2200.8100 KNOCKDOWNS.

Subpart 1. Clear knockdowns. When clearly knocked down a boxer shall be required to take a mandatory count of eight whether or not the boxer has regained his or her feet before the count of eight has been reached. Should a boxer slip or fall down or be pushed down, the boxer shall be ordered to his or her feet immediately. Failure to rise may subject a boxer to disqualification.

Subp. 2. Mandatory eight count. While a mandatory eight count is in progress, the boxer scoring the knockdown must retire to the farthest neutral corner indicated by the referee and remain there until the eight count is completed. Should the boxer fail to do so, both the referee and timekeeper shall stop counting until the boxer returns to the corner.

Subp. 3. Counting. When a contestant is down, the timekeeper shall immediately begin counting while the referee sends the boxer scoring the knockdown to the farthest neutral corner. The referee shall then return to the fallen boxer and pick up the count from the timekeeper and count in unison. The count shall not continue while the opponent does not occupy the farthest neutral corner.

Subp. 4. Deemed knockdowns. A contestant shall be deemed down when any part of the contestant's body other than the feet is on the ring floor, the contestant is hanging helplessly over the ropes, or is rising from a down position, provided that a boxer hanging over the ropes is not officially down until so announced by the referee.

Subp. 5. Standing eight count rule. The standing eight count rule shall be in effect unless both contestants shall agree before the start of each match or contest that it shall be waived. Waiver of this requirement must be verified in advance with the board for main event matches or contests.

Subp. 6. Knockdown rule. If a three-minute round expires, the referee shall continue to count except in the final round, in which the bell will end the fight. No boxer shall be saved by the bell between rounds.

Statutory Authority: MS s 341.05; 341.10

History: 13 SR 2932; 17 SR 1279

2200.8200 KNOCKOUTS.

Subpart 1. Ten count. If the contestant fails to rise before the count of ten, the referee shall declare that contestant the loser by knockout. Should a contestant who is down arise before the count of ten is reached and again go down without being struck, the referee shall resume the count where the referee left off. When a boxer is knocked out, the referee should count the full ten, thus avoiding the recording of a technical knockout which would be confusing and misleading to commissions in the other states. When knocked out, a boxer shall not be touched or moved except by the direction of the ring physician. Should a contestant leave the ring during the one minute period between rounds and fail to be in the ring when the gong rings to resume boxing, the referee shall count the contestant out the same as if the contestant were down. If a contestant who has been knocked or fallen out of the ring during a contest fails to return immediately, the referee may count the contestant out as if the contestant were down.

Subp. 2. Technical knockouts. If the referee stops a contest because it is one-sided, or because of a badly cut eye, or should a contestant finish any one round of a contest and fail for any one of numerous reasons, such as cuts, injuries, or admission of overwhelming superiority on the part of the opponent, to answer the bell for the succeeding round, the proper termination of the bout shall be a technical knockout. Should a contestant be knocked down three times in the same round, the contest shall be terminated and ruled a TKO, unless this rule is waived by the board for a specific contest.

Statutory Authority: MS s 341.05 subd 1

History: 17 SR 1279

2200.8300 FOULS.

Subpart 1. Minor fouls. Contestants shall break clean and must not strike a blow while breaking from clinches. Contestants must not hold and hit. Butting with the head or shoulders, wrestling or clinching, or illegal use of elbows shall not be allowed. There shall be no unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of the contestants. This shall include the use of abusive or insulting language.

A penalty of one point may be imposed by the referee for the following deliberate conduct: maintaining a clinch; holding an opponent with one hand and hitting with the free hand; butting with the head, or illegal use of the shoulders and elbows; hitting on the breakaway after being ordered to break clean by the referee; hitting with the inside or heel of the hand and wrist; wrestling or roughing at the ropes; use of the rabbit and backhand punches; striking at that part of the body over the kidneys, except when an opponent deliberately turns his or her back to avoid being hit in the stomach over the liver and over the heart; use of abusive or profane language; refusal to obey warnings of the referee or any physical actions which might injure a contestant by illegal tactics; biting or kicking.

Subp. 2. Major fouls and disqualifications. A boxer may be disqualified by the referee if: the boxer deliberately knees an opponent in the groin, deliberately hits an opponent who is down or who is getting up or continuously and deliberately strikes an opponent with low blows, or for a fourth minor foul after three warnings.

Subp. 3. Low blows. A bout shall not be terminated by a low blow. A boxer may be penalized three points for low punching. The referee shall count out boxers who fall to the floor claiming fouls as a result of the low blow. A boxer may be disqualified for continuously and deliberately striking an opponent with low blows.

Subp. 4. Deliberate fouls. If a bout is terminated by the referee because of a deliberate foul, the offending contestant shall receive only such percentage of compensation or purse as the board shall designate. The remainder of such purse shall be deemed a fine and be forfeited to the Board of Boxing.

Subp. 5. Intentional butt. If a fighter's natural style is to bob and weave with much head movement, a butt will probably be unintentional; if later in the fight, a fighter greatly increases head movement, the fighter may be trying to butt the opponent. If it cannot be decided whether the butt is intentional, it must be ruled unintentional. The butt rule must be dealt with in the same way as rules for other fouls.

The penalty for intentional butting is a one point deduction, unless the butting is deliberate and repeated, in which case the fighter is disqualified.

If a cut from an intentional butt stops a fight within three rounds, and the offender is not disqualified, the result of the fight is a technical draw.

If a cut from an intentional butt stops a fight or becomes enlarged later and stops the fight after three rounds, the scores must be tallied and if the cut fighter is ahead, that fighter wins by decision. If the cut fighter is behind, the result is a technical draw. In no event shall a fighter cut from an intentional butt lose.

If a fighter who intentionally butts cuts himself or herself and the fight is then or subsequently stopped because of the cut, the result is a technical draw if within three rounds. If later than three rounds, the score cards must be tallied, and the other fighter must be awarded the fight if the other fighter is ahead. If not, the result is a technical draw.

Subp. 6. Unintentional butt. If an unintentional butt causes a cut to either fighter and the cut stops the fight within three rounds, the fight must be declared a technical draw. If the cut stops the fight after three rounds, the score must be tallied and the fight awarded by decision to the fighter who is ahead on points.
