7409.0100 DEFINITIONS.

Subpart 1. Scope. For this chapter, the terms defined in this part have the meanings given them.

Subp. 1a. Cancellation. "Cancellation" means the commissioner's rescission of a person's driver's license for which the person must meet the requirements of part 7409.4300 for reinstatement of the person's driver's license.

Subp. 1b. Certificate of insurance. "Certificate of insurance" means a letter, a signed policy of vehicle liability insurance as required by Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.48, or a completed insurance certificate form from the authorized representative of the insurance carrier authorized to do business in the state stating that the vehicle will be covered by a plan of reparation security as required by Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.48, for one calendar year or that the operator will be covered by a plan of reparation security for a period of six months.

Subp. 2. Commercial motor vehicle. "Commercial motor vehicle" has the meaning given it in Minnesota Statutes, section 171.01, subdivision 22.

A commercial motor vehicle does not include a farm truck, fire truck or other emergency fire equipment, or recreational equipment operated by a person within the scope of Minnesota Statutes, section 171.02, subdivision 2, paragraph (a).

Subp. 3. Commissioner. "Commissioner" means the commissioner of the Minnesota Department of Public Safety, acting directly or through authorized officers and agents.

Subp. 4. Conviction; convicted. "Conviction" or "convicted" has the meaning given it in Minnesota Statutes, section 171.01, subdivision 13.

Subp. 5. Department. "Department" means the Minnesota Department of Public Safety.

Subp. 6. Disqualification; disqualify. "Disqualification" or "disqualify" means the commissioner's removal of the privilege to drive commercial motor vehicles for a specific period under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.165.

Subp. 6a. Driver improvement clinic. "Driver improvement clinic" has the meaning given in Minnesota Statutes, section 171.20, subdivision 3.

Subp. 7. License. "License" means an operator's license or other license or permit to operate a motor vehicle issued or issuable by the commissioner including:

- A. a temporary license or instruction permit;
- B. the privilege of a person to drive a motor vehicle, whether or not that person holds a valid license;
- C. a nonresident's driving privilege; and
- D. the plastic or paper license certificates.

Subp. 7a. Owner. "Owner" has the meaning given in Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.43, subdivision 4.

Subp. 7b. Personal injury. "Personal injury" means a class A, incapacitating injury, other than a fatal injury, that prevents the injured person from walking, driving, or normally continuing the activities the person was capable of performing before the injury occurred, such as a severe laceration, broken or distorted limb, or skull, chest, or abdominal injury.

Subp. 7c. Plan of reparation security. "Plan of reparation security" has the meaning given in Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.43, subdivision 15.

Subp. 7d. Proof of insurance. "Proof of insurance" has the meaning given in Minnesota Statutes, section 169.791, subdivision 1.

Subp. 8. Revocation. "Revocation" means the commissioner's rescission of a person's driver's license for a specific minimum period of time under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, 169.792, 171.165, or 171.17, for which the person must meet the requirements of part 7409.0600, 7409.3800, 7409.4000, or 7409.4100 for reinstatement of the person's driver's license.

Subp. 8a. Sufficient cause to believe. "Sufficient cause to believe" means grounds put forth in good faith, which are not arbitrary, irrational, unreasonable, or irrelevant, and that make the proposition asserted more likely than not, provided the grounds are based on at least one of the following sources:

- A. written information from an identified person;
- B. facts or statements by the applicant or driver;
- C. driver's license and accident records;
- D. court documents and police records; or
- E. facts of which the commissioner or a department employee has personal knowledge.

Subp. 9. Suspension. "Suspension" means the commissioner's temporary removal of a person's driver's license under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, subdivision 4a, 171.09, or 171.18 for which the person must meet the requirements of part 7409.3900 or 7409.4200 for reinstatement of the person's driver's license.

Subp. 10. Withdrawal or withdrawn. "Withdrawal" or "withdrawn" means the suspension, revocation, or cancellation of a person's driver's license.

Subp. 11. Withdrawal period. "Withdrawal period" means the time after a license withdrawal during which the person's driving privilege has been withdrawn and has not been reinstated.

DISQUALIFICATION

7409.0200 COMMERCIAL DRIVER'S LICENSE DISQUALIFICATION:

Subpart 1. Leaving accident scene. Upon receiving a record of conviction, the commissioner shall disqualify a person from holding a commercial driver's license if the person was convicted under Minnesota Statutes, section 169.09, subdivision 1 or 2, and the person was driving, operating, or in physical control of a commercial motor vehicle at the time of violation of section 169.09, subdivision 1 or 2. The disqualification period is:

- A. one year, for the first conviction;
- B. three years, if the person was transporting hazardous materials at the time of the violation; or
- C. life, if the person has a previous disqualification under this subpart, subpart 2 or 3, or Minnesota Statutes, section 171.165, subdivision 1, clause (1), or subdivision 2.

