2675.0400 PARTICIPATION LOANS.

Where a participation in a loan is sold to another bank the agreement may provide that repayment may first be applied to the share sold. Since one of the purposes of such a sale may be to reduce the bank's retention of loans which may exceed its lending limit, the agreement should, as a matter of prudent banking practice, also provide that in the event of default or a comparable event defined in the agreement, the participants shall share in all subsequent repayments and collections in proportion to the percentage of participation at the time of the happening of the event.

When a bank or trust company purchases a participation in a loan originated elsewhere, it must obtain copies of all essential papers necessary to determine the credit quality thereof.

REAL ESTATE LOANS

2675.0901 REAL ESTATE LOANS-DOCUMENTATION.

A bank must maintain a written policy approved annually by its board of directors that at a minimum addresses:

A. Written appraisal or valuation reports made in conjunction with federal, state, and board requirements. Valuation reports must contain detail sufficient to state current market value based on actual conditions and must not be based on projected or speculative events. Updated evaluation reports based on changing conditions of an individual loan transaction or economic conditions must also be included as a requirement.

B. Description of fee title, validity of the bank's lien, position of the lien, and documentation of methods used to make these determinations.

C. Evidence of adequate insurance which names the bank as the loss payee.

D. Exemption of documentation requirements, for a single loan or class of loans, if the loan documents reflect that the lien is not needed to support the loan and where the terms of the transaction as a consequence have not been made more favorable than they would have been in the absence of a lien. For regulatory purposes, no real estate collateral value will be assigned to exempted loans.

"Other real estate" cannot be entered on the books of an association at an amount greater than the balance of the principal amount of the loan at the time of acquisition, plus foreclosure costs and delinquent taxes and assessments paid at time of acquisition.

A separate record of each parcel shall be kept which will show among other things the legal description, the balance due on the principal debt, the cost of foreclosure, delinquent taxes, or other costs of acquisition, subsequent additions, if any, charge-offs, and final disposition.

No cost of repairs or cost of restoration of property may be added to the real estate account except such expenditures as represent permanent improvements.

If deed is taken in lieu of foreclosure, real estate must be carried at a figure not exceeding the balance due on the mortgage, plus taxes and assessments paid by the association other than taxes which were current when deed was obtained.

B. If said parcels of other real estate continue to remain unsold and when due passage of years prove the specific reserve for losses to be insufficient based on annual multiples of five percent of the original amount, as the case may be, the association shall then begin annual transfers, as provided in item A, to the specific reserve account from the legal reserve account.

A deductible amount may be applied separately to one or more insuring agreements. The bond shall not provide that there may be more than one deductible amount from all losses caused by the same person or caused by the same persons acting in collusion or combination in cases in which such losses result from dishonesty of employees (as defined in the bond).

Subp. 3. Coverage of service organizations. If the accounting records of an association are maintained and serviced by a data processing organization, that organization, while performing such data processing services, must be covered as an employee under the association's bond.

Subpart 1. Scope. Terms in parts 2675.8100 to 2675.8190 that are defined in Minnesota Statutes, sections 47.61 to 47.74, have the meanings given them. For the purpose of Minnesota Statutes, sections 47.61 to 47.74, and parts 2675.8100 to 2675.8190, the terms defined in this part have the meanings given them.

No agency agreement effects transfer of control from an owner or leasehold interest unless the agreement is in writing and provides for assumption of all of the responsibilities and requirements of the act and parts 2675.8100 to 2675.8190 by the agent. If the agent is a financial institution, the agent is not required in the agreement to assume any responsibilities or requirements under the act or parts 2675.8100 to 2675.8190 which do not apply to terminals directly owned by financial institutions. If the agent is a national bank, federal savings association, or federal credit union, parts 2675.8100 to 2675.8190 apply to the extent permitted by federal law.

Subp. 6. Customer. "Customer" means any person who has established a contractual relationship with a financial institution whereby that person is authorized to initiate any of those transactions permitted to be performed under the act at a terminal.

Subp. 8. Person. "Person" means any individual, body politic or corporate, partnerships, or other unincorporated associations.

Subp. 9. Personal identification code. "Personal identification code" is the confidential code provided to the customer which is necessary to the completion of a transaction at a terminal.

Subp. 10. Provider. "Provider" means the person or persons having control over a terminal under the act.

Subp. 11. Terminal. "Terminal" means an electronic financial terminal as defined in the act and does not include communication systems such as telephones with digital screens, personal computers, or interactive television possessed by and operated exclusively by the customer whether or not it is used to accept the disclosures required by part 2675.8160.

Subp. 12. Transaction. "Transaction" means each separate, identifiable financial function performed at a terminal as authorized under the act.

Subp. 13. Unauthorized withdrawal. "Unauthorized withdrawal" is a withdrawal by a person other than the customer without actual authority to initiate the withdrawal, and from which the customer receives no benefit. The term does not include any withdrawal that is initiated:

A. by a person who was furnished with the card by the customer, unless the customer has notified the financial institution involved that the transfers by that person are no longer authorized;
