3315.0202 BASIS OF WAGES, MODE OF PAYMENT.

Wages may be based on production; a percentage of profits; time, such as hourly, daily, weekly, monthly, or annually; or any other measure of performance and may be paid in cash or any medium of exchange other than cash.

Statutory Authority: MS s 268.021

History: 13 SR 1057

3315.0203 WAGES PAYABLE, CORPORATE OFFICERS.

If a corporation does not have a regularly scheduled pay date for its officers or have reference to one in the corporate minutes, the wages of its corporate officers shall be considered due when paid. If the corporate minutes specify an amount to be paid each period, such as a week, month, or year, without specifying an exact pay date, the wages for a period shall be considered due no later than the end of the period.

3315.0210 TYPES OF WAGES, GENERALLY.

Wages include the monetary value of:

A. Dwelling unit rent, utilities, meals, exchange of services, or other goods or services that are to compensate for an employee's services.

B. Vacation pay or payment in lieu of vacation.

C. Termination, severance, or dismissal payment or payment in lieu of notice whether notice is required or not.

D. That portion of the payment which compensates for services rendered received in the form of an award or allowance in accordance with a contractual agreement or settlement reached through any arbitrator, regulatory agency, or court.

E. Any payments made by a subchapter "S" corporation to or on behalf of officers and shareholders which is reasonable compensation for services performed for the corporation and which the department shall treat as wages for tax purposes, except as provided in subitems (1) to (5). An "S" corporation is a corporation that is organized under the rules of subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

"Wages" does not include:

(1) a distribution of earnings and profits which is in excess of any payment treated as wages as defined in this item;

(2) a loan for business purposes to an officer or shareholder evidenced by a promissory note signed by an officer before the payment of the loan proceeds and recorded on the books and records of the corporation as a loan to an officer or shareholder;

(3) a repayment of a loan or payment of interest on a loan made by an officer to the corporation and recorded on the books and records of the corporation as a liability of the corporation;

(4) a reimbursement of reasonable corporation expenses incurred by an officer and documented by a written expense voucher and recorded on the books and records of the corporation as corporate expenses; and

(5) a reasonable lease or rental payment to an officer who owns property which is leased or rented to the corporation.

F. The value of any consideration, award, bonus, or prize which accrues before separation from employment.

G. Payments for accrued sick leave when not related to a specific absence due to sickness or injury, regardless of whether or not the employer maintains a sick pay plan as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 25.

H. Idle time or standby compensation paid by an employer for a guaranteed minimum number of hours of employment per week when employees are to be available for a specific period of time and payment is made to them for idle time even if they do not render services for the minimum number of hours.

I. Advances or draws against future earnings, when paid, unless the payments are designated as a loan or return of capital on the books of the employer at the time of payment.

J. Payments to corporate shareholders or officers, who perform services for the corporation for wages below that which would approximate reasonable compensation for services, although designated as loans, unless the loan is evidenced by a note or other legal document, the loan is for business purposes, repayments are made pursuant to a payoff schedule, and the agreement provides for the payment of reasonable interest.

K. Payments made directly or indirectly to an individual to perform or assist in performing the work of any employee of the employer provided that the employer had actual or constructive knowledge that the work was being performed.

L. Payments made for services as a caretaker. Unless there is a contract or other proof to the contrary, remuneration shall be considered as being equally received by a married couple where the employer makes payment to only one spouse, or by all tenants of a household who perform services where two or more individuals share the same dwelling and the employer makes payment to only one individual.

M. Payments made for services by a migrant family. Where services are performed by a married couple or a family and an employer makes payment to only one individual each worker shall be considered as having received an equal share of the remuneration unless there is a contract or other proof to the contrary.

N. An employer's vehicle furnished to an employee to the extent the vehicle is used for personal purposes. If the employee has use of the vehicle without charge, the amount deemed to be wages shall be $200 per month or, if for less than a calendar month, $7 for each day that the employee has use of the vehicle for personal purposes. If the employee reimburses the employer for the use of the vehicle, the amount deemed to be wages shall be determined as follows:

(1) if the employee reimburses the employer at an established rate of less than 20 cents per mile for each mile of personal use, the amount deemed to be wages shall be the difference, if any, between the amount reimbursed and 20 cents per mile; or

(2) if the employee reimburses the employer at an established daily, weekly, or monthly rate, the amount deemed to be wages shall be the difference, if any, between the amount reimbursed and $200 per month or, if for less than a month, $7 for each day that the employee has use of the vehicle for personal purposes.

O. Payments made for an unexpired portion of an employment contract.

3315.0211 TIPS AND GRATUITIES AS WAGES.

Subpart 1. Accounted for to the employer. Tips and gratuities are accounted for to the employer in various manners or forms including when they are:

- A. added to the customer's bill by the employer;
- B. added to the bill by a customer using credit for the purchase;
- C. disbursed by the employer from a tip pool; or
- D. reported to the employer in compliance with the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Subp. 2. Paid to an employee by a customer. Tips and gratuities are considered paid to an employee by a customer if they are:

- A. received directly from the customer;
- B. distributed from a tip pool, whether controlled by the employer or employees; or

C. received as part of a plan or system under which the person initially receiving them, whether directly from the customer or from a tip pool, distributes a portion of the tips to other employees.

Under items A to C the tips are considered as being paid by the customer to the person ultimately receiving them.

3315.0212 EMPLOYEE EQUIPMENT AND VEHICLES.

Subpart 1. Trucks, bulldozers, tractors. The remuneration of the operator and supplier of a bulldozer, tractor, or similar equipment, and trucks other than truck owner-operators excluded under part 3315.0525, whose remuneration includes wages for personal services as well as the cost of operating and hiring the equipment are wages unless the amount attributable to wages is separately identified either by making separate payments; or, if both wages and equipment hire are combined in a single payment, by a prearranged written agreement or by specifically indicating the separate amounts at the time of each payment.

Subp. 2. Advances or reimbursements as wages. Payments to an employee that include advances or reimbursements for use of a personal vehicle of up to 9,000 pounds gross vehicle weight in the employer's business are wages unless the amount attributable to the use of the vehicle is separately paid or stated as prescribed in part 3315.0220, item H and the advance or reimbursement is not unreasonable or arbitrary in which case only the amount attributable to services performed shall be wages.

Subp. 3. Commissioner determination of wages. If the commissioner finds that the wage determination of the equipment operators or employees who use their personal vehicles in the employer's business prescribed by subparts 1 and 2 would be unreasonable or arbitrary in a particular case, then the commissioner shall determine the amount of the wages of the employee involved.

3315.0213 NONCASH WAGES.

Except as may otherwise be provided in this chapter, the cash value of wages payable in any medium other than cash shall be:

A. the fair market value of meals or any value agreed upon between the employer and employee if it is not less than the allowance as provided in Minnesota Statutes, sections 177.21 to 177.35, the Minnesota Fair Labor Standards Act, and rules promulgated thereunder;

B. the value of rent of a house, apartment, or other lodging, furnished to an employee that would be paid by an employee for similar or equivalent accommodations, but in no event less than the allowance provided in Minnesota Statutes, sections 177.21 to 177.35 and rules promulgated thereunder; or

C. the fair market value, determined when received, of any other payment for services unless a higher value is agreed upon between the employer and the employee.

If the commissioner determines that the reasonable fair market value is other than as determined by the employer the commissioner shall, after affording the employer reasonable opportunity for the submission of relevant information, determine the reasonable cash value of board, rent, housing, meals, or similar advantage.

History: 13 SR 1057

3315.0220 EXEMPT WAGES.

Except as provided under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 25, paragraph (k), the term "wages" shall not include:

A. the value of any special discount or markdown allowed to an employee in goods purchased from or services supplied by the employer where the purchases are optional and do not constitute regular or systematic payment for services rendered;

B. customary and reasonable directors' fees paid to individuals who are not otherwise employed by the corporation of which they are directors;

C. money allowed to employees for reimbursement of meal expenses when employees are required to perform work after their regular hours;

D. payment into a trust or plan for purposes of providing legal or dental services if provided for all employees generally or for a class or classes of employees;

E. the value of parking facilities provided or paid for by an employer, in whole or in part, if provided for all employees generally or for a class or classes of employees;

F. compensation, reimbursement, fees, meals, or other payments paid or provided through a court to an individual for services performed as a juror;

G. royalties to an owner of a franchise, license, copyright, patent, oil, mineral, or other right;

H. amounts paid specifically as advances or reimbursements for traveling or other bona fide ordinary and necessary expenses incurred or reasonably expected to be incurred in the business of the employer (traveling and other reimbursed expenses must be identified either by making separate payments or by specifically indicating the separate amounts where both wages and expense allowances are combined in a single payment);

I. remuneration paid to radio and television artists which represents residual payments and which is accrued subsequent to the production of musical jingles, spot announcements, radio transcriptions, and film sound tracks; or

J. any payment to or on behalf of an employee under a plan or system established by an employer, which makes provisions for employees generally or for a class or classes of employees for the supplementation of reemployment compensation benefits under the written terms of an agreement, contract, trust arrangement, or other instrument if the plan or system provides benefits which are only supplemental to, and does not replace or duplicate any state or federal unemployment compensation. The plan or system must provide that funds are to be used solely for the supplementation of state reemployment compensation benefits. Potential recipients of the plan or system must be required to file for reemployment compensation benefits in accordance with state law. The plan or system shall not allow the assignment of benefits or the payment of any consideration in lieu of any benefit upon the employee's withdrawal from the plan or system, or termination of employment or the termination of the plan or system. The plan or system must not be designed for the purpose of avoiding the payment of reemployment compensation taxes on money disbursed from its plan or system.

