5510.1910 HEARINGS OR INVESTIGATIONS.

Subpart 1. Policy. The bureau believes that stipulations or agreements reached by the parties are conducive to harmonious and stable labor and management relationships. The bureau will encourage the parties to enter into these agreements whenever possible and will accept stipulations which are consistent with bureau policies and the act.

Subp. 2. Scope. Hearings or investigations shall address all issues raised by a valid petition that are within the jurisdiction of the commissioner.

Subp. 3. Consolidation of hearings. The commissioner may consolidate one or more hearings or petitions to the extent the commissioner determines the consolidation will serve the purposes of the act.

Subp. 4. Procedures. Upon receipt of a petition, the commissioner shall hold hearings or conduct an investigation as required. Following receipt of a petition, the commissioner may issue an order prohibiting negotiations and maintaining the status quo, in part or in whole, of the employees' terms and conditions of employment.

Subp. 5. Prehearing conference. The purpose of a prehearing conference is to simplify the issues to be determined, to obtain stipulations regarding foundation for testimony or exhibits, to identify the proposed witnesses for each party, to consider other matters that may be necessary or advisable and, if possible, to reach a settlement without the necessity for hearing. Any final settlement must be made a part of the record.

Upon the request of any party or upon his own motion, the commissioner may, in his discretion, hold a prehearing conference prior to a hearing. The commissioner may require the parties to file a prehearing statement containing items the commissioner deems necessary. The prehearing conference shall be informal. Agreements regarding the simplification of issues, amendments, stipulations, or other matters may be entered on the record or may be made the subject of an order by the commissioner.

Subp. 6. Subpoenas. Requests for subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses or the production of documents must be made in writing to the commissioner and contain a brief statement demonstrating the relevance of the potential testimony or evidence sought, identify all persons to be subpoenaed, and identify with specificity any documents sought.

Subp. 8. Hearing. Parties shall have the right to present evidence, rebuttal testimony and argument on the issues, and to cross-examine witnesses. Individuals or organizations having an appearance status shall only be allowed to review exhibits and make statements for the record.

Any party may be a witness or may present witnesses at the hearing. All oral testimony must be under oath or affirmation. At the request of a party or upon the commissioner's own motion, witnesses may be excluded from the hearing room so that they cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses.

Subp. 9. Rules of evidence. The commissioner may admit all evidence which possesses probative value, including hearsay, if it is the type of evidence on which reasonable prudent persons are accustomed to rely in the conduct of their serious affairs. The commissioner shall give effect to the rules of privilege recognized by law. Evidence which is incompetent, immaterial, or unduly repetitious may be excluded.

All evidence to be considered in the case, including all records and documents in the possession of the commissioner or a true and accurate photocopy thereof must be made a part of the record. Matters not part of the record may not be considered in the determination of the case.

The commissioner may seek additional evidence and examine witnesses to the extent the commissioner deems appropriate, but shall do so on the record and with the opportunity for any party to contest the evidence.

The commissioner may take judicial notice of facts not in dispute.

Subp. 10. The record. The commissioner shall maintain the record in each case. The record shall contain:

- A. all pleadings, motions, and orders;
- B. evidence received;
- C. offers of proof, objections, and rulings on objections;
- D. all memoranda or data submitted by any party in connection with the case; and
- E. an audiomagnetic or stenographic recording of the hearing.

The commissioner shall retain the audiomagnetic or stenographic recording of the hearing for a period not less than 60 calendar days after the issuance of his order.

Subp. 10a. Requests for transcripts. The audiomagnetic recording of a hearing before the bureau may be transcribed in whole or in part upon the written request of any party or person, provided that the party or person requesting the transcript makes a request within the 60-day retention period and agrees in writing to pay full costs of preparation of the transcript.

