

9575.0570 DURATION OF REGISTERS.

The life of each register shall normally be one year from the date of its establishment, but this period may be reduced or extended by the supervisor with the approval of the council. In no case, however, shall a register be in existence for a period of more than three years. A register may be deemed by the supervisor to be exhausted if fewer than three available eligibles remain on it. Upon exhaustion of a register, or if the supervisor, with the approval of the council, reduces the life of a register, the supervisor shall notify each eligible remaining on such register to this effect by mail to the eligible's last known address.
