

8800.1100 REGULATION OF STRUCTURE HEIGHTS.

When a permit is required under Minnesota Statutes, sections 360.81 to 360.91, application must be made to the commissioner. The commissioner shall make such investigation as may be necessary.

Minnesota Statutes, sections 360.81 to 360.91, do not apply to a structure for which an erection permit is required by the federal government.

Any person interested in the granting or denial of a permit may intervene in the matter of the application. A person desiring intervention shall notify the commissioner of the person's interest. Notification must be in writing.

Before issuing or denying a permit, the commissioner may request an informal appearance of the applicant or any person who has intervened in the matter of the application.

All hearings, notices, orders, and other procedural rules, regarding this subject must be in accordance with Minnesota Statutes, chapters 14 and 360, and any other applicable law.