EMPLOYMENT

3315.0501 DEFINITIONS.

Subpart 1. Scope. For the purpose of parts 3315.0501 to 3315.0555 the following terms have the meaning given to them.

Subp. 2. Control. "Control" is the power to instruct, direct, or regulate the activities of an individual whether or not the power is exercised.

Subp. 3. Employing unit. "Employing unit" has the meaning given to it in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 9, and includes any individual or type of organization that engages, retains, or secures the services of, an individual.

Subp. 4. Employment. "Employment" has the meaning given to it in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, and includes the services of any individual performed for an employing unit under its direction, rule, or control as to both the method of performing or executing the services and the result to be effected or accomplished. Whether an individual is performing services in employment shall be determined by the preponderance of the evidence.

Subp. 5. Method. "Method" is the way, procedure, or process for doing something; the means in attaining a result as distinguished from the result itself.

3315.0510 IN EMPLOYMENT BY FEDERAL LAW.

An individual is in employment if he or she performs services which are subject to section 3300 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (Federal Unemployment Tax Act) or performs services which are required by federal law to be covered employment by state law.

3315.0515 AGENT-DRIVERS AND SALESPERSONS.

Subpart 1. Statutory employees. Certain classes of agent-drivers, salespersons, and commission persons are statutory employees even though they are independent contractors under common law rules. Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (1)(b) sets forth the conditions which must be present for members of each class to be employees.

Subp. 2. Full-time. In the case of a traveling or city salesperson, other than an agent-driver or commission-driver, Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12 provides that the individual must be engaged on a full-time basis. "Full-time" means the number of hours in the calendar week during which individuals engaged in the same or similar occupations usually or customarily perform services, except that any week during which an individual worked 40 hours or more providing those services shall be deemed to be full-time.

Subp. 3. Substantial investment in facilities. Agent-drivers, commission-drivers, and traveling or city salespersons to be employees must not have a substantial investment in facilities, other than facilities for transportation, used in connection with the performance of the services.

"Facilities" means equipment or premises necessary to perform the work. Inventory, clothing, and items not actually required to adequately perform the assigned tasks are not facilities.

"Substantial investment" refers to a monetary investment representing something of considerable worth in relation to the overall investment requirements in the distribution or sale of the particular product involved.

3315.0520 EMPLOYMENT, GENERAL INCLUSIONS.

The services described in items A to C are considered to be in employment:

A. Services performed by an employee as an insurance agent, insurance solicitor, or real estate salesperson for the pay period in which payments for the services not constituting commissions were paid or became due and payable. The exclusionary provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (15)(m) and (o) apply to services which require a Minnesota real estate or insurance agent's sales license and to those individuals, except corporate officers, possessing the license. Services of corporate officers, who are employees by statute, shall not be considered in the application of this exclusionary provision. Noncommission remuneration includes guaranteed salary, training allowance, bonus, and draws or advances against future earnings as described in part 3315.0210, item I. For the purpose of this item commission means remuneration paid to individuals as a direct result of a sale, including the percentage of the sale price paid to the salesperson responsible for the sale, and payments including overrides, listing fees, and closing fees which are related to the sale.

B. Services performed as election judges.

C. Services performed by factory demonstrators who are placed by a manufacturer or distributor in stores and other locations to aid in the sale of products, who are hired by, who are paid directly or indirectly by, and who work under the direction of the manufacturer or distributor, although this direction may be delegated to the retailer, are in the employment of the manufacturer or distributor making the placement. If the retailer, not acting as an agent for the manufacturer or distributor, hires, directs, and pays the demonstrator directly, the retailer is the employer. If the wages are paid in part by the manufacturer or distributor, and in part by the retailer, the demonstrator is in the employment of both. Each is required to pay taxes on the part of the remuneration which it pays, provided that it is an employer under Minnesota Statutes, sections 268.03 to 268.24. If the demonstrator is referred to the job through a placement agency that is in the business of providing demonstrators to clients, the placement agency is the employer unless the placement agency neither pays nor receives, directly or through an agent, the salary or wages of the demonstrator, but is compensated on a fee basis by the demonstrator or the client for whom the service is performed.

3315.0525 EMPLOYMENT, SPECIAL EXCLUSION.

In the trucking industry, an owner-operator of a vehicle which is licensed and registered as a truck, tractor, or truck-tractor by a governmental motor vehicle regulatory agency is an independent contractor, not an employee, while performing services in the operation of his or her truck, if each of the following factors is substantially present:

A. the individual owns the equipment or holds it under a bona fide lease arrangement;

B. the individual is responsible for the maintenance of the equipment;

C. the individual bears the principal burdens of the operating costs, including fuel, repairs, supplies, vehicle insurance, and personal expenses while on the road;

D. the individual is responsible for supplying the necessary personal services to operate the equipment;

E. the individual's compensation is based on factors related to the work performed including a percentage of any schedule of rates or lawfully published tariff and not on the basis of the hours or time expended;

F. the individual generally determines the details and means of performing the services, in conformance with regulatory requirements, operating procedures of the carrier, and specifications of the shipper; and

G. the individual enters into a contract that specifies the relationship to be that of an independent contractor and not that of an employee.

Statutory Authority: MS s 268.021

History: 13 SR 1057

3315.0530 EMPLOYMENT, GENERAL EXCLUSIONS.

Subpart 1. Work relief and work training programs. Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (10)(d) excludes services which are performed as part of a program designed to relieve unemployment, if the specific program, and not just the employing unit, is assisted or financed by any federal agency or an agency of a state or political subdivision thereof. "Assistance" may be in the form of supervision, advice in organizing and operating the program, but it must be substantial and continuing. Occasional, intermittent, or incidental services would not be sufficient to invoke the exclusion. Where other than incidental physical facilities or material are furnished the program by a federal agency, the state or any of its political subdivisions, the program has been "assisted or financed."

Subp. 2. Ministers and members of religious orders. Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (10), paragraph (b), excludes from employment the service of a minister in the exercise of his or her ministry and services performed by members of religious orders when the services are required by their order. The term "exercise of his or her ministry" includes:

A. the conduct of religious worship and the ministration of sacerdotal functions;

B. services performed in the control, conduct, and maintenance of:

(1) a religious organization under the authority of a religious body constituting a church or church denomination; or

(2) an organization operated as an integral agency of a religious organization or of a church or church denomination;

C. services performed for an organization described in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (7), (8), and (9), under an assignment or designation by a church. This does not include cases in which a church merely helps a minister by recommending the minister for a position involving nonministerial services for an organization not connected with the church; and

D. missionary service or administrative work in the employ of a missionary organization.

As used in item B, "control, conduct, and maintenance" of an organization does not include services such as operating an elevator, or being a janitor, but includes services performed in the directing, management, or promotion of the activities of the organization. Accordingly, service of a member of the clergy as a chaplain and the services of members of a teaching or nursing order who are engaged in teaching or nursing are excluded. In the case of a member of a religious order, the criterion to determine if the employment is excluded is whether the order requires the performance of the services.

Subp. 3. Convention or association of churches. Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (10), provides that service performed in the employ of a church or convention or association of churches is excluded from employment. "Convention or association of churches" means a formal or informal group of churches whose purpose is concerned with religious and denominational matters of the group represented.

Subp. 4. Policy-making or advisory positions with the state of Minnesota, its instrumentalities, and political subdivisions. Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause 10, (f), (v)(a), (b), and (c), excludes from employment services performed for the state of Minnesota, its instrumentalities, and political subdivisions if performed by an individual in a policy-making position that ordinarily does not require more than eight hours per week in the performance of the duties; or in a major nontenured policy-making or advisory position and that, if performed for the state of Minnesota, is in the unclassified service. The word "major" in the phrase "major nontenured policy-making or advisory position" refers to high level governmental positions usually filled by appointment by the chief executive or the executive's designee. An individual in a policy-making position is one who determines the direction, emphasis, and scope of action in the development and the administration of governmental programs. An individual in an advisory position is one who advises governmental agencies and officers with respect to policy, program, and administration without having authority to implement its recommendations. For the state of Minnesota and political subdivisions that do not have authority to enact ordinances without recourse to the state legislature, the position must be designated as policy-making or advisory by state law or local ordinance enacted under state law. Political subdivisions may enact an ordinance creating or designating one of its positions as policy-making or advisory, provided the ordinance is under authority of the laws of the state. If a law or ordinance does not clearly and specifically so label a position, other pertinent factors used in determining whether a position is advisory or policy-making include:

- A. job descriptions;
- B. qualifications required of individuals for the position; and
- C. responsibilities involved.