Subp. 10b. Preparation of case record on appeal to PERB. Any person or party appealing a determination of the commissioner to the board must agree in writing to pay for the cost of preparing the transcript of the hearing upon which the determination was based, as well as the costs of duplicating all relevant exhibits and other written case file material. If the appeal involves only a portion of the elements or factors decided by the commissioner, and only parts of the hearing are relevant to that element or factor, a partial transcript and record may be purchased. The extent of the transcript and record necessary to provide the board with the complete record upon which that portion of the commissioner's determination was based will be determined by the commissioner, based upon the scope of the issues under appeal. However, any party to an appeal may request that a portion of the entire record be added to the record submitted by the commissioner to PERB. The party making such a request must agree in writing to pay for the cost of preparing this additional record. Any partial transcript shall include all testimony and evidence relevant to the issues under appeal.

Subp. 11. Continuances. The timely processing of petitions relating to questions of representation is in the public interest and of value to a constructive and stable labor relations environment. Accordingly, the commissioner will grant continuances or postponements of hearings on these matters only upon a showing of substantial cause.

All requests for continuances or postponements of a hearing must be served in accordance with parts 5510.0110 to 5510.2310. Requests served less than six calendar days prior to a hearing shall be denied unless the commissioner determines that the request could not have been filed earlier and that the rights of a party will be substantially affected by denial.

The commissioner may, at his discretion, continue a hearing which has already commenced whenever the action appears necessary for determination of the issues. In those instances, oral notice on the record by the commissioner is sufficient.

Subp. 12. Conduct of hearing. Unless the commissioner determines that the public interest will be otherwise served, the hearing must be conducted substantially in the following manner:

A. After opening the hearing, the commissioner must state the procedural rules for the hearing including the following:

- (1) all parties may present evidence and cross-examine witnesses;
- (2) all parties have a right to be represented at the hearing;
- (3) any objection to the conduct of the hearing, including the introduction of evidence, must be stated orally, together with a statement of the grounds for the objection;
- (4) no objection to the conduct of the hearing, including the introduction of evidence, shall be waived by further participation in the hearing; and
- (5) failure to appear at the hearing in person or through an authorized representative may prejudice the rights of a party.

B. Any stipulations, settlement agreements, or consent orders entered into by any of the parties prior to the hearing shall be entered into the record.

C. The party with the burden of proof may make an opening statement. The other parties may make opening statements in a sequence determined by the commissioner.

D. After any opening statements, the party with the burden of proof shall present its evidence. The other parties shall follow in a sequence determined by the commissioner.

E. Cross-examination of witnesses is conducted in a sequence determined by the commissioner.

F. When all parties and witnesses have been heard, final argument may, in the discretion of the commissioner, be permitted. The commissioner shall determine the timing and sequence of the argument, and whether the argument is presented in written or oral form, or both.

G. After final argument, the commissioner shall close or continue the hearing.

H. The record of the proceeding shall be closed upon receipt of the final written memorandum, transcript, if any, or late-filed exhibits which the parties and the commissioner have agreed should be received into the record, whichever occurs later.

Subp. 13. Disruption of hearing. No television, newsreel, motion picture, still or other camera, and no mechanical recording devices other than those provided by the commissioner shall be operated in the hearing room during the course of the hearing.

No person shall interfere with the free, proper, and lawful access to or egress from the hearing room. No person shall interfere or threaten interference with the conduct of the hearing.

A $10-per-day penalty shall be the only penalty for late notice of a desire to negotiate a subsequent labor contract and may be imposed by the commissioner upon request by a party adversely affected by the failure to provide timely notice or the commissioner's own motion. A request or motion to assess a penalty shall be made in writing and served upon the commissioner and the other party to the labor contract within ten days of the requesting party's first knowledge of the other party's desire to negotiate or, in the case of the commissioner's own motion, within 15 days of the receipt of a request for mediation assistance involving the same parties and contract. A request from a party or motion by the commissioner shall specify the date of first knowledge of the desire to negotiate, the expiration date of the current labor contract, and a brief statement of the adverse results or impact of the late notice. B. in the case of nonessential employees, a request to arbitrate has been made by one party and has been agreed to by the other within 15 days of the request.

Requests for arbitration and agreements to arbitrate must be in writing and be served on the other party and the commissioner under part 5510.0310, subpart 19. The requests and agreements are binding on the parties except to the extent they otherwise agree in writing. An offer to arbitrate for nonessential employees that has not been accepted in writing within the 15-day period shall be considered rejected and withdrawn.

