

2900.0400 CONSTRUCTION OF RECEIVING AREA; GENERAL.

Intake and receiving areas shall be located in an area protected from the public, but separate from the areas occupied by the other prisoners of the facility.

Each receiving area of a facility shall provide for privacy of searching, showering, and processing of an admission as well as a secure holding area properly equipped for the convenience of the detainee for up to six hours of detention. There shall be provisions for storage for clothing issued and property received.

Statutory Authority: MS s 401.03

Published Electronically: November 8, 2004