

4688.0090 PRIOR AUTHORIZATION.

A health plan company may require prior authorization for services provided by an ECP only to the same extent that it requires prior authorization for these services from other health plan providers. A health plan company shall not impose any additional or different prior authorization requirements or standards for services provided by an ECP than it does for the same services if provided by other health plan company providers.

Statutory Authority: MS s 62Q.19

History: 21 SR 6

Published Electronically: September 26, 1997