

1525.0660 FURTHER PROCESSING OR PACKAGING.

If a dairy product is removed from the container in which it was placed by the manufacturer for further processing or packaging by another dairy plant, the identity of the dairy plant performing such further processing and packaging shall be given in lieu of the identity of the manufacturer on all labels bearing the name and address of a distributor. Such number may be printed, embossed, or stamped on the container. If the manufacturer cannot be identified because of misuse of the identity code, the product shall be deemed to be misbranded.