The most important factor in the application of Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (10), (f), (v)(a) and (c), is whether a particular position is designated as a major nontenured policy-making or advisory position under state law. If an agency or department is covered by a merit system, the provisions of this exclusion apply only to individuals that are nontenured. "Nontenured" means that the position is not covered by a merit system or civil service law or rules with respect to duration of service or appointment.

Subp. 5. Temporary employees hired for emergencies. Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (10), (f), (iv), applies to employees who are pressed into service during an existing or imminent emergency. The exclusion does not apply to any services performed in the prevention or detection of a disaster nor to permanent employees, such as volunteer firefighters whose usual responsibilities include emergency situations.

Subp. 6. Students employed by school, college, or university. Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (15), (g), (2), excludes from employment the services of students in the employ of a school, college, or university if the student is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at the school, college, or university. "Regularly attending classes" means meeting the minimum attendance required for a student's course of study in pursuit of a degree and that the course of study is not by correspondence, part of an extension course, or a continuing education course required by an employer as a condition to employment.

3315.0535 EMPLOYMENT PARTIALLY EXCLUDED WITHIN A PAY PERIOD; 50 PERCENT RULE.

Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (15)(p) does not apply to an individual who performs services as an independent contractor and in employment within the same pay period, but does apply to all employment defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, except clauses (10)(a) and (b), relating to certain employees of religious organizations.

If an individual's services within the pay period consist of more than 50 percent of excluded employment none of that individual's services for that pay period are taken into account nor does any of that individual's remuneration for that pay period constitute wages. If 50 percent or more of the individual's services within the pay period are not excluded, all of the services are covered employment and all of the individual's remuneration for that pay period are wages.

Although not applicable to services by an individual referred to in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (10)(a) and (b), other services performed by the same individual are subject to all other provisions of Minnesota Statutes, sections 268.03 to 268.24.

3315.0540 PREVIOUSLY EXCLUDED EMPLOYMENT.

If within a calendar year an individual's services and remuneration should no longer be excluded because the employing unit has met the employment or wage requirement for that individual's class of workers, all of the previously excluded employment for that class within the same calendar year is subject to the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, sections 268.03 to 268.24. The previously excluded wages for all workers in that class of employment are reportable in the calendar quarters in which the wages were paid or were due and payable.

3315.0545 CASUAL LABOR NOT IN THE COURSE OF EMPLOYING UNIT'S TRADE OR BUSINESS.

Subpart 1. Considered employment. Casual labor not in the course of the employing unit's trade or business, although excluded from the term employment by Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (15)(b), is conditionally included as employment under the provisions of chapter 23, section 3300 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (federal Unemployment Tax Act). Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (6) provides that the term employment shall include any service which is deemed to be employment under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act; therefore, casual labor is considered employment unless it meets the exclusionary provisions of that act. The exclusionary provisions of that act are in subpart 2.

Subp. 2. Exclusions. Service not in the course of the employing unit's trade or business, performed in any calendar quarter by an employee is excluded employment unless the cash remuneration earned for the service is $50 or more, and the service is performed by an individual who is regularly employed by the employing unit. For the purpose of this subpart, an individual shall be deemed to be regularly employed if for some portion of each of 24 days or more, whether or not consecutive, during the current or preceding quarter the individual performs service that is not in the course of the employing unit's trade or business. Cash remuneration includes checks and other monetary media of exchange. Remuneration paid in any other medium, such as lodging, food, or other goods or commodities, is disregarded in determining if the cash remuneration test is met. Casual labor not in the course of the employing unit's trade or business includes service that does not promote or advance the trade or business of the employing unit; for example, work performed in connection with the employing unit's hobby or recreational activities, or work as an employee in repairing the employing unit's private home. Service for a corporation cannot be considered as nonbusiness or casual labor.

3315.0550 MULTISTATE EMPLOYMENT.

Subpart 1. Localized employment. If an employee works in more than one state, it is necessary to determine if the employment is localized in and reportable to Minnesota. In making this determination, only the employee's regular services are to be considered. "Regular" services refers to the primary duties of the employee. For example, a salesperson's regular duties are limited to services directly involved in selling, so a salesperson's regular duties do not include commuting. An employee's services are considered localized in Minnesota in any calendar quarter in which 80 percent or more of his or her regular services are performed in Minnesota.

Regular services include those services performed in an office located in the home of the employee if all of the following conditions are met: the employer does not provide other facilities; the office meets the requirements of the Internal Revenue

Code of 1986 for the deduction of business related expenses; and the services performed are an integral part of the employee's regular duties.

Nonregular services include:

A. attending periodic meetings or returning to one's residence which is located outside his or her area or territory, by salespersons or others who normally perform services within a given area or territory; and

B. any other services which are apart from or not a permanent part of an employee's regular duties, are temporary or transitory in nature, or are incidental to an employee's regular duties.

Subp. 2. Multistate worker. When an individual's services are not localized, and absent any reciprocal agreement provided for in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.13, subdivision 1, clause (1), the employee is a "multistate" worker and the application of the tests listed in subparts 3 to 6 is required, to determine whether the services are reportable to Minnesota.

Subp. 3. Base of operations. If an individual's services are not localized in any state and some services, other than those determined to be nonregular, are performed in Minnesota and the base of operations is in Minnesota, the employee's entire services are reportable to Minnesota. "Base of operations" means the place, usually permanent in nature, from which the employee starts his or her work, to which he or she customarily returns, and to which the employer may direct instructions to the employee. A branch office of the employer or the place of residence of the employee could be a base of operations.

Subp. 4. Direction and control. If an individual's services are not localized in any state and the base of operations test does not apply, all of the services are reportable to Minnesota if Minnesota is the state from which the employer exercises general direction and control over the employee, and if some services, other than those determined to be nonregular, are performed in Minnesota.

Subp. 5. Residence. If an individual's services are not localized within any state and the base of operations and the direction and control tests do not apply, the individual's entire services are reportable to Minnesota if the individual's residence is located in Minnesota and some services, other than those determined to be nonregular are performed in Minnesota.

Subp. 6. Service not covered under laws of any other state or Canada. If subparts 3 to 5 do not apply, and the individual's services are not covered under the laws of any other state or Canada, the services are covered under Minnesota Statutes, sections 268.03 to 268.24 if the services are directed and controlled from Minnesota.

3315.0555 DETERMINING WORKER STATUS.

Subpart 1. Essential factors. When determining whether an individual is an employee or an independent contractor, five essential factors must be considered and weighed within a particular set of circumstances. Of the five essential factors to be considered, the two most important are those:

A. that indicate the right or the lack of the right to control the means and manner of performance; and

B. to discharge the worker without incurring liability. Other essential factors to be considered and weighed within the overall relationship are the mode of payment; furnishing of materials and tools; and control over the premises where the services are performed.

Other factors, including some not specifically identified in this part, may be considered if a determination is inconclusive when applying the essential factors, and the degree of their importance may vary depending upon the occupation or work situation being considered and why the factor is present in the particular situation.

Subp. 2. Additional factors considered. Additional factors to be considered are those listed in items A to H.

A. Availability to public. That an individual makes services available to the general public on a continuing basis is usually indicative of independent status. An individual may offer services to the public in a number of ways including having an office and assistants, displaying a sign in front of the home or office, holding a business license, having a listing in a business directory or a business listing in a telephone directory, or advertising in a newspaper, trade journal, or magazine.

B. Compensation on job basis. A person working in employment is usually paid by the hour, week, or month. Payment on a job basis is customary where the worker is independent. Payment by the job may include a predetermined lump sum which is computed by the number of hours required to do the job at a fixed rate per hour or periodic partial payments based upon a percent of the total job price or the amount of the total job completed. The guarantee of a minimum salary or the granting of a drawing account at stated intervals with no requirement for repayment of the excess over earnings indicates the existence of employment.

C. Realization of profit or loss. An individual who is in a position to realize a profit or suffer a loss as a result of the individual's services is generally independent, while the individual who is working in employment is not in that position.

D. Obligation. An individual working in employment usually has the right to end the relationship with an employer at any time the individual wishes without incurring liability, although the individual may be required to provide notice of termination for some period in advance of the termination. An independent worker usually agrees to complete a specific job. An independent worker is responsible for its satisfactory completion and is liable for failure to complete the job.

E. Substantial investment. A substantial investment by a person in facilities used by the person in performing services for another tends to show an independent status. The furnishing of all necessary facilities by the employing unit tends to indicate the absence of an independent status. Facilities include equipment or premises necessary for the work, but not tools, instruments, clothing, and similar items that are provided by individuals working in employment as a common practice in their particular trade. A substantial expenditure of time or money for an individual's education is not necessarily indicative of an independent relationship. Substantial investment means a monetary investment representing something of considerable worth, in relation to the overall requirements of the person's chosen profession, trade, occupation, or vocation.

