

4660.6100 AREA HEAT PROTECTION, EXISTING AND NEW.

Floors and walls for patient or resident living areas which are overheated due to adjoining heat sources shall be insulated or otherwise protected to prevent the surface from exceeding a temperature of 85 degrees Fahrenheit.

Statutory Authority: MS s 144.56; 144A.02 to 144A.08

Published Electronically: October 11, 2007