

INDEX

USER'S GUIDE

Main Headings

The index to Minnesota Rules 1985 is an alphabetical arrangement of main subject headings. The headings appear in boldface capitals. The words and phrases forming the main headings are selected from terminology used in the rules, and reflect concepts associated with the rules or in common usage.

When used as main headings, the names of departments, agencies, boards, commissions, and committees are inverted if necessary to place the substantive word in the name first in the index entry. For example: AGRICULTURE, STATE DEPARTMENT OF. The inverted heading is then placed in the alphabetical position for the first word in the heading.

There is a main heading for DEFINITIONS. It lists words and phrases defined in a designated definition part or subpart in a rule and other definitions clearly designated as such within a rule.

References to Part Numbers

The numbers listed after an entry refer to rule part numbers. For example:

ACCIDENT REPORTS
Railroads, 8830.3100

means that a Department of Transportation rule requiring certain reports of accidents to be submitted by railroads can be found in part 8830.3100 of Minnesota Rules.

Alphabetization

Main subject headings and the entries under each main subject heading are arranged in word-by-word alphabetical order to the first comma, at which point the alphabetizing is renewed. For example:

ADULT CORRECTIONS FACILITIES
Contraband, mail, 2910.3100
Contraband control, security, 2910.4700

Abbreviations and acronyms are alphabetized as though they are one word. For example:

AID TO FAMILIES WITH DEPENDENT CHILDREN
Business expenses, deduction from income, 9500.0110
Caretakers of child, eligibility, relatives, 9500.0070
CETA incentive payments, exclusion from income, 9500.0110
Change, county of residence, eligibility affect, 9500.0060

BANKS AND BANKING
Evidence, hearings, formation, 2650.3500
F.H.A. premiums, charging off, 2675.2190
Fidelity insurance, 2675.2400
Minimum coverage, 2675.2410
Financial statements, loans, 2675.0200

"SEE" and "SEE ALSO"

Two types of cross-references are used in the index, "see" and "see also." The direction to "see" occurs at a main heading or subheading where no part numbers are listed. It directs the user from a main heading or subheading in the index to another where the part numbers are given. The direction to "see also" occurs at an entry where part numbers are listed but where a suggestion is needed to look at related headings where additional material may be found.

A "see" or "see also" reference to a heading shown in all capital letters directs the user to look outside the main heading where the entry appears to another main heading. For example:

ADDICTION

See DRUG ABUSE AND DEPENDENCY

ADVISORY COMMITTEES

Adult vocational-technical education. 3505.8600

Arts grants. see ARTS GRANT PROCEDURE

AGRICULTURE, STATE DEPARTMENT OF

See also AGRICULTURE

Aerial spraying or dusting. commercial operations licenses.
issuance. 8800.3800

The rules concerning addiction will be found in the index under the main heading DRUG ABUSE AND DEPENDENCY. The rules about an advisory committee for art grants will be found under the main heading ARTS GRANT PROCEDURE. For information about the Department of Agriculture one can find several places to look under the main heading AGRICULTURE, STATE DEPARTMENT OF, and also by looking under the main heading AGRICULTURE.

A "see" reference is also used in the following way:

ABSENCE AND ABSENTEES

See specific index headings

This is a direction to look under a specific subject heading for information on absence or absentees. For example, for information about absentee voters look under the more specific heading ABSENTEE VOTING.

A lower-case "see" or "see also" reference to an entry with the phrase "this topic" directs the user to look within that main heading for an entry. For example:

VOTING MACHINES

Ballots

Test ballots. see Test ballots. this topic