F. Simultaneous contracts. If an individual works for a number of persons or firms at the same time, it indicates an independent status because the worker is usually free from control by any of the firms. It is possible that a person may work for a number of people or firms and still be an employee of one or all of them.

G. Responsibility. An employing unit is usually responsible for the negligence, personal behavior, and work actions of a person working in employment in contacts with customers and the general public during times that the person is performing services for the employing unit. An independent worker is usually accountable for his or her own actions.

H. Services in the course of the employing unit's organization, trade, or business. Services that are in the course of the employing unit's organization, trade, or business consist of services which are a part or process of the employing unit's organization, trade, or business and ancillary or incidental services. Services which are a part or process of the employing unit's trade or business are generally performed by individuals in employment. Therefore, it is a consideration in determining the status of an individual. This consideration, as with all other considerations, is not a sole determinative factor. "Part" and "process" are not synonymous. Process refers to those services which directly carry out the fundamental purposes for which the organization, trade, or business exists, for example, painting and repairing automobile bodies in an automobile body paint and repair shop. Part refers to any other services which are essential to the operation or maintenance of the organization, trade, or business, for example, routine cleaning of premises and maintenance of tools, equipment, and buildings. Ancillary or incidental services include landscaping the areas around an automobile body paint and repair shop. Other services that meet the part, process, or ancillary classification are those services in connection with purchasing, receiving, storing, pricing, displaying, selling, and delivery of merchandise and housekeeping services required for the safety and comfort of customers and the general public or to maintain the premises in a manner as to promote business.

Subp. 3. Determination of control. Items A to M describe criteria for determining if the employing unit has control over the method of performing or executing services. The total circumstances must be considered to determine if control is present.

A. Authority over assistants. Control over the individual is indicated when the employing unit hires and pays the individual's assistants and supervises the details of the assistant's work.

B. Compliance with instructions. Control is indicated when an individual is required to comply with detailed instructions about when, where, and how to work including the order or sequence in which the service is to be performed. Mere suggestions as to detail or necessary and usual cooperation where the work furnished is part of a larger undertaking, does not normally evince control. Some individuals may work without receiving instructions because they are highly proficient in their line of work; nevertheless, the control factor is present if the employing unit has the right to instruct or direct the methods for doing the work and the results achieved. Instructions may be oral or may be in the form of manuals or written procedures which show how the desired result is to be accomplished. However, instructions required by state or federal law or regulation or general instructions passed on by the employing unit from a client or customer, generally does not evince control.

C. Oral or written reports. Control is indicated if regular oral or written reports relating to the method in which the services are performed must be submitted to the employing unit. Periodic reports relating to the accomplishment of a specific result may not be indicative of control if, for example, the reports are used to establish entitlement to partial payment based upon percentage of completion of a job, or the reports are needed to determine compliance with the terms of a contract. Completion of receipts, invoices, and other forms customarily used in the particular type of business activity or required by law does not constitute written reports.

D. Place of work. Doing the work on the employing unit's premises is not control in itself; however, it does imply that the employer has control, especially when the work could be done elsewhere. When work is done off the premises it does indicate some freedom from control; however, in some occupations, the services are necessarily performed away from the premises of the employing unit and are still considered to be in employment.

E. Personal performance. Control is indicated if the services must be personally rendered to the employing unit. Personal performance of a very specialized work, when the worker is hired on the basis of professional reputation, as in the case of a consultant known in the academic and professional circles to be an authority in the field, is a less reliable indicator of control. Lack of control may be indicated when an individual has the right to hire a substitute without the employing unit's knowledge or consent.

F. Existence of a continuing relationship. The existence of a continuing relationship between an individual and the person for whom an individual performs services is a factor tending to indicate the existence of an employer-employee relationship. Continuing services may include work performed at frequently recurring, though somewhat irregular intervals, either on call of the employing unit or whenever work is available.

G. Right to discharge. The right to discharge is a very important factor indicating that the right to control exists particularly if the individual may be terminated with little notice, without cause, or for failure to follow specified rules or methods.

An independent worker generally cannot be terminated without the firm being liable for damages if he or she is producing according to his or her contract specifications. Contracts which provide for termination upon notice or for specified acts of nonperformance or default are not solely determinative of the right to control. That a right to discharge is restricted because of a contract with a labor union or with other entities does not mean there is no control.

H. Set hours of work. The establishment of set hours of work by the employing unit indicates control. Where fixed hours are not practical because of the nature of the occupation, a requirement that the worker work at certain times is an element of control.

I. Training. Training of an individual by an experienced employee working with the individual, by required attendance at meetings, and by other methods, is a factor of control especially if the training is given periodically or at frequent intervals.

J. Amount of time. If the worker must devote full time to the activity, control is indicated. Full time does not necessarily mean an eight-hour day or a five- or six-day week. Its meaning may vary with the intent of the parties, the nature of the occupation and customs in the locality. Full-time services may be required even though not specified in writing or orally. For example, a person may be required to produce a minimum volume of business which compels the person to devote all working time to that business, or the person may not be permitted to work for anyone else.

K. Tools and materials. The furnishing of tools, materials, and supplies by the employing unit is indicative of control over the worker. When the worker furnishes these items it indicates a lack of control, but lack of control is not indicated if the individual provides tools or supplies customarily furnished by workers in the trade.

L. Expense reimbursement. Payment by the employing unit of either the worker's approved business or traveling expenses, or both, is a factor indicating control over the worker. A lack of control is indicated when the worker is paid on a job basis and has to take care of all incidental expenses.

M. Satisfying requirements of regulatory and licensing agencies. If an employing unit is required to enforce standards or restrictions imposed by regulatory or licensing agencies, such action does not evince control.

Subp. 4. Procedures for determining control. The department shall determine if control exists by:

- A. reviewing written contracts between the individual and the employing unit;
- B. interviewing the individual or employing unit;
- C. obtaining statements of third parties;
- D. examining regulatory statutes governing the organization, trade, or business;
- E. examining the books and records of the employing unit; and
- F. making any other investigation necessary to determine if the elements of control specified in subpart 3 exist.

Subp. 5. Obtaining a determination or opinion. If an employing unit is unsure of the status of an individual performing services for it, the employing unit may obtain a written determination by submitting all relevant facts to the commissioner on questionnaires prescribed for these determinations. The determination shall be final unless a written protest is filed with the commissioner as set forth in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.12, subdivision 13. If any person contemplates hiring or engaging a worker to perform services and is unsure if the services would be deemed employment, a written opinion may be obtained by submitting information about the proposed work arrangement, as the hiring person perceives it will be, on questionnaires prescribed by the commissioner. The commissioner's opinion does not have the effect of a determination and is not subject to appeal. The person requesting the opinion shall clearly indicate that the situation is hypothetical and that an opinion, rather than a determination, is being sought. If an individual is hired or engaged to perform the services in question, a determination may be obtained. This part in no way limits the department's authority under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.12, subdivision 13, clause (1) to make determinations on its own motion.

3315.0805 DEFINITIONS.

Subpart 1. Agricultural and horticultural commodity. "Agricultural or horticultural commodity" includes nuts, fruits, mushrooms, vegetables, honey, milk, eggs and grain, flowers, cut flowers, trees, sod and shrubbery, animal feed or bedding, grass seed, vegetable and cereal seed, flax, soy beans, sunflower seeds, corn, medicinal herbs, and other crops.

Subp. 2. Commodity. "Commodity" refers to a single product. For example, all apples are one commodity. Apples and peaches are two separate commodities.

Subp. 3. Crop purchase agreement. "Crop purchase agreement" means an agreement whereby a crop is raised under contract with a buyer.

Subp. 4. Cultivating. "Cultivating" means cultivating of the soil, irrigating crops, spraying, dusting, and other related operations.

Subp. 5. Farm. "Farm," unless otherwise excluded in this rule, means land or buildings if their primary use is for raising agricultural or horticultural commodities or for activities generally associated with the operation of a ranch, range, livestock, or dairy operation. A farm need not be a specific size and it need not be composed of contiguous plots. The performance of agricultural services does not by itself render the place where they are performed a farm.

Subp. 6. Fur-bearing animals. "Fur-bearing animals" are animals raised for the eventual use of their fur in the manufacture of clothing or other products.

Subp. 7. Harvesting. "Harvesting" includes baling hay and straw, shredding fodder, combining small grains, hulling nuts, and course grinding of alfalfa. Horticultural commodities including flowers, trees, shrubbery, and plants are harvested when they are taken up for sale or storage.

Subp. 8. Livestock. "Livestock" is any useful domestic animal kept for use on a farm or raised for sale and profit or for eventual consumption.

Subp. 9. Poultry. "Poultry" is any domestic fowl raised for meat or eggs and includes chickens, turkeys, ducks, and geese.

Subp. 10. Primary. "Primary" means 70 percent or more.

Subp. 11. Raising. "Raising" as it pertains to livestock, bees, poultry, fur-bearing animals, and wildlife means any or all stages of development, including breeding, which are necessary in their maturing for use on the farm or for sale. Raising does not include services in potting, watering, heeling, or otherwise caring for trees, shrubbery, plants, flowers, or similar items that are purchased in salable condition for the purpose of resale.