Subp. 2. Felony, using commercial vehicle. Upon receiving a record of conviction, the commissioner shall disqualify a person from holding a commercial driver's license if the person was convicted of a felony in which a commercial motor vehicle was used, other than a felony described in subpart 4. The disqualification period is:

- A. one year, for the first conviction;
- B. three years, if the person was transporting hazardous materials at the time of the commission of the felony; or
- C. life, if the person has a previous disqualification under this subpart, subpart 1 or 3, or Minnesota Statutes, section 171.165, subdivision 1, clause (1), or subdivision 2.

Subp. 3. Out-of-state convictions. Upon receiving a record of conviction from another state, the commissioner shall disqualify the convicted person from holding a commercial driver's license if the conviction would be grounds for disqualification under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.165, subdivision 1, clause (2) or (3). The disqualification is:

- A. one year, for the first conviction;
- B. three years, if the person was transporting hazardous materials at the time of the violation; or
- C. life, if the person has a previous disqualification under this subpart, subpart 1 or 2, or Minnesota Statutes, section 171.165, subdivision 1, clause (1), or subdivision 2.

Subp. 4. Manufacture, sale, or distribution of controlled substance. Upon receiving a record of conviction, the commissioner shall disqualify a person from holding a commercial driver's license if the person is convicted under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 152, of the manufacture, sale, or distribution of a controlled substance or possession of a controlled substance with the intent to manufacture, sell, or distribute it, and it is found that a commercial motor vehicle was used in the commission of the felony. The disqualification period is for life.

Subp. 5. Serious traffic violations. Upon receiving a record of conviction, the commissioner shall disqualify a person from holding a commercial driver's license if the person was convicted of two or more serious traffic violations in a commercial motor vehicle within a three-year period. "Serious traffic violations" includes any combination of the following offenses:

- A. operating the commercial motor vehicle at a speed 15 miles per hour or more above the posted speed limit;
- B. reckless or careless driving under Minnesota Statutes, section 169.13;
- C. fleeing a peace officer under Minnesota Statutes, section 609.487; and
- D. a violation of a moving traffic statute of Minnesota or another state, or an ordinance in conformity with a Minnesota statute, that arose in connection with a fatal accident.

The disqualification period is 60 days for two, or 120 days for three or more serious traffic violations occurring within a three-year period. The department shall use the date of the driving incident to establish the number of violations.

Subp. 6. Reduction of lifetime disqualification. The commissioner shall reduce the lifetime disqualification period imposed under subpart 1, item C, subpart 2, item C, or subpart 3, item C, to a minimum of ten years, disqualification if the person demonstrates rehabilitated driving practices in the ten-year period following the effective date of the lifetime disqualification. A person is considered rehabilitated if during that ten-year period there is no revocation or conviction resulting from the operation of any type of vehicle for an offense listed in Minnesota Statutes, section 171.165, subdivision 1, or if the person's license is not revoked under Minnesota Statutes, section 169.123, or a statute or ordinance from another state in conformity with it. If rehabilitation is not so demonstrated during the initial ten-year period, the disqualification period remains lifetime.

7409.0300 NOTICE OF LICENSE ACTION.

Subpart 1. Notice of possible disqualification. The commissioner shall notify a person who is subject to possible disqualification under this chapter or when requirements from a previous disqualification have not been satisfied. The notification must be in writing and sent by first class mail to the address shown on department records. The notice must contain the following information and may contain other information that the commissioner considers appropriate:

A. the person's full name, date of birth, driver's license number, height, and weight;

B. the current address obtained from the person's driver's license record, including street number, city, state, and zip code;

C. the date the notice is mailed;

D. the effective date of the disqualification order;

E. the reason for the disqualification;

F. the type of vehicle being operated at the time of the driving incident;

G. the length of the disqualification period;

H. a statement that the person has a right to administrative review under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.166; and

I. the length of time during which administrative review is available under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.166.

