7325.0100 FILING AND SERVICE GENERALLY.

Subpart 1. Filing. For the purposes of this chapter:

A. Filing is accomplished by:

- (1) in-person delivery to the board before 4:30 p.m. on a working day;
- (2) first class United States mail with postage prepaid;
- (3) facsimile; or

(4) as an attachment to an e-mail, with the express, prior written consent of the recipient who has provided an e-mail address for that purpose.

B. Anything filed with the board, unless otherwise specifically directed in writing by the board, a hearing officer, or the general counsel, must also be served on all other parties.

C. A filing by United States mail is deemed filed on the date of its postmark. A filing by e-mail is deemed filed on the date it is sent. A filing occurring on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday is deemed to be filed on the next succeeding day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

Subp. 2. Service. For the purposes of this chapter, service is accomplished by:

- A. in-person delivery;
- B. first class United States mail with postage prepaid;

C. facsimile; or

D. as an attachment to an e-mail, with the express, prior written consent of the recipient who has provided an e-mail address for that purpose.

If service is by United States mail it shall be effective on the date of its postmark. A party served by United States mail shall have three additional days for responding or taking other action from the date of service. If service is by facsimile or e-mail and it is accomplished after 4:30 p.m. local Minnesota time, then the parties served shall have one additional day added to any prescribed period for responding or taking other action from the date of service.

FILING AND INVESTIGATION

7325.0110 FILING, SUPPORTING, AND RESPONDING TO A CHARGE.

Subpart 1. Charge form. A party must file a charge in writing using the form provided by the board.

Subp. 2. Form information. The charge form must include the following information:

- A. the name, address, and telephone number of the party filing the charge;
- B. the name, address, and telephone number of the agent or attorney representing the charging party;
- C. the name, address, and telephone number of the charged party;
- D. the name, address, and telephone number of the agent or attorney representing the charged party, if known;
- E. a clear and concise statement of each charge of an unfair labor practice including the dates, times, and places of the alleged unfair labor practice and the name of the person, entity, or both that allegedly committed the unfair labor practice;
- F. a reference to the specific section or sections of law alleged to have been violated under Minnesota Statutes, section 179.11, 179.12, or 179A.13;
- G. the specific remedy being sought for each unfair labor practice alleged;
- H. a statement that the charging party has served a complete copy of the charge on each party named as a charged party, including the name of the person served for each charged party, the method of service used for each charged party, and the date of service for each charged party; and
- I. a signature acknowledging that the charging party has read the charge and that the statements in the charge are true to the best of the charging party's knowledge and belief.

Subp. 3. Obtaining a charge form. Unfair labor practice charge forms may be obtained from the board in person or on the board's official Web site.

Subp. 4. Serving a form on charged party. The charging party shall serve a complete copy of the charge or amended charge on each party named as a charged party.

Subp. 5. Receipt of a charge. Upon receipt of a charge, the charge must be docketed, assigned a case number, and served on the parties by the board or its designee.

Subp. 6. Submission of evidence. The charging party must submit evidence in support of each alleged unfair labor practice as well as any documents that support its position to the assigned investigator. This submission must be provided within seven days of the date the charge or amended charge is filed, unless an extension is granted by the investigator for good cause shown. The assigned investigator may request the charging party to submit additional evidence to support its charge when the assigned investigator determines additional evidence is necessary to evaluate the charge.

Subp. 7. Submission of a response. The charged party must submit a response to each alleged unfair labor practice in the charge as well as any evidence that supports its position to the assigned investigator. This submission must be provided within 14 days of the date the charge or amended charge is served by the board, unless an extension is granted by the assigned investigator for good cause shown. The assigned investigator may request the charged party to submit additional evidence when the assigned investigator determines additional evidence is necessary to evaluate the charge.

APPEALS AND REVIEW

7325.0400 EXCEPTIONS.

Subpart 1. Appeals from decisions of the commissioner. Appeals from decisions of the commissioner of the Bureau of Mediation Services under Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.12, subdivision 11, regarding unfair labor practices found to occur in the course of a representation election are subject to review by the board in the same manner as recommended decisions and orders of board hearing officers.