Subp. 12. Terminal market. A "terminal market" includes a packing or processing plant or any place where a farmer-producer customarily relinquishes economic interest in the commodity, its future form, or its destiny.

Subp. 13. Wildlife. "Wildlife" refers to frogs, birds, fish, and all animals belonging to a species or class generally considered wild regardless of the element which they inhabit.

3315.0810 UNMANUFACTURED STATE.

Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (15), (a), (4), requires that the services described in that clause be in connection with commodities that are in their unmanufactured state. A commodity that loses its original identity is considered in a manufactured state and services relating to the manufactured product are not agricultural. The following products are considered as being in a manufactured state: cheese; butter; yogurt; ice cream; dried or powdered milk; dried fruits or vegetables; juices, oils, and syrups derived from fruits and vegetables; and dried or powdered eggs.

3315.0815 FARMS, INCLUSIONS.

Subpart 1. Wild rice. Land developed for seeding, cultivating, and raising wild rice is a farm.

Subp. 2. Christmas trees. A plot of land used primarily for raising Christmas trees is a farm.

Subp. 3. Mushrooms. Land and structures used primarily for raising mushrooms is a farm.

Subp. 4. Wildlife. A parcel of real property used for raising any form of wildlife is a farm.

Subp. 5. Ranges. Land used primarily for grazing is a farm.

3315.0820 FARMS, EXCLUSIONS.

Subpart 1. Feedlots, hatcheries, and horse training and breeding. Feedlots, hatcheries, and horse training and breeding enterprises are not in themselves farms although they require services generally considered to be agricultural labor.

Subp. 2. Wildland. Property left in its wild state with no effort expended to perform common farming operations is not a farm.

3315.0825 AGRICULTURAL LABOR ON FARMS.

Services connected with the following activities must be performed on a farm as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (15)(a)(5) and in parts 3315.0801 to 3315.0845, to be agricultural labor:

A. breeding and training horses;

B. hatching poultry;

C. aerial seeding, fertilizing, spraying, and dusting including services related to the mixing of the spray or dust material or the loading of the material into the airplane, as well as services related to the measuring of the swaths and the marking and flagging of fields to be dusted or sprayed;

D. clerical, bookkeeping, and other office work in conjunction with the services referred to in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (15)(a)(1); or

E. holding, feeding, and fattening livestock in feed lots.

3315.0830 AGRICULTURAL LABOR, CONDITIONAL SITUATIONS.

Subpart 1. Generally. The services described in subparts 2 to 5 are not agricultural labor unless they meet the specific requirements set forth in subparts 2 to 5 with regard to where and for whom they are performed. When reference is made to "incidental to ordinary farming operations," that means services of the character ordinarily performed by employees of a farmer or of a farmer's cooperative organization or group as a prerequisite to marketing in its unmanufactured state any agricultural or horticultural commodity produced by the farmer, organization, or group.

Subp. 2. Clerical work. Recordkeeping and other clerical or office work performed in connection with the functions described in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clauses (15)(a)(2) and (4) unless they are:

A. performed in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm;

B. rendered in major part on a farm; and

C. performed incidentally to ordinary farming operations.

Subp. 3. Commodity retailing. Retailing agricultural or horticultural commodities, on or off the farm, unless:

A. the services are performed for, and the commodities are produced by the operator of the farm; and

B. less than 50 percent of the employee's time is devoted to the services. The 50 percent test is to be applied to each employee with respect to either a pay period or 31 days, whichever is less.

Subp. 4. Waterways work. Services in the construction of canals, reservoirs, waterways, or drainage ditches, unless in the employ of the owner or tenant or other operator of a farm.

Subp. 5. Land clearance. Services in the clearing of stumps, brush, and debris from land in preparation for its use as a farm, unless done in the employ of the owner tenant or other operator of the farm.

3315.0835 AGRICULTURAL LABOR EXCLUSIONS.

Subpart 1. Generally. Services connected with the following activities do not constitute agricultural labor:

A. breeding, raising, and caring for mice, rats, and other rodents and creatures commonly held for sale in pet shops or raised for research and experimental purposes;

B. breeding, raising, caring for, exhibiting, and boarding dogs and cats;

C. racing, exhibiting, and boarding horses, including services connected with a riding stable or academy;

D. lumbering or landscaping;

E. collecting and processing maple sap into maple syrup or sugar;

F. trapping animals;

G. harvesting native wild rice not grown on land developed specifically for that purpose; or

H. raising and harvesting worms.

Subp. 2. Packing plants. Services performed in the employ of any person other than the operator of a farm in hauling crops to a packing plant and services within the plant do not constitute agricultural labor.

DOMESTIC SERVICE

3315.0901 PURPOSE.

Parts 3315.0901 to 3315.0920 further define and clarify terms used in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (14) and in parts 3315.0901 to 3315.0920.

3315.0905 DEFINITIONS.

Subpart 1. Domestic service. "Domestic service" means work ordinarily performed as an integral part of household duties that contribute to the maintenance of the employer's private home or administers to the personal wants and comforts of the employer and other members of the employer's household. In general "domestic service" includes work performed by cooks, table servers, butlers, housekeepers, house servants, security guards, cleaners, companions, child care providers and teachers employed in the household, valets, babysitters, launderers, furnace workers, caretakers, gardeners, grooms, sewing workers, odd-job workers, and chauffeurs of family automobiles. Domestic service performed for fraternities and sororities also includes services performed by houseparents.

Subp. 2. Local college club. "Local college club" means a club operated and controlled by and for the benefit of students enrolled at a university or college.

Subp. 3. Private home. "Private home" means the fixed abode of one or more persons. Any shelter used as a dwelling may be considered as a private home including a tent, boat, trailer, or a room or suite in a hospital, hotel, sanatorium, or nursing home. A cooperative boarding and lodging facility may also be a private home. In an apartment house, each apartment, together with its stairways, halls, and porches is a private home. Parts of the premises devoted to common use, such as an office, furnace room, lawns, public stairways, halls, and porches, are not a part of the private home. If a facility is used mainly as a commercial rooming or boarding house only that part of the house which is used as the operator's living quarters is considered to be a private home.

3315.0910 DOMESTIC SERVICE, GENERAL.

Subpart 1. Maintenance of employer's private home. Domestic service in connection with the maintenance of an employer's private home is service which contributes directly to the protection, cleaning, and normal maintenance, in contrast to major repair projects, of the home and surrounding area. It does not include service which is not ordinarily a part of home duties or which involves the use of skilled or specialized training including service performed by persons in the construction trades.

Subp. 2. Administering to personal wants and comforts of employer. Certain services, although performed in or around the private home of the employer are not domestic services because they are too remotely associated with the requirement that they administer to the personal wants and comforts of the employer. Examples of nondomestic services include those performed by a private or social secretary, tutor, librarian, bookbinder, museum assistant, and medical nurse.

Subp. 3. Domestic service performed by relatives. Domestic service performed by relatives, other than that excluded from employment by Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (15)(d), is domestic service within parts 3315.0901 to 3315.0920 if there is a contractual agreement between a relative and the employing unit.

Subp. 4. Service performed by employees of landlords or rental agencies. Service of a household nature performed in or around rental units by employees of landlords and rental agencies is not domestic service. Service performed by domestic workers in and around the private home of the landlord is not within this exception.

Subp. 5. Workers obtained through referral or placement agency. Domestic workers referred to jobs through employment placement agencies that neither supervise nor pay them directly are in the employ of the recipient of the services. However, if an agency is in the business of providing temporary services to clients the agency is the employing unit and the workers are not providing domestic services.

Subp. 6. Service performed for a minister, priest, rabbi, or any other member of a religious order. Service performed in the private home of a minister, priest, rabbi, or any member of a religious order is considered domestic service if the worker is in the employ of the recipient of the service. If the worker is in the employ of the church or religious order the service is excluded employment. The recipient of the service is the employer if the funds for the payment of the domestic worker are not specifically provided by the church or religious order. Funds provided by a congregation of a church are considered as being provided by the church. If funds are not provided by the church specifically for domestic service and the spouse hires, directs, and otherwise controls the worker, the spouse is the employer.

Subp. 7. Registered and licensed practical nurses. Registered nurses performing private duty services are generally performing service as independent contractors if they have full discretion in administering their professional services and are not subject to direction and control. Registered and licensed practical nurses who are engaged by hospitals, nursing homes, physicians, government agencies, or commercial businesses generally are not performing services as an independent contractor and the services are nondomestic.

Subp. 8. Nurses aides and patient helpers. Nurses aides and patient helpers who are engaged to perform services in the private home of the patient, although they may occasionally administer medication, are usually performing services that are primarily domestic in nature. Patient helpers who are selected by patients who require their services, either in the hospital or after returning to their homes, are generally in the employ of the patient.