Subp. 2. Notice of disqualification. The commissioner shall notify a person who is disqualified under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.165, subdivision 1, clause (2), (3), or (4); subdivision 3; or subdivision 4, or when requirements from a previous disqualification have not been satisfied. The disqualification will be effective when all available possibilities of administrative review under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.166, have been completed. The notification must be in writing and sent by first class mail to the address shown on department records. The notice must contain the following information and may contain other information that the commissioner considers appropriate:

A. the person's full name, date of birth, height, weight, and driver's license number;

B. the current address obtained from the person's driver's license record, including street number, city, state, and zip code;

C. the date the notice is mailed;

D. the effective date of the disqualification order;

E. the reason for the disqualification;

F. the type of vehicle being operated at the time of the driving incident;

G. the length of the disqualification period;

H. a statement that by the effective date of disqualification, the person

7409.0400 DRIVER'S LICENSE SURRENDER.

Subpart 1. License surrender. A person holding a license of any class issued by the department shall surrender the license when the person has been disqualified and received notification under part 7409.0300, subpart 2. If the person requests review of the disqualification under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.166, then the request to surrender the driver's license is effective upon receipt of the commissioner's decision. If the license subject to surrender has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, an affidavit or written statement explaining the loss must be submitted in its place. Affidavit forms must be available at the department driver examination and evaluation offices, where the person may surrender the withdrawn license or submit the affidavit or written statement.

Subp. 2. Refusal to surrender license. If a person fails or refuses to surrender a license within 15 days of the notice given under part 7400.0300, subpart 2, the commissioner shall inform the local law enforcement agency. The department shall request that the agency obtain the license or written statement regarding the license's whereabouts. The disqualification period is in effect upon notifying the licensee, but credit must not be given toward the disqualification period until the license is surrendered.

Subp. 3. Class C eligibility. A person who is disqualified from holding a commercial driver's license but whose license is not otherwise under suspension, revocation, or cancellation and denial, must be issued a class C license. The class C license is valid until its expiration date or until the commercial driver's license is reinstated, whichever is earlier, if the driver's privileges are not suspended, revoked, or canceled and denied at any time during that period. If the class C license expires during the disqualification period, the person has the option of paying the commercial driver's license fee at the time of renewal for the classification under disqualification, but commercial motor vehicle privileges must not be reinstated until the requirements of part 7409.0600 are fulfilled.

Subp. 4. Obtaining class C license. A person who has been disqualified from operating commercial motor vehicles and is eligible for a class C license under subpart 3 must be issued a temporary class C license with the notice of disqualification. A paper license will be mailed by the department to the person at no cost. A person who would prefer a class C license card must apply for a duplicate class C license. The duplicate license fee must be paid and a receipt will be issued to the person showing the existence of class C driving privileges. The class C license card will be mailed to the person when it has been manufactured. A minimum of 90 days must be remaining in the disqualification period before a class C license card will be issued.

Subp. 5. Class A, B, or CC license status. The disqualified person will receive the original class A, B, or CC license when the person has fulfilled the reinstatement requirements under part 7409.0600, unless the license has expired and more than one year has elapsed since the expiration date. If the license has expired and more than one year has elapsed, the person must reapply and retest for a class A, B, or CC license.

7409.0600 REINSTATEMENT.

Subpart 1. Reinstatement following disqualification. The commissioner shall reinstate the commercial motor vehicle driving privileges of a person who has been disqualified from holding a commercial driver's license when:

A. the disqualification period has been served and expired;

B. the person has paid the reinstatement fee as required by Minnesota Statutes;

C. the requirements imposed during this or a previous disqualification period have been satisfied; and

D. if issued, the class C license card is returned to the department.

Subp. 2. Reinstatement notice. After the person completes the requirements for reinstatement, the department shall notify the person of reinstatement.

7409.1600 INSURANCE-RELATED OFFENSES.

Subpart 1. Failure to maintain insurance. The commissioner shall revoke the driver's license of a person upon receiving a record of conviction under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, for operating an uninsured vehicle, for a period of:

A. 30 days, if the person has no other convictions under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, within a five-year period;

B. 90 days, if the person has been convicted two times under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, within a five-year period;

C. 180 days, if the person has been convicted three times under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, within a five-year period; or

D. one year, if the person has been convicted four or more times under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, within a five-year period.

Subp. 2. Failure to produce proof of insurance. The commissioner shall revoke the driver's license of a person who fails to produce proof of insurance under Minnesota Statutes, section 169.792. The revocation period is 30 days or until the person files proof of insurance, whichever period is longer.

