

9575.0070 VIOLATIONS.

Subpart 1. By employees. Violations of any of the provisions of this chapter by an employee in the service shall be considered sufficient cause for the dismissal of that employee.

Subp. 2. By an appointing authority. Violations of this chapter by an appointing authority shall be brought to the attention of the appointing authority by the supervisor. The notice shall include remedial measures necessary to correct past violations and to ensure future compliance. If the appointing authority refuses to take corrective action, the supervisor shall inform the commissioner who shall deny or suspend payment of all or part of state and federal administrative reimbursement funds, suspend services from the merit system, or require that other corrective action be taken.

Subp. 3. Appeals. An appointing authority may appeal any denial or suspension of administrative reimbursement to the merit system council which shall, after a review of the record available to the commissioner, make its recommendation to the commissioner. The commissioner's decision shall be final.