Subp. 9. Service authorized or provided by agencies. Any agency providing or authorizing the hiring of homeworkers or personal care attendants in the private home of an individual is the employer of those individuals performing the services and the services are not considered domestic if the recipient would not receive the care unless provided or funded for by the agency. It is immaterial whether the agency pays the homemaker or attendant directly or if the agency provides the funds to the recipient.

3315.1005 NOTIFICATION.

Subpart 1. Establishment of new business or change in existing business. Each employing unit shall notify the department within 30 days of a change in legal entity, or the start, transfer, sale, acquisition, or termination of a business conducted in Minnesota, in whole or in part, insofar as the transaction results in the creation of a new or different employing unit or affects the establishment of employer accounts, the assignment of rates, or the transfer of experience records as provided in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.06. If the information as submitted is incomplete, subsequent requests for additional information required in determining liability, modifying an existing account, and assigning or transferring of experience rates must be completed, signed, and returned to the department in accordance with the instructions on the form or accompanying correspondence. When the forms require the address of business establishments, the employing unit must furnish a complete street and city address if one exists. Post office box numbers or similar addresses that do not show the actual location of the business will not be acceptable except as a mailing address.

Subp. 2. Employer death. The executor, administrator, or other legal representative of a deceased employer shall be responsible for notifying the department of the employer's death as soon as possible.

Subp. 3. Bankruptcy. In the case of bankruptcy or receivership proceedings, or any proceedings for the relief of a debtor who is an employer, the trustee in bankruptcy, receiver, or person designated by order of the court as the one in control of the assets of the debtor shall promptly file notice of the proceedings with the department.

3315.1010 RECORDS.

Subpart 1. Recordkeeping. Each employing unit shall establish, maintain, and preserve records with respect to individuals performing personal services for it, including individuals who perform or assist in performing the work of any employee of the employer if the employer had actual or constructive knowledge that the work was being performed. The records shall be preserved for a period of not less than eight years after the calendar year in which the remuneration for the services was paid or payable, and shall show for each individual the following:

- A. name;
- B. social security number;
- C. days in which the individual performed personal services;
- D. location where services were performed;
- E. wages paid and wages due but not paid for personal services, showing separately:
 - (1) money wages, excluding special payments;
 - (2) wages paid and wages due but not paid, in any medium other than money, excluding special payments;
 - (3) special payments such as bonuses, gifts, and prizes, showing separately money payments, other special payments, and the character of the payments; and
 - (4) tips and gratuities paid to an employee by a customer and accounted for by the employee to the employer as defined in part 3315.0211, subparts 1 and 2;
- F. rate and base unit of pay;
- G. amounts paid as allowances or reimbursement for travel or other activity pertaining to the furtherance of the employing unit's business which were not included as wages. The account shall show each item of expense incurred during each pay period or calendar month;
- H. the date of separation and the reason, in detail, for the termination;
- I. the complete resident address of the employee;
- J. for each pay period:
 - (1) the beginning and ending dates of the period;

(2) the total amount of wages paid and wages due but not paid for personal services performed; and

(3) the date of payment; and

K. for each calendar month or, if less, the established pay period of the employer, the hours spent performing services in employment and the hours spent performing excluded services, by each employee for which the provisions of part 3315.0535 apply.

Subp. 2. Instate and outstate. For services performed within and without Minnesota the records required by subpart 1 shall include:

A. the city or county and state in which the employing unit maintains a base of operations, as defined in part 3315.0550, subpart 3, used by the individual;

B. the city or county and state from which the services are directed and controlled, if the employing unit does not have a base of operations in the states in which an individual performs services; and

C. a list of the states in which the individual performs other than temporary or incidental services and the dates services were performed at each location.

Subp. 3. Covered and uncovered employment. For services performed in both employment and excluded employment within a pay period the records required by subpart 1 shall include the hours spent performing services in employment and the hours spent performing excluded services.

3315.1015 REPORTS.

Subpart 1. Tax report filing requirements. An employer's tax report must be filed on a form prescribed by the department, or a reasonable facsimile of the form on or before the last day of the month immediately following the end of the calendar quarter. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the report is due on the next department business day. A tax report must be filed even though no wages were paid or no tax is due for the quarter. Failure to receive forms from the department shall not constitute a valid reason for not filing reports on or before the due date. Each tax report must include only the wages paid, as the term is defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 25a, for the quarter being reported. Corrections of errors made on previously submitted reports must be submitted separately.

Subp. 2. Signature requirements on tax reports. Tax reports must be signed by the owner, partner, corporate officer, or a designated representative of the employer. If the employer appoints a designated representative who is not an employee, a power of attorney authorizing the designated representative to sign the reports must be filed with the department. Unsigned or improperly signed reports that are returned to the employer for proper signature will not be considered valid or filed until they are properly signed and returned to the department.

Subp. 3. Employer responsible for reporting wages. Each employer must report the wages paid to its own employees regardless of who actually makes the payment to the employee unless the wages are properly reported by a common paymaster in accordance with the consolidated reporting provisions of part 3315.1020.

Subp. 4. Wage detail reporting requirements. Employers who have to report 250 or more employees in any calendar quarter must file their quarterly wage detail report on magnetic media using a format prescribed by the department. A magnetic media report may contain information from more than one employer. Employers with less than 250 employees to report in a calendar quarter may elect to use magnetic reporting. Absent such an election, the employer must strictly adhere to the department's prescribed format for reporting the information on paper. Reports that contain extraneous information, are incomplete, or are otherwise prepared improperly are not acceptable and will be returned and subject to the penalties prescribed in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.057, subdivision 1.

3315.1020 CONSOLIDATED REPORTS.

Subpart 1. When permitted. Consolidated reports of parent and subsidiary corporations, or other employing units having common ownership, shall be recognized or permitted only in the case of two or more related corporations:

A. who concurrently employ the same individuals, including officers, whose wages during the calendar quarter are paid by one of the related corporations as a common paymaster; and

B. whose application for a joint account has been approved by the commissioner or a delegated representative.

Subp. 2. Tests. For the purpose of this part and Minnesota Statutes, section 268.06, subdivision 21, clause (2), corporations are related for an entire calendar quarter if they satisfy one of the following four tests of items A to D, at any time during that calendar quarter.

A. Test one. They are either:

(1) members of a parent-subsidiary controlled group which is a group of two or more corporations connected through stock ownership with a common parent corporation if more than 50 percent of the total combined voting power or more than 50 percent of the total value of shares of all classes of stock of each corporation, except the common parent corporation, is owned by one or more of the corporations and the common parent corporation owns stock with more than 50 percent of the total combined voting power of at least one of the other corporations (there shall be excluded in computing the percentage of voting power or value, any treasury stock owned by the subsidiary corporation);

(2) members of a brother-sister controlled group consisting of two or more corporations in each of which five or fewer of the same individuals, estates, or trusts own stock possessing more than 50 percent of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote or more than 50 percent of the total value of all shares of all classifications of stock of each corporation, taking into account the stock ownership of each person only to the extent the stock ownership is identical with respect to each corporation;

(3) members of a combined group, which is a group of three or more corporations each of which is a member of a parent-subsidiary or brother-sister controlled group and one of which is a common parent corporation included in a parent-subsidiary controlled group and is included in a brother-sister controlled group; or

(4) life insurance companies subject to income tax under section 802 of the Internal Revenue Code and the provisions of subitem (1), (2), or (3) are met and all other members of the controlled group are subject to section 802 of the Internal Revenue Code.

B. Test two. They are a corporation that does not issue stock and 50 percent or more of the board of directors, or other governing body, of each of the corporations are the same, or the same holders possess 50 percent or more of the voting power to elect directors to each corporation.

C. Test three. Fifty percent or more of one corporation's officers are concurrently officers of the other corporation.

D. Test four. Thirty percent or more of one corporation's employees are concurrently employees of the other corporation.

Subp. 3. Stock defined. For the purpose of this part "stock" does not include:

A. nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends;

- B. treasury stock; or
- C. stock that is treated as excluded stock.

Subp. 4. Excluded stock, parent-subsidiary. “Excluded stock” for a parent-subsidiary controlled group means:

- A. stock in a subsidiary held in trust that is part of an employee’s deferred compensation plan;
- B. stock in a subsidiary owned by an individual who is a principal stockholder or an officer of the parent corporation. A “principal stockholder” is one that owns five percent or more of the voting power or five percent or more of the value of all stock of the parent corporation; or
- C. stock in a subsidiary corporation owned by an employee of the subsidiary corporation but only if the parent or subsidiary corporation restricts or limits the employee’s right to dispose of the stock.

Subp. 5. Excluded stock, brother-sister group. “Excluded stock” for a brother-sister controlled group means:

- A. stock in a member corporation held by an employees’ trust if the trust is for the benefit of the employees;
- B. stock in a member corporation owned by an employee of the corporation but only if substantial limits or restrictions are imposed on the employee’s right to dispose of the stock (a bona fide reciprocal stock repurchase arrangement will not be considered as one that restricts or limits the employee’s right to dispose of the stock); or
- C. stock in a member corporation that is held by a nonprofit educational or charitable organization.

