copy on all parties within five working days of the date of the request. In the event an objection is made, the administrative law judge shall immediately notify all parties of the date, time, and place to hear arguments on the request, and subsequent to which shall issue an order granting or denying the request for exemption. The administrative law judge may also grant exemptions, at any time, upon a showing of need due to unforeseeable circumstances. The same notice and objection procedure may be followed if circumstances permit, or the administrative law judge may utilize any other procedure on deeming it more appropriate. A subsequent notice of hearing shall issue reflecting any such exemption granted by the administrative law judge.

In the event a witness has prefiled testimony and fails to appear for questioning, such prefiled testimony shall be given such weight as the administrative law judge deems appropriate.
