

4900.1060 ON AND OFF RESERVATION.

Each plan shall provide for a reasonable balance in the distribution of funds between American Indians residing on and off reservations within the state, as shown by evidence contained in the plan concerning on- and off-reservation population, percentage of low- and moderate-income American Indians, delivery capabilities, and similar circumstances. The plan may provide that at the option of the tribe, band, or communities, the origination and servicing of loans to eligible recipients residing off the reservation may, by separate agreement, be performed by a party or parties selected by the tribe, band, or communities.
