

7422.0500 MOTORCYCLE ROAD GUARD CERTIFICATE ISSUANCE;
DISQUALIFICATION.

Subpart 1. Issuance.

A. Upon successful completion of the motorcycle road guard course and payment by an applicant of the program course fee under part 7422.0900, the commissioner shall issue a motorcycle road guard certificate for a period of four years. There is no automatic renewal for a motorcycle road guard certificate.

B. A person who was previously certified as a motorcycle road guard and whose certification has expired must re-enroll as an applicant by meeting the qualifications under part 7422.0300 and successfully completing the program curriculum in order to perform the duties of a motorcycle road guard under part 7422.0200.

Subp. 2. Disqualification.

A. Once certified, failure of a person who holds a motorcycle road guard certificate to meet any of the requirements under part 7422.0300 is cause for the commissioner to disqualify the person's motorcycle road guard certificate.

B. The commissioner shall disqualify the motorcycle road guard certificate of a person who fails to submit a current driving record as required under part 7422.0300, subpart 7, within 13 months of initial certification.

Subp. 3. Appeal. A person whose motorcycle road guard certificate is disqualified under this part may appeal the commissioner's disqualification under the contested case procedures of Minnesota Statutes, chapter 14.
