

7080.2430 REPORTING.

Phase II design reports must include detailed drawings, design flows, system component sizing and calculations, hydraulic and organic loading rates, setbacks, location and elevations for construction, and management plans as described in part 7082.0600, subpart 1, and a certified statement.

Statutory Authority: MS s 115.03; 115.55

History: 32 SR 1347

Published Electronically: October 10, 2013