Subp. 6. Limits on groups. A corporation may be treated as a component member of only one controlled group.

Subp. 7. Concurrent employment. “Concurrent employment” as used in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.06, subdivision 21 and this part means the simultaneous existence of an employment relationship between an individual and two or more related corporations, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 12.

An employment relationship shall require the performance of services by the employee for the employing corporation in exchange for wages which, if not for the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 268.06, subdivision 21, clause (2) and this part, would be reportable by the employing corporation.

The fact that a particular employee is on leave or otherwise temporarily inactive is immaterial in the determination of concurrent employment. Employment is not concurrent with respect to one of the related corporations if there is no employment relationship with that corporation during periods when the employee is not performing services for that corporation.

An individual who does not perform substantial services in exchange for wages for a corporation is presumed not employed by that corporation.

Wages paid to an employee ceasing to be concurrent for services rendered while the employee was in concurrent employment is reportable by the common paymaster. If the employment relationship is nonexistent during a quarter, that employee may not be counted towards the 30 percent test set forth in subpart 2, item D.

Subp. 8. Cash payments only. This part applies only to wages disbursed in money, check, or similar instrument by one of the related corporations or its agent, and excludes the value of noncash compensation such as room and board, received by the common employee from a member corporation other than the common paymaster.

Subp. 9. Common paymaster. A “common paymaster” of related corporations is any related member that disburses wages to employees of two or more of the related corporations on their behalf and that is responsible for keeping books and records for the payroll with respect to those employees.

The common paymaster is not required to disburse wages to all employees of two or more related corporations, but this part does not apply to any wages that are not disbursed through a common paymaster.

Although a corporation may be treated as a component member of only one controlled group, the related corporations may designate more than one common paymaster but only one common paymaster may be designated for each class of employee.

Subp. 10. Joint account. A joint account application shall be on forms prescribed by the department. A joint account shall be maintained until that account is terminated or notification is received regarding a change of the common paymaster. A joint account generally will not be made retroactive prior to January 1 of the year preceding the year in which the application is received. However, the commissioner may for good cause extend the retroactive period when it is in the best interest of the department to do so.

Subp. 11. Joint and several liability. The common paymaster has the primary responsibility for the remittance of any taxes, penalties, and interest due on wages it disburses as the common paymaster but each related corporation using the common paymaster is jointly and severally liable for its proportionate share of any unpaid taxes, penalties, and interest.

Subp. 12. Common paymaster responsibilities. The common paymaster has the sole responsibility for filing tax reports, wage and separation information, and protests and appeals pertaining to concurrent employees and to establish effective communications between the related corporations to ensure timely response on all matters affecting claims for reemployment compensation benefits.

Subp. 13. Reports. Each related corporation which is the employer of an individual will be responsible for reporting the individual's wages and remitting the appropriate taxes for calendar quarters where the related group or concurrent employment conditions are not met, regardless of which corporation disburses the wages.

Subp. 14. Work other than for common paymaster. If an employee works for a related corporation other than the common paymaster prior or subsequent to the effective period of the agreement, the wages earned and reportable by the employing corporation shall not be combined with the wages reportable by the common paymaster in determining the maximum taxable wage described in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 25.

Subp. 15. Nonrelated or noncurrent. Where related group or concurrent employment conditions are not met, each employing corporation of an individual shall be responsible for submitting wage and separation information, protests, and appeals pertaining to any claim for reemployment compensation benefits of that individual.

Subp. 16. Wages, wage credits, and experience rate factors of a joint account. All wages reportable and benefits charged under the joint account shall remain with that account for tax, benefit eligibility, and experience rating purposes.

Subp. 17. Relation cessation. If any corporation ceases to be related, the common paymaster shall notify the department within 30 days of the end of the calendar quarter in which the occurs.

Subp. 18. Termination of agreement. The commissioner may immediately terminate the agreement if it is found that consolidated reporting is not in compliance with this part, or it is determined that the approved related group changed its common paymaster for the purpose of attaining more favorable experience rates.

Subp. 19. Written protest. If an application to report under the provisions of Minnesota Statutes, section 268.06, subdivision 21, clause (2) and this part is denied, or an existing agreement is terminated at the discretion of the commissioner, the denial or termination shall be final unless a written protest is filed with the commissioner as set forth in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.06, subdivision 20.

3315.1301 DEFINITIONS.

Subpart 1. Scope. For the purpose of Minnesota Statutes, section 268.06 and parts 3315.1301 to 3315.1315, the following terms have the meanings given them.

Subp. 2. Chargeable. "Chargeable" means the potential of benefit charges to an employer's experience rating account and is not contingent upon benefits actually claimed or paid.

Subp. 3. Experience. "Experience" means the factors within an experience rating account that are used in the computation of an experience ratio and rate.

Subp. 4. Factors. "Factors" means the benefits charged and the taxable wages credited to an employer's experience rating account during the experience rate period.

Subp. 5. Experience rating account. "Experience rating account" is the record maintained for each employer of the factors used for the computation of an experience ratio and rate.

Subp. 6. Experience rate period. "Experience rate period" is the period that is used for the computation of experience ratios and rates when employers have been subject to the law for the required period of time.

3315.1310 CORRECTION OF DEPARTMENT ERRORS.

Minnesota Statutes, section 268.051, subdivision 6, provides the commissioner with the authority to rectify department errors that result in erroneous charges against an employer's account or that result in the incorrect computation of the employer's tax rate. This includes errors occurring in the:

A. use of wages, benefit charges, taxes, and voluntary contributions in the computation of ratios and rates as well as errors that occur in the computation of ratios and rates;

B. transfer of experience rating accounts; and

C. department's failure to take appropriate action on a timely raised issue or a timely filed protest.

3315.1315 EXPERIENCE RATES.

Subpart 1. When chargeability begins. For the purpose of Minnesota Statutes, section 268.051, subdivision 3, and this part, an employer's experience rating account first becomes chargeable with benefits on the first day of the quarter immediately following the quarter in which covered wages were first paid.

Subp. 2. Effect of unpaid taxes on experience rates. An employer's experience rate shall not be reduced below the applicable benefit cost rate if no taxes were paid before November 1 of the year preceding the effective year of the experience rate on payroll attributable to the calendar quarters within the experience rate period.

Subp. 3. Effect of partial payment of taxes on experience rates. The amount of payroll on which taxes are paid and not the actual payroll shall be used in the computation of the employer's experience rate. Part 3315.1650, subpart 5, determines the calendar quarter in which the partial payment is applied. The proportionate amount of payroll used in the computation is determined by dividing the amount of tax paid by the assigned experience rate.

Subp. 4. Previously liable employing unit. An employing unit that ceases to be a liable employer as a result of its business being transferred or discontinued or as a result of the business entity being granted termination of coverage under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.042, shall regain its previous experience rating account if it should once again become subject to the law and if:

A. less than 14 quarters have elapsed in which no covered wages were paid or due and payable;

B. the account contains taxable payroll in the experience rate period applicable at the time it again becomes subject to the law; and

C. all of the experience had not been transferred to a successor.

PAYMENTS

3315.1650 TAXES, TAXPAYING ACCOUNTS.

Subpart 1. Tax payments, general. Taxes with respect to wages paid or payable, as defined in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 25a, shall accrue on a calendar quarter basis and shall become due and be paid on or before the last day of the month immediately following the calendar quarter in which they accrue as illustrated in items A to D.

A. The first calendar quarter is due and payable on or before April 30.

B. The second calendar quarter is due and payable on or before July 31.

C. The third calendar quarter is due and payable on or before October 31.

D. The fourth calendar quarter is due and payable on or before January 31 of the following calendar year.

If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the payment is due on the next department business day. Failure to receive forms from the department is not a valid reason for not paying the tax on or before the due date. Each check or other order for the payment of money tendered to the department that is dishonored shall not constitute payment until the funds are paid to the department.

Subp. 2. New employers. The first tax payment of any employing unit that becomes an employer at any time during a calendar year shall become due on and shall be paid on or before the normal due date of the quarter in which the employing unit becomes an employer. The first payment shall include taxes accrued for the entire period beginning January 1 of the calendar year up to and including the calendar quarter in which the employing unit becomes an employer.

Subp. 3. Employing units electing coverage. The first tax payment with respect to services not previously covered by the law for an employing unit or employer that has the approval of the commissioner to voluntarily elect coverage for nonsubject services shall be paid on or before the last day of the month immediately following the calendar quarter in which the election became effective or was approved, whichever is later. The payment shall include taxes with respect to all wages for services covered by the election that were paid on or after the effective date of the election through the close of the last completed calendar quarter preceding the due date for the tax.

Subp. 4. Due date upon demand. If the commissioner believes that the collection of any tax under the law will be jeopardized by delay, the commissioner shall, notwithstanding the due date established in subparts 1 and 2, immediately assess the tax that shall become immediately due and payable and make immediate notice and demand for payment. Interest and penalties will be assessed if the tax is not paid upon demand.