Subp. 2. Form of arbitration. All interest arbitration shall be conventional arbitration except:

A. if the parties agree in writing to limit the arbitrator's authority to final offer item-by-item or final offer total-package; or

B. if the case involves a unit of principals and assistant principals, the panel must use final offer item-by-item arbitration.

Subp. 3. Unresolved issues. In requesting or agreeing to interest arbitration, each party shall list all issues, items, or matters not previously agreed upon. Based upon the submissions of the parties and prior efforts to mediate the dispute, the 5510.2810 PETITION FOR MEDIATION.

Subpart 1. Petition. A petition for mediation must be served on the bureau by an exclusive representative, an employer, or jointly. Petition forms may be obtained from the bureau.

Subp. 2. Commissioner initiation of mediation. When it is in the public interest, the commissioner may initiate mediation without receiving a petition. Upon notice to the parties, mediation shall proceed in accordance with parts 5510.2410 to 5510.3210.

Subp. 3. Notice. Upon receiving a petition for mediation and concluding that mediation would be useful, the commissioner shall serve notice of the time and place for a mediation meeting of the exclusive representative and the employer.

Subp. 4. Obligation. It is the duty and obligation of the parties to comply with the notice of the mediation meeting. The parties must be represented by persons having the authority to negotiate in good faith and be prepared to identify unresolved issues and their positions regarding such issues.

Subp. 5. Mediation meetings. Joint or separate mediation meetings of the parties may be scheduled by the commissioner. Mediation meetings are informal and must be limited by the commissioner to matters relevant to the settlement of the dispute. The parties must continue to participate in a mediation meeting until excused by the commissioner. Use of recording devices, stenographic records, or other recording methods is prohibited in mediation meetings.

A mediation meeting may be closed to the public by the commissioner when, in the commissioner's judgment, closing will facilitate resolution of the dispute. In all cases a meeting will be closed only after receipt by the bureau of a valid and timely petition for mediation or after initiation of mediation by the commissioner. The commissioner may close a meeting to the public prior to its start or at any time during the meeting.

Subp. 5a. Meetings of governing bodies. When the commissioner determines that it is in the interest of resolution of a dispute, the commissioner may authorize a closed meeting of the public employer's governing body for the purpose of review and discussion of the status of negotiations and the employer's positions.

No closed meeting may be authorized unless the bureau has received a valid and timely petition for mediation or unless mediation has been initiated by the commissioner.

No closed meeting may be authorized when the commissioner or a representative of the commissioner is not physically present at the meeting unless the bureau has received a timely and valid notice of intent to strike.

In the event the commissioner determines that a closed meeting is necessary, but the commissioner cannot be physically present at the meeting and a timely and valid notice of intent to strike has been received by the bureau, the commissioner may authorize a closed meeting upon written notice to the governing body and exclusive representative at least 24 hours prior to the closed meeting. The written notice must include the date, time, and place of the closed meeting of the governing body and limit the purpose of the meeting to matters relevant to the dispute.

5510.2905 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION.

Subpart 1. Mediation information. Information disclosed to the commis-commissioner shall determine the unresolved items that will be submitted to arbitration.

Subp. 4. Final positions. When an agreement or requirement to arbitrate has been established, and the commissioner has determined the items to be submitted to arbitration, the commissioner shall certify the matters to the board and direct each party to submit their final position on the items certified by the commissioner. Final positions shall be presented in the form of the contract language desired by each party to resolve the matter in dispute. Final positions must be submitted to the commissioner within 15 days of the date when the commissioner certifies the matter to the board. The deadline for submitting final positions may be extended a reasonable period of time by the commissioner upon an adequate and timely showing of good cause by a party.

If the arbitration form is a final offer variety, the final positions of the parties may not be withdrawn or amended except by mutual written consent or to correct nonsubstantive errors of a clerical-technical nature or matters solely of form.

Subp. 5. Forwarding to the board. After the date for the filing of final positions has passed, the commissioner shall forward the matter and any final positions that have been received to the board. When final positions have been received from both parties, the commissioner shall provide each party with a copy of the opposing party's final positions. The board may provide copies of final positions to the arbitration panel, but part 5510.2905, subpart 2, shall govern the protected nature of the final positions.

