Statutory Authority: MS s 256.01 subd 2; 256E.05

9565.1200 STANDARDS OF SERVICES.

Subpart 1. Availability of service. Each local social service agency shall make

MINNESOTA RULES 1989

INDIVIDUAL AND FAMILY SERVICES 9565.1400

homemaking services available to eligible families and adults, consistent with state and local social service plan requirements.

Subp. 2. Qualified homemakers. The local social service agency shall assure that each individual and family receiving homemaking services is served by a qualified homemaker.

The local social service agency shall assure that the recruitment, selection, and duties of homemakers are consistent with merit system standards.

The local social service agency shall provide for training for homemakers and staff responsible for homemaking services.

Each homemaker shall have a minimum of 24 hours of training (initial and ongoing) the first year of the homemaker's employment, and 24 hours training annually thereafter. Such training shall include courses in homemaker skills, child and personal care, human growth and development, the aging process, nutrition and home management; and training in working with mentally retarded, mentally ill, chemically dependent, physically handicapped, and family malfunction.

The assignment of homemakers shall be made on the basis of the particular abilities and skills of the homemaker.

Subp. 3. Use of homemaker. A homemaker is to be utilized only as indicated by the service plan developed by the client, social worker, and homemaker. The service plan shall be managed by the social worker.

Subp. 4. Role of homemaker. The role of the homemaker shall be either that of a surrogate caretaker or that of a demonstrator or teacher working with individuals and families to help them achieve self-support; self-care; home-based care; or remedy of neglect, abuse, or exploitation of family members. The tasks shall include assisting with or giving child care, personal care, home management, food planning and preparation, laundering, and general household duties.

Subp. 5. Guidelines. The local agency shall develop guidelines for the use of the homemaking service to assure quality of practice. These guidelines shall include the following:

A. client-social worker discussion of the case which suggests the need for a homemaker; and

B. client participation in the decision to use homemaking services.

Statutory Authority: MS s 256.01 subd 2; 256E.05

9565.1300 CONTRACTING FOR SERVICES.

Purchase homemaking services shall meet or surpass the same standards as the local service agency should it provide services directly.

The local social service agency shall assure that it purchases that part of the homemaking services that the vendor is qualified to provide.

When the local social service agency purchases homemaking services, it has the responsibility to develop the service plan, provide ongoing, counseling help to the client, supervise the homemaker's activities provided in the service plan, and periodically assess progress and continued need for service, unless the contractor is a recognized social service agency capable of performing these functions.

Statutory Authority: MS s 256.01 subd 2; 256E.05

History: L 1984 c 654 art 5 s 58

9565.3400 PROTECTIVE AND VENDOR PAYMENTS.

Subpart 1. Referral. Upon referral from the income maintenance division of the local welfare agency, the local social service agency may determine the need for a protective or vendor payment arrangement for public welfare clients.

Subp. 2. Determination of need. In making such determinations, the local social service agency shall:

- A. make an assessment of the problem;
- B. offer money management services to resolve the problem; and
- C. determine if protective or vendor payments are needed.

Subp. 3. Management. Every effort shall be made to resolve money management problems through provision of services that leave the client with the greatest degree of control of his/her affairs consistent with the well-being of the individual and his family.

Subp. 4. Recommendation. When it is established that money management services are not adequate to resolve the problem, the local social service agency may recommend to the referring party the establishment of protective or vendor payments.

Subp. 5. Procedures. In making the recommendation the local social service agency shall:

A. Document that the client's present management of funds is threatening to his/her well-being or the well-being of his/her children.

B. Recommend the payment method (protective or vendor) most appropriate to the client's need.

C. Recommend the choice of a protective payee. The client is to be involved in the selection process. Excluded payees are county welfare directors, welfare board members, landlords, grocers, and vendors of goods and services who deal directly with clients. A local social service agency staff member may be the protective payee for clients if no other suitable payee can be found.

D. Define the respective responsibilities of the protective payee, agency, and client in writing with copies given to payee, the client, and the agency.

Subp. 6. Continued money management services. The local social service agency may continue to offer money management services to assist the client to resume total responsibility for managing his or her grant.

Subp. 7. Quarterly review. The local social service agency may review the need for protective or vendor payments quarterly and inform the referring party whether there is a need to continue protective or vendor payments.

Subp. 8. Limitation; appeal. Protective and vendor payments in AFDC cases may not continue for more than two years, and are subject to a fair hearing appeal by the recipient.

Subp. 9. Guardian. In AFDC cases, the local social service agency may recommend appointment of a guardian or other legal representative if money management problems are not resolved after two years of protective/vendor payments.

Statutory Authority: MS s 256.01 subd 4; 256E.05

RESIDENTIAL TREATMENT SERVICE

9565.3500 SCOPE.

Parts 9565.3500 to 9565.3700 govern the provision of residential treatment service by local social service agencies to individuals placed in residential programs.

Statutory Authority: MS s 256.01 subd 1; 256E.05 subd 1; 257.175; 393.07

9565.3700 STANDARDS OF SERVICE.

Subpart 1. License or certification required. The local social service agency shall utilize only those residential programs which meet all licensing or certification standards established by the state. If out-of-state facilities are utilized, the facility shall meet standards comparable to those established by Minnesota state agencies.

Subp. 2. Selection of facility. The local social service agency shall base its selection of a residential program on the facility's capacity to meet the client's individual needs. When there is more than one approved vendor who could meet the client's needs, the local agency shall help the client to participate in the selection of the most appropriate facility.

Subp. 3. Information and release. The local social service agency shall give the residential program that information which the program determines that it needs to provide appropriate care and treatment, provided that the information is accompanied by a signed release-of-information form from the client.

Subp. 4. Client plans. The local social service agency shall collaborate with the program in the development, ongoing evaluation, and implementation of the client social service plan and, to the extent possible, shall utilize the assistance