Subp. 5. Late payments. Except for an indebtedness that has been reduced to judgment, payments received from an employer who is indebted to the department shall be applied to the indebtedness pertaining to the oldest calendar quarter unless the payment is clearly intended to be applied to a specific tax report or indebtedness.

3315.2010 ADJUSTMENTS AND REFUNDS, TAXPAYING ACCOUNTS.

Subpart 1. Overpayments. Tax reports, other than those lacking proper signature, will not be returned to employers for correction. Whenever an erroneous report is submitted that results in a tax overpayment, the employer may obtain a credit allowance or refund if the payment was made within the current or preceding four calendar years. A request for adjustment must show the total wages, excess wages, taxable wages, and tax as previously reported and as corrected for the period involved. If the adjustment changes the total wages reported, the request must also include the social security number, name, wages, and weeks worked as previously reported and as corrected for each individual whose wages were changed. The department's form, Employer's Application for Wage Adjustment, may be used for this purpose. The credit allowance or refund shall be reduced by any indebtedness due the department by the employer and by the amount of benefits paid to a claimant as a direct result of the employer's erroneous report. This subpart does not apply to overpayments of voluntary taxes.

The commissioner may, upon request of the employer or employing unit or upon the commissioner's own initiative, issue a refund covering the overpayment. Lacking specific instructions from the employer, the commissioner shall issue a credit statement and mail it to the employer at the employer's last known address. If the employer fails to use the credit, the commissioner may cancel it and issue a refund covering the overpayment.

Subp. 2. Underpayments. If the tax report first submitted by an employer understates the amount of taxable wages resulting in an understatement of the tax due and owing for a given period, the employer shall file the department's form, Employer's Application for Wage Adjustment, and make remittance covering the additional tax due. The information provided to the department shall include the total wages, excess wages, taxable wages, and tax as previously reported and as corrected for the period involved. If the adjustment changes the total wages reported, the request must also include the social security number, name, wages, and weeks worked as previously reported and as corrected for each individual whose wages were changed.

Subp. 3. Wages reported to another state in error. Wages for services determined to be reportable to Minnesota but reported to another state in error shall be reported and the tax paid to Minnesota. This does not apply to wages paid more than four calendar years before the year of the determination or paid beyond the refunding state's statute of limitations, whichever is less.

3315.2210 INTEREST.

Subpart 1. Scope. This part governs the Department of Economic Security in its administration of Minnesota Statutes, section 268.057, subdivision 5.

Subp. 2. Waiver. The commissioner shall waive all or the appropriate part of the interest charges on taxes or payments in lieu of taxes that are not paid by the due date if the late payment was caused by unreasonable delay attributable to the department, its agents, or the postal service, or if the taxes were timely paid to another state reemployment compensation benefits fund in error.

Subp. 3. Delays attributable to the department or its agents. If the department does not respond within 30 days of the receipt of information from the employer, the delay in excess of the first 30 days shall be considered unreasonable. For the purpose of this part, "respond" means notifying an employer of its liability status or the status of a specific class or classes of workers, the assignment of experience rates, or requesting additional information when the information received is incomplete or incorrect. This subpart does not apply to delays attributable to the department's hearing process.

Subp. 4. Application. Each application for waiver of interest under this part must be made in writing by the employer or an authorized representative, except that the commissioner may on the commissioner's own motion waive interest if in the best interest of the state of Minnesota.

Subp. 5. Substantiation required. If the employer alleges that any of the extenuating circumstances listed in subpart 2 are directly responsible for the untimely payment of taxes or payments in lieu of taxes, the particulars must be submitted for review by the commissioner. If the commissioner determines that the employer's allegations are substantiated, the commissioner shall waive the portion of the interest attributable to the delay. The portion of the interest charges not attributable to these extenuating circumstances shall remain payable by the employer.

3315.2410 VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS.

Subpart 1. Purpose and scope. Subparts 2 to 6 further explain the requirements for making a voluntary contribution to obtain a reduced experience ratio and rate as permitted under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.051, subdivision 7.

Subp. 2. Time limit. A voluntary contribution made after the expiration of the first 120 days of the calendar year in which the subject rate is effective shall not be used in the computation of a new experience ratio if the employer had been subject to the law for the entire 120-day period. When an employer becomes subject to the law after January 1, the 120-day period shall commence with the day the employer has its first covered employment.

Subp. 3. Partial voluntary contribution. A partial voluntary contribution is first applied to the most recent benefit charges in the experience period. A partial voluntary contribution is not used to reduce any specific claimant's charges. If any benefit charges are subsequently removed from an employer's experience rating account the department shall not credit the employer's account or issue a refund for any portion of a voluntary contribution unless the removal of the charges creates a negative balance in the account, in which case the credit or refund shall be limited to the amount necessary to eliminate the negative balance.

Subp. 4. Payment of surcharge required. Except as provided in subpart 5, the surcharge of 25 percent of benefit charges required by Minnesota Statutes, section 268.06, subdivision 6, to be added to an employer's experience rating account, must be proportionately included with a voluntary contribution. Eighty percent of a voluntary contribution will be used to remove benefit charges and the remaining 20 percent will be applied to the corresponding surcharge.

Subp. 5. Surcharge cancellation. The law provides for the cancellation of a surcharge that is attributable to benefit charges that are the result of unemployment caused by damages to an employer's business by fire, flood, wind, or other act of God if a voluntary contribution is made to remove the corresponding benefit charges. Notwithstanding subpart 3, a partial voluntary contribution will be first used to reduce charges attributable to the unemployment caused by the damages. Surcharge attributable to benefit charges not removed by voluntary contribution will remain in the employer's experience rating account for ratio and rate computation.

Subp. 6. Status of benefit charges not reimbursed. Benefit charges not removed by a voluntary contribution will remain a factor in ratio and rate computation for as long as they are in the experience period.

3315.2610 NONPROFIT ORGANIZATIONS.

Subpart 1. Proof of exemption. A nonprofit organization described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and exempt from federal unemployment tax under section 3306(c)(8) of the code, must provide the department with a copy of the exempt determination if Minnesota Statutes, sections 268.04, subdivision 12, clause (10), and 268.053, are to be applicable to the organization.

Subp. 2. Timely election to reimburse in lieu of paying tax. Nonprofit organizations meeting the provisions of subpart 1 will be installed as taxpaying accounts unless they elect the reimbursement method. Notice of election to change the method of payment not filed within the time limits specified in Minnesota Statutes, section 268.053, shall be considered for approval in a subsequent year, unless rescinded by the employer before its implementation.

3315.2800 [Renumbered 3315.0825]3315.2810 REIMBURSING ACCOUNTS.

Subpart 1. Eligibility. Reimbursement of benefits in lieu of paying tax is an option available to the state of Minnesota and its wholly owned instrumentalities; political subdivisions and their instrumentalities; and nonprofit organizations referred to in part 3315.2610. All other employers are required to be taxpaying.

Subp. 2. Change in method of payment. An employer that changes from reimbursing to taxpaying shall continue to be liable to reimburse the fund for benefits that are paid based on wages paid during the effective period of the employer's election to make payments in lieu of taxes. All benefit charges based on wages paid after the effective date of the approval of the change to taxpaying shall be charged to the employer's experience rating account. When an employer changes from taxpaying to reimbursing, benefit charges in the employer's experience rating account shall be used in future rate computations if the employer reverts back to taxpaying and the benefit charges are within the experience rate computation period in effect at the time of the change.

Subp. 3. Payment due date. Employers who reimburse the fund in lieu of paying taxes shall submit full payment as indicated on the notice of benefits charged. Payment is due on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the notice of benefits charged is mailed to the employer. If the due date falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the payment shall be due on the next department business day.

Subp. 4. Application of partial payments. Except for an indebtedness that has been reduced to judgment, payments received without specific instructions and which are not clearly intended for a specific benefit charge or indebtedness shall be applied to remove all benefit charges and interest beginning with the oldest calendar quarter.

3315.3220 ACQUISITIONS.

Subpart 1. Scope. Subparts 2 to 4 clarify Minnesota Statutes, section 268.04, subdivision 10, clause (2), relative to the effect that an acquisition has on the liability status of a successor who acquired substantially all of the assets or any part of the organization, trade, or business of an employing unit that is an employer subject to the law at the time of the acquisition.

Subp. 2. Types of acquisitions. An acquisition can occur through licensing, leasing, franchising (including dealerships), forfeiture, foreclosure, or by court order. An acquisition can also occur when:

A. there is an outright sale or transfer between individuals or other legal entities;

B. individuals form partnerships or corporations;

C. individuals acquire the organization, trade, or business from a corporation or partnership; or

D. there is a merger, consolidation, or other form of reorganization that results in the change of a legal entity.

Subp. 3. Employers of domestic employees. In the event of the death of a married employer of domestic employees, the account shall be changed to the name of the surviving spouse and shall not be treated as a change in legal entity.

Subp. 4. Liability of successor, special situation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, a successor shall not be held immediately subject to the law due to an acquisition if:

A. the predecessor is eligible for termination of coverage under Minnesota Statutes, section 268.042, subdivision 2; or
