

6000.1600 FAILURE TO APPEAR.

If the initiating party fails to appear at a proceeding, the hearing may be dismissed with or without prejudice at the discretion of the presiding administrative law judge. The presiding administrative law judge may allow the record to remain open for receipt of stipulated facts which may be used in reaching the judge's decision.

Statutory Authority: MS s 414.01

History: 9 SR 2442; 37 SR 1395

Published Electronically: April 1, 2013