Subp. 2. Number of copies. Whenever this part requires a document to be submitted to the board, four paper copies and an electronic copy must be submitted to the board and the document must be served upon all other parties to the proceeding.

Subp. 3. Content of statement of exceptions. A party filing exceptions or cross-exceptions under Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.13, subdivision 1, paragraph (k), must specifically identify in its statement of exceptions the portions of the hearing officer's decision and order to which each exception is made and the grounds for each exception.

Subp. 4. Brief supporting exceptions. The party filing exceptions or cross-exceptions must submit with the statement of its exceptions a brief supporting its exceptions. The brief shall reference any exhibits, offers of proof, or the identity of any witnesses whose testimony supports its exceptions or cross-exceptions. Briefs may not exceed 35 pages in length, except with permission of the board.

Subp. 5. Request for oral argument. A request to present oral argument to the board must be filed with the statement of exceptions or cross-exceptions. The board shall grant a request for oral argument if it finds oral argument would be helpful to its decision-making process.

Subp. 6. Response to exceptions. Within 15 days of service of the excepting party's exceptions, all nonexcepting parties to the hearing must file with the board and serve upon all other parties their responses to the excepting party's exceptions, any cross-exceptions they wish to submit, their brief, and any request for oral argument before the board.

Subp. 7. Response content. All responses to exceptions and any cross-exceptions must state with specificity the portions of the hearing officer's decision to which responses to exceptions or cross-exceptions are directed and the grounds for each response to an exception and the grounds for any cross-exceptions.

Subp. 8. Responses to cross-exceptions. Within 15 days of service of any cross-exceptions, all nonexcepting parties may submit to the board and serve upon all other parties a response to any cross-exceptions filed stating their position with regard to the cross-exceptions. Any response to cross-exceptions shall reference any exhibits, offers of proof, or the identity of any witnesses whose testimony supports its position.

Subp. 9. Request to file an amicus brief. A person or entity seeking to submit an amicus brief to the board must submit to the board a request to file an amicus brief within ten days of the first filing of exceptions in any pending matter. A request to the board to submit an amicus brief must include identification of the person or entity seeking to file the amicus brief, reasons for wishing to file the amicus brief, and any requests for an oral argument.

Subp. 10. Granting an amicus brief request. If the board grants the request to submit the amicus brief, it shall state in its order the deadline for submission of the brief and whether the amicus will be permitted to present an oral argument.

Subp. 11. Invitation of amicus briefs. The board may invite the submission of amicus briefs on any pending matter if it finds receipt of arguments of other persons or entities would be helpful in its decision-making process. If the board invites the submission of amicus briefs, it shall state in its order the deadline for the submission of briefs and whether the invited amicus will be permitted to present an oral argument. Oral argument must be permitted if it would be helpful to the board in its decision-making process.

Subp. 12. Appeals of board decisions. Decisions of the board may be reviewed on certiorari by the Court of Appeals in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.052.

7325.0410 PROCEEDINGS BEFORE THE BOARD.

Subpart 1. Board initiated review of recommended decision and order. The board may, in the absence of the submission of any exceptions, review a recommended decision and order on its own motion when:

A. the board believes the hearing officer's recommended decision and order may be inconsistent with the law or the facts; or

B. a board decision on the case would assist the public by clarifying the law on a particular issue.

Subp. 2. Notice of intent to review. If the board decides to review a recommended order and decision on its own motion, it shall prepare a notice of intent to review specifying the grounds for such review and serve the notice of intent to review on all parties to the case no later than 45 days following the date on which the hearing officer's decision and order was served upon the parties to the case.

Subp. 3. Submissions in response to board's intent to review. The board's order deciding to review shall afford all parties the opportunity to submit briefs within 30 days of its notice of intent to review. Parties desiring to present oral argument regarding the matters identified in the board's notice of intent to review must submit a request for oral argument within 30 days of service of the board's notice of intent to review.

Subp. 4. Means of obtaining evidence. If the board requires the submission of additional evidence under Minnesota Statutes, section 179A.041, subdivision 7, the board must obtain the evidence using the following means:

- A. presentation of evidence in documentary form;
- B. remand to a hearing officer for the presentation of evidence; or
- C. an evidentiary hearing conducted by the board.