Subp. 6. Effect of untimely final positions. The failure of a party to submit timely final positions on an item that has been submitted to final-offer arbitration shall be noted by the arbitration panel and shall result in a default award unless the delinquent party, in the sole discretion of the panel, can demonstrate good cause for the delinquency, in which case the panel may proceed as if the delinquency had not occurred. The failure of a party to submit timely final positions in a conventional arbitration matter shall be noted by the arbitration panel and may be considered by the panel in weighing the testimony, evidence, and overall good faith behavior of that party with respect to the items before the panel.

Subp. 7. Continued mediation. The commissioner may continue efforts to aid the parties in resolving issues after a matter has been certified for arbitration.

Subpart 1. Notice. A notice of an intent to strike must be in writing and served upon the employer and the commissioner under parts 5510.2410 to 5510.3210. The notice is timely when the requirements of Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.18, have been fulfilled.

Subp. 2. Dates right to strike matures and terminates. The dates the right to strike matures and terminates shall be determined by the commissioner in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.18, and the commissioner shall provide written notice of the dates to the parties. No strike shall commence during the first ten days after receipt of a notice of intent to strike.

Subp. 3. Renewal of intent to strike notice. Except for teachers, a notice of intent to strike may be renewed by serving a written notice on the employer and the commissioner not sooner than five days before the termination of a right to strike. In the event the renewal is served, a new ten-day waiting period shall apply and the commissioner shall reestablish the dates when the right to strike matures and terminates. 5510.5150 STEP TWO.

If the supervisor has not been able to resolve the grievance or has not responded in writing within the time period provided in part 5510.5140 (step one), a written grievance may be served on the next appropriate level of supervision by the exclusive representative. The written grievance shall provide a concise statement outlining the nature of the grievance, the provisions of the contract or the just cause situation in dispute, and a statement of the relief or remedy

Subpart 1. Referral to arbitration. If the response of the chief administrative officer or designee is not received within the period provided in part 5510.5160 (step three) or is not satisfactory, the exclusive representative may serve written notice on the employer of its intent to refer the case to arbitration within ten days after the response required by part 5510.5160 (step three) is due.

Subp. 2. Selection of arbitrator. Within ten days of the service of written notice of intent to arbitrate, the employer's chief administrative officer or designee shall consult with the agent of the exclusive representative and endeavor to mutually agree upon an arbitrator to hear and decide the grievance. If the parties do not agree upon the selection of an arbitrator, either party may request a list of impartial arbitrators from the bureau. The parties shall alternately strike names from a list of five names to be provided by the bureau until only one name remains, and the remaining name shall be the designated arbitrator. The determination of which party will commence the striking process shall be made by mutual agreement or a flip of a coin. If one party refuses to strike names from the list provided by the bureau, the other party may serve written notice of this fact upon the bureau, with a copy to the offending party. Unless it is confirmed that the parties have otherwise selected or agreed upon an arbitrator within three days of service of the notice of refusal or failure to strike names, the bureau shall designate one name from the list previously provided to the parties and the person so designated by the bureau shall have full power to act as the arbitrator of the grievance.

The arbitrator may maintain written notes of the hearing and may use an electronic recording device to supplement the note taking. These notes shall be considered the arbitrator's private and personal property and shall not be made available to the parties or another third party. If a recording device is used by the arbitrator to supplement the arbitrator's notes, the arbitrator shall retain the recording for a period of 90 days following the issuance of the award.

No more than three employees shall be entitled to compensation for participation in a single meeting or hearing with respect to any one grievance.

Subp. 2. Waiver of steps. The parties may by written mutual agreement waive participation in the grievance steps in parts 5510.5140 to 5510.5160 and may similarly agree to extend the time limits established by parts 5510.5140 to 5510.5170.

A failure of an employer representative to comply with the time periods and procedures in parts 5510.5140 to 5510.5170 shall require mandatory alleviation of the grievance as requested in the last statement by the exclusive representative.