7409.2200 HABITUAL VIOLATORS.

Subpart 1. In general. The commissioner shall suspend the driver's license of a person upon receiving a record of conviction for a violation of a traffic law under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 169 or 171, or other statutes regulating the operation of motor vehicles on streets or highways, except traffic laws specifically excluded from the driving record by statute. The driver's license must be suspended for a period of:

A. 30 days, if the commissioner has previously sent a violation warning letter to the person and the person is convicted of:

- (1) four traffic offenses within a 12-month period; or
- (2) five traffic offenses within a 24-month period;

- B. 90 days, if the person is convicted of:
 - (1) five traffic offenses within a 12-month period; or
 - (2) six traffic offenses within a 24-month period;
- C. 180 days, if the person is convicted of seven traffic offenses within a 24-month period; or
- D. one year, if the person is convicted of eight or more traffic offenses within a 24-month period.

The commissioner shall send a warning letter or conduct a preliminary hearing under part 7409.4500 if the person is convicted of two misdemeanors or convicted of three or more traffic offenses, under this subpart, occurring within a 24-month period.

The warning letter must be sent by first class mail to the person's last known address or to the address listed on the person's driver's license, informing the person of the number and type of traffic violations on the person's driving record and the consequences of additional traffic violations.

Subp. 2. License, permit, and endorsement violations. The commissioner shall suspend the driver's license of a person for a period of 30 days upon receiving a record of conviction of two or more violations of Minnesota Statutes, section 169.974, subdivision 2; 171.02; 171.05; or 171.321, if the two violations are more than 60 days apart.

Subp. 3. Limited license violations. The commissioner shall suspend the driver's license of a person upon receiving a record of conviction for violating a condition or limitation of a limited license under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.30, for a period of:

- A. 30 days, if the person has no other convictions under that section within a five-year period;
- B. 90 days, if the person has been convicted two times under that section within a five-year period;
- C. 180 days, if the person has been convicted three times under that section within a five-year period; or
- D. one year, if the person has been convicted four or more times under that section within a five-year period.

Subp. 4. Driving after withdrawal. The commissioner shall suspend the driver's license of a person upon receiving a record of conviction of a traffic law under Minnesota Statutes, chapter 169, 171, or other statutes regulating the operation of motor vehicles on streets or highways, except traffic laws specifically excluded from the driving record by statute, committed while the person was driving under a period of withdrawal. The driver's license must be suspended for a period of:

- A. 30 days, if the person has no other incidents of driving after withdrawal within a five-year period;
- B. 90 days, if the person has two incidents of driving after withdrawal within a five-year period;
- C. 180 days, if the person has three violations of driving after withdrawal within a five-year period; or
- D. one year, if the person has four or more violations of driving after withdrawal within a five-year period.

7409.2400 FAILURE TO MAINTAIN INSURANCE.

Subpart 1. Authority; suspension periods. Under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, subdivision 4a, the commissioner shall suspend the driver's license of an operator upon a showing by department records, including accident reports or other sufficient evidence, that a plan of reparation security had not been provided and maintained at the time of the incident. The driver's license must be suspended for a period of:

A. 30 days, if the operator's driver's license has not been withdrawn under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, within a five-year period;

B. 90 days, if the operator's driver's license has been withdrawn once under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, within a five-year period;

C. 180 days, if the operator's driver's license has been withdrawn twice under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, within a five-year period; or

D. one year, if the operator's driver's license has been withdrawn three or more times under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, within a five-year period.

Subp. 2. Converted to revocation. If a person is later convicted under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, subdivision 4, paragraph (b), for the same offense, then the commissioner shall convert the suspension imposed under this part to a revocation under part 7409.1600, subpart 1.

Subp. 3. Suspension time credited to revocation period. Time accrued under the suspension period in this part must be credited toward the revocation period imposed upon conviction under Minnesota Statutes, section 65B.67, subdivision 4, paragraph (b).

7409.3400 DRIVER'S LICENSE SURRENDER.

Subpart 1. License surrender. A person holding a license of any class issued by the department shall surrender the license when the person's driver's license has been revoked, suspended, or canceled. If the license subject to surrender has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, an affidavit or written statement explaining the loss must be submitted in its place. Affidavit forms must be available at the department driver examination and evaluation offices, where the person may surrender the withdrawn license or submit the affidavit or written statement.

Subp. 2. Refusal to surrender license. If a person fails or refuses to surrender a license following suspension, revocation, or cancellation within 30 days of notice under part 7409.3200, the commissioner shall inform the local law enforcement agency. The department shall request that the agency obtain the license or written statement regarding the license's whereabouts. The suspension, revocation, or cancellation period is in effect upon notifying the licensee, but credit must not be given toward the suspension, revocation, or cancellation period until the license is surrendered.

