9560.0475 ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEWS AND DISPOSITIONAL HEARINGS.

The local agency in the child's county of residence shall conduct administrative reviews of the child's social service plan under Minnesota Statutes, section 260C.203, at least every six months while the child is under state guardianship, in foster care, or in an adoptive placement. A court of competent jurisdiction shall, upon its own motion or that of the child's guardian, conduct a dispositional hearing under Minnesota Statutes, section 260C.325, subdivision 4, paragraph (d), within 18 months after the child is placed in foster care and once every two years thereafter to determine the future status of the child. When the child is placed in an adoptive home, a dispositional hearing shall be sought if the child is removed from the adoptive home or is not legally adopted within two years of the adoptive placement. The local agency in the child's county of residence shall notify an Indian child's tribe of any administrative review or dispositional hearing.

9560.0535 LOCAL AGENCY SEARCH FOR RELATIVES.

[For text of subps 1 and 2, see M.R.]

Subp. 3. Initiation of search for relatives. For six months following the child's first placement, the agency must search for the child's relatives, even if the first placement is with a relative. The agency is permitted to continue the search thereafter only if it determines it is in the best interests of the child or if the court orders it to do so. The agency must thoroughly document the search efforts. If a subsequent placement becomes necessary and other relatives might be available as foster care providers, the local agency must renew the search for those relatives. Pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 260C.202, the court will review the agency's efforts to search for relatives and may order the agency to continue recruitment of relatives if the agency has not performed the search properly.

9560.0542 CONSIDERATION OF THE CHILD'S HERITAGE.

For an Indian child, the Indian Child Welfare Act controls the placement. In all other cases, the agency must follow the requirements in Minnesota Statutes, section 260C.221.

The agency may consider a foster care provider's ability to:

- A. form a relationship with the child;
- B. help the child integrate with the family;
- C. accept the child's background and help the child cope with the child's past;
- D. accept the behavior and personality of the child;
- E. validate the child's cultural and religious background;
- F. meet the child's educational, developmental, or psychological needs; and
- G. meet any other needs of the child.

9560.0613 COURT REVIEW OF COURT-ORDERED PLACEMENTS.

[For text of subps 1 and 2, see M.R.]

Subp. 3. Dispositional hearing required; child in long-term foster care. When a child is placed in long-term foster care through a dispositional hearing and the order specifically states the name of the foster parent or parents, no further dispositional hearings are required unless the placement is terminated. Administrative reviews pursuant to Minnesota Statutes, section 260C.203, must continue while the child remains in the specific placement named in the court order.

[For text of subps 4 and 5, see M.R.]

Subp. 6. Administrative review required. Administrative review pursuant to United States Code, title 42, section 675(5)(B), and Minnesota Statutes, section 260C.203, must continue in the case of a child placed in court-ordered long-term foster care or a child under the guardianship of the commissioner or licensed child-placing agency. Additionally, administrative review must continue for a child in an adoptive placement until the court grants a decree of adoption. Court review may substitute for an administrative review as long as the administrative review requirements are met.
