Other nomenclature or terminology is according to the meanings given in the laws of this state relating to insurance or according to insurance industry usage, if not defined in the laws of this state.

Subp. 2. Acquisition filing statement. "Acquisition filing statement" means the statement that must be filed prior to the acquisition of control or an attempt to acquire control, as specified in section 2 of the act.

Subp. 3. Act. "The act" means Laws of Minnesota 1971, chapter 288.

Subp. 4. Company. "Company" means any person which is not an individual.

Subp. 8. Ultimate holding company. "Ultimate holding company" means that company within an insurance holding company system that is not controlled by any other company; provided, however, that if the commissioner so determines, the ultimate holding company in a particular insurance holding company system shall be the company that the commissioner determines to be the affiliated person concerning which the disclosures required hereunder would be most meaningful and would best serve to effectuate the purposes of the act.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60D.07

2720.0200 AUTHORITY.

These rules are promulgated pursuant to the authority granted by Laws of Minnesota 1971, chapter 288, section 7.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60D.07

2720.0300 PURPOSE.

The purposes of these rules are to set forth procedural requirements that the commissioner deems necessary to carry out the provisions of the act. The information called for by these rules is hereby declared to be necessary and appropriate, in the public interest, and for the protection of policyholders and shareholders of insurance companies in this state.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60D.07

2720.0400 APPROVAL OF ACQUISITION OF CONTROL.

The commissioner may order a public hearing prior to approval of an acquisition of control, but such hearing is not mandatory prior to approval.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60D.07

2720.0500 EXTRAORDINARY DIVIDENDS AND OTHER DISTRIBUTIONS.

Requests for approval of extraordinary dividends or any other extraordinary distribution to shareholders shall include the following:

B. a statement as to whether the dividend is to be in cash or other property and, if in property, a description thereof, its cost, and its fair market value, together with an explanation of the basis for valuation;

C. the amounts and dates of all dividends (including regular dividends) paid within the period of 12 consecutive, months ending on the date fixed for payment of the proposed dividend for which approval is sought and commencing on the day after the same day of the same month in the last preceding year;

D. a balance sheet and statement of income for the period intervening from the last annual statement filed with the commissioner and the end of the month preceding the month in which the request for dividend approval is submitted;

E. a brief statement as to the effect of the proposed dividend upon the insurer's surplus and the reasonableness of surplus in relation to the insurer's outstanding liabilities and the adequacy of surplus relative to the insurer's financial needs.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60D.07

2720.0600 ADEQUACY OF SURPLUS.

The factors set forth in the act, section 4, subdivision 2, are not intended to be an exhaustive list. In determining the adequacy and reasonableness of an insurer's surplus no single factor shall be controlling. The commissioner, instead, will consider the net effect of all of these factors plus other factors bearing on the financial condition of the insurer. In comparing the surplus maintained by other insurers, the commissioner will consider the extent to which each of these factors varies from company to company, and in determining the quality and liquidity of investments in subsidiaries the commissioner will consider the individual subsidiary and may discount or disallow its valuation to the extent that the individual investments so warrant.

Subp. 2. Extension of time. If it is impractical to furnish any required information, document, or report at the time it is required to be filed, there may be filed with the commissioner as a separate document an application identifying the information, document, or report in question; stating why the filing thereof at the time required is impractical; and requesting an extension of time for filing the information, document, or report to a specified date. An amendment to the statement shall be filed within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of the ultimate holding company. Such amendment shall make current all information in the statement.

Subp. 3. Alternative and consolidated registrations. Alternatives and consolidated registrations:

A. Any authorized insurer may file a registration statement on behalf of any affiliated insurer or insurers required to register under the act, section 3. A registration statement may include information regarding any insurer in the insurance holding company system even if such insurer is not authorized to do business in this state. In lieu of filing a registration statement as prescribed in form B, part 2720.9920, the authorized insurer may file a copy of the registration statement or similar report that it is required to file in its state of domicile; provided the statement or report contains substantially similar information required to be furnished by part 2720.9920 and the filing insurer is the principal insurance company in the insurance holding company system.

B. The question of whether the filing insurer is the principal insurance company in the insurance holding company system is a question of fact and an insurer filing a registration statement or report in lieu of form B, part 2720.9920, on behalf of an affiliated insurer shall set forth a simple statement of facts that will substantiate the filing insurer's claim that it, in fact, is the principal insurer in the insurance holding company system.

C. With the prior approval of the commissioner, an unauthorized insurer may follow any of the procedures that could be done by an authorized insurer under item A.

D. Any insurer may take advantage of the provisions of the act, section 3, subdivision 6 or 7, without obtaining the prior approval of the commissioner. The commissioner, however, reserves the right to require individual filings if he deems such filings necessary in the interest of clarity, ease of administration, or the public good.

E. The state of entry of an alien insurer shall be deemed to be its domiciliary state for the purposes of section 3 of the act.

The provisions of the act, section 3, shall not apply in those situations described therein and in this part.

A. The registration and amendments required in the act, section 3, shall not be required for any insurance company domiciled in the state of Minnesota if and so long as that company and all insurance company affiliates in its insurance holding company system do not sell any insurance or otherwise provide insurance protection to any person outside of the insurance holding company system, and it does not hold itself out as willing or available to sell insurance or otherwise provide insurance protection to members of the general public.

B. The registration and amendments required in the act, section 3, shall not be required for any insurance company not domiciled in the state of Minnesota that is otherwise required to file a registration statement, if the insurance company is included in a filing as an affiliate of another insurance company that is exempt from the requirements of the act, section 3, by virtue of the fact that it must file a registration statement in another state under statutes and regulations which are substantially similar to the act and these rules. However, the commissioner may request a copy of the registration statement filed in another state.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60D.07

2720.1900 DISCLAIMERS AND TERMINATION OF REGISTRATION.
