2795.0100 DEFINITIONS.

Subpart 1. Scope. As used in this chapter, the terms defined in this part shall have the meanings given them.

Subp. 2. Agent. "Agent" means an insurance agent licensed under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 60K.

Subp. 3. Brokerage business. "Brokerage business" means business transacted as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 60K.08.

Subp. 4. Commissioner. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Commerce.

Subp. 5. Licensee. "Licensee" means an individual or an agency licensed under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 60K.

Subp. 6. Placing agent. "Placing agent" means a licensed and appointed agent of an insurer through whom an application for insurance is submitted to the insurer on behalf of a soliciting agent who was not appointed by that insurer at the time the application was solicited.

Subp. 7. Soliciting agent. "Soliciting agent" means an agent who sells or attempts to sell insurance to a person.

Subp. 8. Supervising agent. "Supervising agent" means an agent or general agent who contracts with, employs or engages one or more other agents to solicit applications for insurance, or to otherwise act as insurance agents on the supervising agent's behalf. In the case of an agency required to be licensed under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 60K, the supervising agents, if not specifically designated, shall be the licensed officers of the corporate agency, or the partners of a partnership agency.

2795.0200 AUTHORITY AND SCOPE.

This chapter is promulgated pursuant to the authority of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 60K, and is intended to govern the interest of all licensed insurance agents in this state.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60A.17

History: 9 SR 175

2795.0300 LOANS FROM CLIENTS.

Subpart 1. Requirements. No agent shall solicit or accept a loan from an individual with whom the agent came into contact in the course of the agent's business, unless the loan agreement or note is in writing, the lender is provided with a fully executed copy of the agreement or note at the time the loan is made, and the terms of the loan are lawful.

Subp. 2. Unfair, dishonest, and unconscionable loans. Notwithstanding subpart 1, no agent shall solicit or accept a loan under dishonest, unfair, or unconscionable circumstances from an individual with whom the agent came into contact in the course of the agent's business. In determining whether a particular loan was solicited or accepted under dishonest, unfair, or unconscionable circumstances, the commissioner must consider the following:

- A. the prior relationship between the agent and the lender;
- B. the lender's age, mental state, and capacity;
- C. the terms of the loan, including the amount, duration, and rate of interest, and the agent's compliance with those terms;
- D. provisions for collateral or security;
- E. the lender's income and net worth;
- F. the involvement or lack of involvement of a family member of the lender, or some other neutral third party, in the negotiation of the loan;
- G. any prior history of unfair treatment of the lender which the agent knew or should have known about;
- H. indications of high pressure solicitation, coercion, intimidation, or undue influence by the agent in securing the loan;
- I. the agent's representations regarding the need for or intended use of the loan; and
- J. any other factors which reflect on whether the loan was dishonest, unfair, or unconscionable.

Subp. 3. Records required of agent. An agent who accepts or has an outstanding loan from an individual with whom the agent came into contact in the course of the agent's business, must immediately compile and maintain for at least six years after the loan has been fully repaid, a list of the individuals from whom the agent has borrowed money, together with all documentation relating to the loans and the circumstances under which each was made.

History: 9 SR 175

2795.0800 DUTIES OF SUPERVISING AGENTS.

Subpart 1. Agents' behavior and licensing. A supervising agent shall have the duty to ensure that contracted, employed, or engaged agents:

- A. are properly licensed in the lines of insurance in which they do business;
- B. promptly remit all premiums and return premiums, refunds, claim settlements, or other money or things of value in the agents' possession obtained as a result of an insurance transaction and due and payable to any person, firm, or insurer; and
- C. comply with laws and rules of the Department of Commerce.

Subp. 2. Establish written procedures. A supervising agent must establish, maintain, and enforce written procedures which will ensure proper supervision of the activities of each agent and compliance with insurance laws and rules.

Subp. 3. Account examination. Every supervising agent must conduct an examination for each agent of those client accounts which are within the scope of the supervisor's responsibility. The examinations must be conducted as often as is necessary for the supervising agent to discharge supervisory responsibilities.

2795.1300 RECEIPT OF CLIENT FUNDS.

An agent who receives funds from a client in connection with an insurance transaction receives and holds those funds in a fiduciary capacity.

An agent holding funds of a client must, each month, provide to the client an itemized statement showing the amount of money held.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60A.17

History: 9 SR 175

2795.1400 MANDATORY FINANCIAL RECORDS.

Subpart 1. Type of records. Every agent and agency must keep a record of all funds received for or from clients, including cash, notes, savings certificates, uncashed or uncollected checks, or other similar instruments. Insurers represented by exclusive agents may compile and maintain the financial records required by this part on their agents' behalf. The records must set forth the date funds were received, from whom received, the amount received, the date of deposit of the funds into the business account of the agent or agency, and the monthly balance of the account in which the funds are deposited. Each agent and agency must maintain a cash receipts journal and a cash disbursements journal, or similar records, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

Subp. 2. Separate records. Each agent and agency must keep a separate record for each client or transaction, accounting for all funds which have been deposited in the agent's business account. These records must set forth the information sufficient to identify the transaction and the parties thereto. At a minimum, each record must set forth:

- A. the date funds are deposited;
- B. the amount deposited;
- C. the date of each related disbursement;
- D. the check number of each related disbursement;
- E. the amount of each related disbursement; and
- F. a description of each disbursement.

Subp. 3. Examination of records. All records must be maintained for at least six years, and must be available for examination by the commissioner or a designee in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 60A.031.

Statutory Authority: MS s 60A.17

History: 9 SR 175

2795.1500 MANDATORY COMPLAINT RECORDS.

Every agent and agency must compile and maintain a separate complaint file for each agent against whom a complaint, grievance, or allegation is made. The file must contain all written notes, reports, correspondence, or other documents made or received by an agent or agency, relating to customer grievances or allegations that an agent, agency, or person associated with an agent or agency has engaged in any unfair, false, misleading, dishonest, fraudulent, untrustworthy, coercive, or financially irresponsible practice, or has violated any insurance law or rule. The agent or agency must maintain the records for at least six years after the date of the complaint.