HEARINGS7409.4500 PRELIMINARY HEARING.

Subpart 1. Preliminary hearing required. The commissioner shall require a person to attend a preliminary hearing when the commissioner has sufficient cause to believe that the person:

- A. has committed a violation under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.22, for an unlawful or fraudulent act regarding a driver's license or Minnesota identification card;
- B. has committed a second violation under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.09, for a violation of a restriction imposed on the person's driver's license;

C. has committed a violation under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.30, of a condition or limitation of a limited license; or

D. was not previously sent a warning letter under part 7409.2200, subpart 1, and is convicted of:

- (1) two misdemeanor traffic offenses within a 12-month period;
- (2) four traffic offenses within a 12-month period, or
- (3) five traffic offenses within a 24-month period.

Subp. 2. Scope of review. The commissioner shall review the evidence upon which the preliminary hearing was based, and any other material information brought to the attention of the commissioner.

The commissioner may seek additional information from the person undergoing the preliminary hearing or from an agency or person believed to have information relating to the facts underlying the preliminary hearing. The person required to undergo a preliminary hearing may present additional information to the commissioner at the hearing.

Subp. 3. Suspension period. If, after reviewing the evidence presented at the preliminary hearing, the commissioner has sufficient cause to believe that the person has committed an offense listed in subpart 1, the commissioner shall suspend the driver's license of the person for a minimum period of 30 days or in accordance with the number of traffic convictions accumulated, as set forth in part 7409.2200, subpart 1, unless the person agrees to enter into a driver improvement agreement, as set forth in part 7409.4600, subpart 5.

Subp. 4. Failure to attend preliminary hearing. The commissioner shall suspend the driver's license of a person who fails to attend a preliminary hearing for a minimum period of 30 days or in accordance with the number of traffic convictions accumulated, as set forth in part 7409.2200, subpart 1.

Subp. 5. Notice of preliminary hearing. The commissioner shall send a notice to the person who is required to attend a preliminary hearing by first class mail to the person's last known address or to the address listed on the person's driver's license informing the person:

- A. the reason for the preliminary hearing;
- B. of the time, date, and place of the hearing and, if necessary, instructions to reschedule the hearing; and
- C. that failure to attend the hearing will result in suspension of the person's driver's license.

7409.4600 ADMINISTRATIVE HEARING.

Subpart 1. Right to hearing. The commissioner shall grant a hearing to a person whose driver's license has been withdrawn or is subject to withdrawal.

Subp. 2. Procedure for requesting hearing. A hearing is initiated by a request for review at the department. The hearing may be held by written correspondence, by telephone, or by a personal appearance. The person requesting the review must inform the department of the person's full name, date of birth, driver's license number, and the date of the incident for which review is being requested.

Subp. 3. Scope of review. On receiving a request for a hearing, the commissioner shall review the order, the evidence upon which the order was based, and any other material information brought to the attention of the commissioner to determine whether sufficient cause exists to sustain the order.

The commissioner may seek additional information from the person requesting the review or from an agency or person believed to have information relating to the facts underlying the order of withdrawal. The person requesting the review may present additional information to the commissioner at the hearing.

Subp. 4. Decision. Upon reviewing the evidence, the commissioner shall sustain the withdrawal order if there is sufficient cause to believe that the withdrawal is authorized by law. If the commissioner finds that there is not sufficient cause to believe the withdrawal order is authorized by law, the order must be rescinded.

The commissioner shall give a prompt decision to the person and shall issue a copy of the decision to the person upon request.

Subp. 5. Driver improvement agreement. The commissioner may waive department action on the person's driver's license if:

A. the person's driver's license has been suspended under Minnesota Statutes, section 171.09 or 171.18;

B. after reviewing the person's entire driving record, the commissioner has sufficient cause to believe that the person will improve the person's driving conduct or has demonstrated improved driving conduct; and

C. the person agrees to enter into a driver improvement agreement with the commissioner.

A driver improvement agreement is an agreement between a driver and the commissioner whereby the driver agrees to improve driving conduct in consideration for the department taking no action on the suspension that the person currently has pending.

The driver improvement agreement must not be for a period less than the period of suspension that the person currently has pending.

If the person commits a violation arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle while a driver improvement agreement is in effect, the person's driver's license will be withdrawn for 30 days or according to this chapter, chapter 7503, or Minnesota Statutes, whichever is the longer period.
