

5200.0640 LIABILITY FOR MISREPRESENTATION.

An applicant shall not be liable for the agency fee if there is a misrepresentation of any material factor by the employer or by the agency. An applicant is not released from the liability for the fee if the job is retained. A material factor is one which constitutes substantially and mainly whether a job would have been accepted if that factor was lacking or was different than stated.

Statutory Authority: MS s 184.24

Published Electronically: June 11, 2008